Gospel Reflection
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 18: 1-8

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In today's Gospel Jesus tells a parable on the need to pray always, never wearying. The main character is a widow whose insistent pleading with a dishonest judge succeeds in obtaining justice from him. Jesus concludes: if the widow succeeded in convincing that judge, do you think that God will not listen to us if we pray to him with insistence? Jesus' words are very strong: "And will not God vindicate his elect, who cry to him day and night?" (Luke 18:7).

"Crying day and night" to God! This image of prayer is striking, but let us ask ourselves: Why does God want this? Doesn't he already know what we need? What does it mean to "insist" with God? This is a good question that makes us examine an important aspect of the faith: God invites us to pray insistently not because he is unaware of our needs or because he is not listening to us. On the contrary, he is always listening, and he knows everything about us lovingly. On our daily journey, especially in times of difficulty, in the battle against the evil that is outside and within us, the Lord is not far away, he is by our side. We battle with him beside us, and our weapon is prayer which makes us feel his presence beside us, his mercy and also his help. But the battle against evil is a long and hard one; it requires patience and endurance, like Moses who had to keep his arms outstretched for the people to prevail (Exodus 17:8-13). This is how it is: there is a battle to be waged each day, but God is our ally, faith in him is our strength and prayer is the expression of this faith. Therefore, Jesus assures us of the victory, but at the end he asks: "when the Son of man comes, will he find faith on earth?" (Luke 18:8). If faith is snuffed out, prayer is snuffed out, and we walk in the dark. We become lost on the path of life.

Therefore, let us learn from the widow of the Gospel to pray always without growing weary. This widow was very good! She knew how to battle for her children! I think of the many women who fight for their families, who pray and never grow weary. Today let us all remember these women who by their attitude provide us with a true witness of faith and courage, and a model of prayer. Our thoughts go out to them!

Pray always, but not in order to convince the Lord by dint of words! He knows our needs better than we do! Indeed, persevering prayer is the expression of faith in a God who calls us to fight with him every day and at every moment in order to conquer evil with good.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

World Mission Sunday

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Sunday, October 23, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. It is an opportunity for all of us in the Diocese of Las Vegas to show our solidarity with the mission Churches throughout the world.

Our second collection that Sunday, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, is a great sign of our Catholicity and common responsibility for the evangelization of the world.

World Mission Sunday also helps us focus on the theme of the next Synod of Bishops "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission". We are reminded that, as a synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel we are journeying together in mission.

We have all been called through our Baptism to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, planting the holy faith on the earth (Luke 18:8).

On behalf of the mission Churches, I thank you for your prayers, your most treasured gift. And I thank you for your charity on this World Mission Sunday, supporting mission priests, sisters and brothers, lay catechists, and all Christ's witnesses to a world in need of his healing, love, and peace.

May the Lord bless you and your families, living generously, your vocation as baptized Catholics, spreading the love of Jesus in His Church.

Sincerely yours in the Risen Lord,

+ George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.
Bishop of Las Vegas
