GOSPEL REFLECTION

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday, January 23, 2022

Luke 1: 1-4; 4: 14-21

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In today's Gospel, before presenting Jesus' programmatic speech in Nazareth, Luke the Evangelist briefly recounts the work of evangelization. It is an activity that Jesus carries out with the power of the Holy Spirit: his Word is original because it reveals the meaning of the Scriptures; it is an authoritative Word because he commands even impure spirits with authority, and they obey him (Mark 1:27). Jesus is different from the teachers of his time. For example, he doesn't open a law school but rather goes around preaching and teaching everywhere: in the synagogues, on the streets, in houses, always moving about! Jesus is also different from John the Baptist, who proclaims God's imminent judgment. Instead, Jesus announces God's fatherly forgiveness.

Now let us imagine that we too enter the synagogue of Nazareth, the village where Jesus has grown up, until he is about 30 years old. What happens is an important event, which delineates Jesus' mission. He stands up to read the Sacred Scripture. He opens the scroll of the Prophet Isaiah and takes up the passage where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor" (Luke 4:18). Then, after a moment of silence filled with expectation on the part of everyone, he says, in the midst of their general amazement: "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing" (v. 21).

Evangelizing the poor: this is Jesus' mission. According to what he says, this is also the mission of the Church, and of every person baptized in the Church. Being a Christian is the same thing as being a missionary. Proclaiming the Gospel with one's word, and even before, with one's life, is the primary aim of the Christian community and of each of its members. It is noted here that Jesus addresses the Good News to all, excluding no one, indeed favoring those who are distant, suffering sick, cast out by society.

Let us ask ourselves: what does it mean to evangelize the poor? It means first of all drawing close to them, it means having the joy of serving them, of freeing them from their oppression, and all of this in the name of and with the Spirit of Christ, because he is the Gospel of God, he is the Mercy of God, he is the liberation of God, he is the One who became poor so as to enrich us with his poverty. The text of Isaiah, reinforced with little adaptations introduced by Jesus, indicates that the messianic announcement of the Kingdom of God come among us is addressed in a preferential way to the marginalized, to captives, to the oppressed.

In Jesus' time these people probably were not at the center of the community of faith. Let us ask ourselves: today, in our parish communities, in our associations, in our movements, are we faithful to Christ's plan? Is the priority evangelizing the poor, bringing them the joyful Good News? Pay heed: it does not only involve doing social assistance, much less political activity. It involves offering the strength of the Gospel of God, who converts hearts, heals wounds, transforms human and social relationships according to the logic of love. The poor are indeed at the center of the Gospel.

JANUARY
SPECIAL COLLECTION
Latin America
Central and Eastern Europe
THIS Sunday, January 23, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

THIS weekend, January 22/23, 2022, our Diocese will take up a collection for the Church in Latin America and in Central and Eastern Europe.

This collection enables us to share and strengthen the faith of those who live in poverty in the remote Andean regions of Peru as well as to our brothers and sisters in Armenia who have experienced religious persecution in their history and are coping with difficult circumstances isolated from their Catholic heritage.

Your support in this collection for the Church in Latin America and in Central and Eastern Europe helps provide the means for rebuilding churches, strengthening seminary programs, and offering religious education to children and families. In this New Year 2022, please be generous in your missionary outreach to our brothers and sisters in the faith, living in these diverse parts of the world.

Thank you, and may the Lord bless you for your generosity and faith.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.
Bishop of the Diocese of Las Vegas

Bethlehem Wood Carving
Sunday, February 6, 2022

Bethlehem Wood Carving will be here at St. Andrew on Sunday, February 6th to sell olive wood carvings from the Holy Land. The proceeds from the sale of these hand carved religious items will be used to support the Catholic and Christian families living in Bethlehem. About 1% of Catholics are living in the little town of Jesus' birth, and they are facing very hard times because of the clashes and the pandemic which has caused serious harm to these families. These Catholic families need to buy food, clothe their children, and pay their bills. Please try to support them if you can by purchasing these beautiful carvings. These carving will make a great gift for you or your loved ones especially for Easter.

Your support is needed!
