News & Updates

"Turn again, Lord of hosts, look down from heaven and see.
Attend to this vine, the shoot of your right hand has planted.
Lord of hosts, restore us, let your face shine upon us, that we may be saved."

Psalm 80:15-16, 20

The Jesse Tree isn't just for children. It reminds us that Jesus was a man. He descended from a lineage of fallen, broken humans such as us.

At the Christmas Mass the genealogy of Jesus will be read. With each name and generation, we are reminded of the humanity of Our Lord, of His beautiful humility, and of our own roles in the history of salvation.

May the Lord comfort you and guide you closer to Him
throughout this last week of Advent.

May the Peace of the Lord be with you and your family,
now and forever,
The Knights of Bishop Flanagan Council 12710

"The season of Advent has a twofold character. It is a time of preparation for Christmas when the first coming of God's Son is recalled.

It is also a season when minds are directed by this memorial to Christ's second coming at the end of time. It is thus a season of joyful & spiritual expectation." ~ General Norms for the Liturgical Year (no 39)
