Gospel Reflection
John 14: 23-29

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today's Gospel takes us back to the Upper Room. During the Last Supper, before confronting his passion and death on the cross, Jesus promises the Apostles the gift of the Holy Spirit, who will have the task of teaching and recalling [Jesus'] words to the community of disciples. Jesus says: "the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you" (John 14:26). Teach and recall. This is what the Holy Spirit does in our hearts.

At the moment in which he is about to return to the Father, Jesus foretells of the coming of the Spirit who will first teach the disciples to understand the Gospel ever more fully, in order to welcome it in their existence and to render it living and operative by their witness. While he is about to entrust to the Apostles — which in fact means "envoys" — the mission of taking the Gospel to all the world, Jesus promises that they will not be alone. The Holy Spirit, the Counselor, will be with them, and will be beside them, moreover, will be within them, to protect and support them. Jesus returns to the Father but continues to accompany and teach his disciples through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The second aspect of the Holy Spirit's mission consists in helping the Apostles to remember Jesus' words. The Spirit has the task of reawakening the memory, recalling Jesus' words. The divine Teacher has already communicated all that he intended to entrust to the Apostles: with Him, the Word made flesh, the revelation is complete. The Spirit will recall Jesus' teachings in the various concrete circumstances of life, so that they may be put into practice. That is precisely what still happens today in the Church, guided by the light and the power of the Holy Spirit, so that he may bring to everyone the gift of salvation, which is the love and mercy of God. For example, each day when you read — as I have advised you — a passage, a passage of the Gospel, ask the Holy Spirit: "Let me understand and remember these words of Jesus". Then read the passage, every day... But first the prayer to the Spirit, who is in our heart: "Let me remember and understand".

We are not alone: Jesus is close to us, among us, within us! His new presence in history happens through the gift of the Holy Spirit, through whom it is possible to instill a living relationship with Him, the Crucified and Risen One. The Spirit, flowing within us through the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, acts in our life. He guides us in the way to think, to act, to distinguish between what is good and what is bad; he helps us to practice the charity of Jesus, his giving of himself to others, especially to the most needy. We are not alone! The sign of the presence of the Holy Spirit is also the peace that Jesus gives to his disciples: "My peace I give to you" (v. 27). It is different from what mankind hopes for or tries to achieve. The peace of Jesus flows from victory over sin, over selfishness which impedes us from loving one another as brothers and sisters. It is a gift of God and a sign of his presence. Each disciple called today to follow Jesus carrying the cross, receives within him or herself the peace of the Crucified and Risen One in the certainty of his victory and in expectation of his definitive coming.

May the Virgin Mary help us to welcome with docility the Holy Spirit as interior Teacher and as the living Memory of Christ on the daily journey.

S. Janet Ackerman, OP - 8/15/1964

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus Christ,
you came that we might have life,
and have it more abundantly.
You call each of us to a life of holiness,
serving you and one another,
to build up your Kingdom of peace and justice and love.
Open the hearts of those who are being called by you to a vocation to Priesthood or Religious Life.
Give them the courage they need to respond generously to your call,
that we the Church of Las Vegas, nourished in Word and Sacrament,
may shine your Light ever more brightly
in our world today.
We make our prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May Special Collection
Catholic Communications Campaign/Catholic University of America
NEXT Sunday, May 29, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On the weekend of May 28 and 29, 2022, our Diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) and the Catholic University of America (CUA).

Through websites, social networks, television, radio, and print, the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) helps the Church spread the Gospel message through the media locally and nationally. Half of all donations to the CCC collected in our diocese stay in our diocese to support local communications needs, such as radio and television programming and diocesan publications.

This collection also benefits The Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States. At every level, the university is dedicated to the advancement of learning and the development of knowledge to discover and impart truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation and the world.

For more information on the important work of the Catholic Communication Campaign, please visit www.usccb.org/cc and for further information on The Catholic University of America visit www.cua.edu.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop Thomas CSA Reflection

You should have received in the mail your 2022 CSA Packets. If not, we have them available in the parish office, in the vestibule of the church, and in the parish hall.

We look forward to receiving your pledge card with your donation or pledge. You can mail it to the diocese in the envelope provided, drop off at the parish office, or place in the collection basket. Thank-you!

Your pledge or donation is important to us!
The 2022 goal for St. Andrew is $70,241. Once we have reached this goal, all funds raised above and beyond that goal are rebated back to the parish 100% for parish projects.
