5th Sunday of Lent

For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..." (Philippians 3:8) The first commandment says that we shall not put other gods before the Lord. Detaching ourselves from material possessions and considering them "rubbish" does just that. It strengthens our relationship with Jesus and allows us to live more freely and joyfully.

Be Merciful Like the Father

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy

Today's gospel tells us of an encounter between Jesus and the Scribes and Pharisees. It also tells us of an encounter between Jesus and the woman caught in adultery. According to the law, (so say the Scribes and the Pharisees) the woman should be punished by being stoned to death. They wanted to know what Jesus would say and do. It is without a doubt an attempt to trap Jesus. If Jesus agrees with the law, then where is His teaching on mercy, and what about His love and compassion for sinners. If He disagrees with the law and says not to punish her, then He would be undermining the very law itself, and this would be just what the Scribes and Pharisees would need to bring charges against Him.

Jesus, however, turns the tables on the situation. Jesus is a master at understanding the human heart and its intentions. For Jesus, what is happening on the inside of a person always takes precedent over what is happening on the outside. The sin of the woman, though not condoned by Jesus, was on the outside visible to all. It was "out there" for all to see as she stood before everyone in humiliation and shame. The sin of the accusers was hidden. It was a sin of self-righteousness that crept into every corner of their lives. It left no room for mercy or compassion toward others. It rejected Jesus and the mercy of God.

Jesus' response surprised and touched everyone. Encountering Jesus always reveals the truth – the truth about our goodness as well as the truth about our need for conversion; our need to let go of our sins and failings, and to live in closer relationship with God and one another.

No one knows what Jesus wrote in the sand. Perhaps some of those who left saw for the first time the darkness of their sin. No one threw a stone. The encounter with Jesus had the potential to bring about two changes. First, those who were quick to condemn turned away from that practice ("they went away one by one"). Secondly, the one condemned was no longer condemned ("neither do I condemn you"). Each encounter with Jesus is both a dying and a rising. We turn away ("die") from our sins and failings and are empowered ("rise") to new life – a life of living Jesus' way of compassion and mercy. As we journey together this Lent, let us ask God's help to leave the past behind and to walk in the newness of His light and mercy.

"The mercies of the Lord are never spent,
they are renewed each morning
so great is His faithfulness."

ABOUT 4-U

Our Mission is to:

- Glorify the Lord through the gift of music
- Lead Others to a deeper relationship with Jesus
- Respectfully break down boundaries that divide the Community of Believers
- Yield constantly to the dynamic workings of the Holy Spirit

Initially started as a youth ministry band formed in 2003 for the cluster parishes of Sacred Heart Hopedale, Sacred Heart Milford, and Saint Mary's Milford, Catholic Churches. We have evolved into a band that is noted for our devotion to Jesus and spreading his divine message through music, ministry and witness.

WORLD WIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

Jesus has such compassion on the woman in the Gospel reading today as he forgives her and gives her mercy and grace instead of judgment and condemnation. We are in turn called to extend that same love and compassion to others, especially in our marriage relationship. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are on April 1-3 or June 10-12. For more information call Steve and Michelle O'Leary at 1-800-710-WWME, visit our webpage at www.wwme.org, or at <https://www.facebook.com/Wwmema>

HOW ABOUT MAKING A CURSILLO WEEKEND?

Cursillo or "short course in Christianity" is an uplifting and educational experience. Cursillo was brought from Spain to the United States in 1962. The weekend is conducted by a team of laypeople and clergy who deliver organized talks and discussions. What the presenters add to the talks is the witness of their lives, their struggles and triumphs in Christ. The weekend is full of laughter, prayer, great music, wonderful meals and so much more. The next men's Cursillo weekend is being held April 21-24, 2016 at the Immaculate Conception Spiritual Renewal Center in Putnam, CT. The next women's Cursillo weekend is being held June 23-26, 2016 at the Prindle Pond Conference Center in Charlton, MA. For additional information and/or an application, please contact either:
