We wish all our families a peaceful and joyful Christmas Season and Happy New Year!

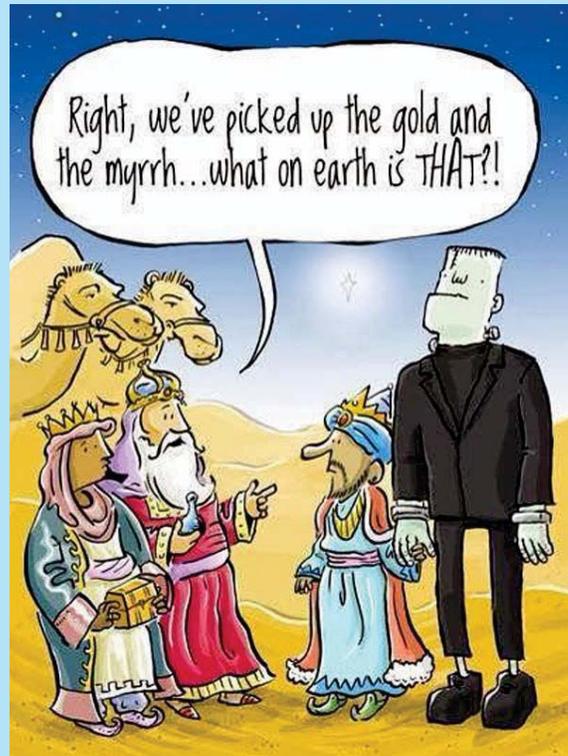

The little kids in the Christmas pageant always wanted to be part of the Magi. It might have been the costumes or the lack of speaking parts, but the big attraction was the gifts they carried. Gold, frankincense and myrrh, in beautiful, treasure chest boxes, are held up high for everyone to see. It's quite spectacular!

The best gifts we can give are not so visible, and may even go unnoticed, but they make a difference. Kindness and consideration come in the form of a helping hand, a kind word, or a note of thanks. Consolation and reassurance come in hugs and held hands, encouraging words and a loving smile. Hope and healing come in the form of kisses and a pat on the back, while peace and quiet come in the form of a parent night out, a late night coffee or a special moment together. You don't need a lot to offer a lot. Find out for yourself. Give a gift and feel like a king!

As we began last week, let us continue with the 12 Days of Christmas with the final six.

7) Seven Swans A-Swimming...These swans represent the seven gifts God the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

8) Eight Maids A-Milking...The 8 Maids A-Milking symbolizes the 8 Beatitudes preached by Jesus in the Sermon on the mountain.

9) Nine Ladies Dancing...The nine ladies dancing represents the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

10) Ten Lords A-Leaping...These 10 lords a-leaping signifies the Ten Commandments, which provide guidance for how to be the best version of one's self.

11) Eleven Pipers Piping...they represent the eleven faithful disciples of Jesus: Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the Younger, Simon, and Jude.

12) The Twelve Drummers Drumming...these 12 drummers represent the twelve points of doctrine in the Apostles' Creed, which summarizes the core beliefs of Christianity.

So now you know the story behind the song of The 12 Days of Christmas. Perhaps the next time you sing this song it will make you think of the relationship and symbolization to our Catholic religion. Amen!

A very Happy and Healthy New Year to all.

To thrive as a faithful Catholic man, he needs an active and growing relationship with God, to intentionally invest in his formation and prayer life, and to build friendships that will sharpen him and hold him accountable to a life of holiness and virtue.

The COR program is designed for this purpose. It exists to form and strengthen Catholic men in faith and virtue, by drawing them into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through prayer, formation and fraternity. The name COR, which is Latin for heart, was chosen because our faith, our relationship with God, and our formation begin with and reside in our heart.

Our COR gatherings are the first Sunday of the month at St. Mark's rectory from 9:15am-10:15am, and on the second Saturday of the month at St. Brigid office/rectory from 8am-9am. All our brother parishioners are invited, and we look forward to sharing and exploring our religion together.

May God's Love and Mercy be with you and your family,

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

By Fr. Larry Rice

“All of creation is changed by the appearance of Christ.”

In popular tradition, the feast of Epiphany commemorates the arrival of the three kings at the stable in Bethlehem where Christ was born. The gospel reading for the day—Matthew 2:1-12—tells the story. Over the years, a lot of tradition has grown around this story. Many people will tell you that the magi were three kings, named Caspar, Balthazar, and Melchior, and they may note that Caspar is traditionally depicted with darker skin. But if you read those twelve short verses from Matthew’s Gospel, it becomes clear that we really know very little about the magi. We don’t know their names. We don’t know where they came from—Matthew only says “from the east.” We don’t even know that they were kings. The word used by Matthew is “magi,” meaning someone learned in esoteric knowledge. Some translations call them “astrologers,” but the only basis for that is the statement that they were following a star. And even the star itself is a mystery. Astronomers can chart the movement of the stars back in time, but they can’t seem to agree about the existence of an astronomical event that would explain the reference. And even the most casual observer would have a hard time explaining what it would mean for a star to move through the sky and then stop over a particular place. Regardless of who the magi were and how the star showed them the way, the most significant part of this event is the identity of the one who is made know—Jesus, the newborn king, who is worthy of homage by all men and women. The meaning of the epiphany that occurs in this gospel passage is that the “the newborn king of the Jews” is revealed to and recognized by people from far and distant lands. The appearance of mystical signs in the sky makes the point that all of creation is changed by the appearance of Christ. Because God has chosen to become human, all creation and all the people of the earth can experience the redemption he has come to bring.
