Gospel Reading

Matthew 20:1-16

In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, Jesus teaches about God's generous mercy.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus moves from Galilee to teach in Judea where he is sought out by great crowds and tested by the Pharisees on issues such as marriage and divorce. Jesus also encounters a rich young man who is unable to accept Jesus' demand that he leave his possessions to follow him. Jesus' response to the rich young man sounds very much like the conclusion we will find in today's Gospel: the first will be last and the last will be first.

On the surface, the parable of the workers in the vineyard appears to be an offense to common sense. Those who work a longer day ought to be paid more than those who work just an hour or two. When viewed in this way, the landowner seems unfair. That is because we are reading into the parable our own preconceived notions of how fairness and equality should be quantified.

A close read shows us that the landowner paid on the terms that were negotiated. The landowner, it seems, has acted completely justly. The parable goes beyond that, however, and we come to see that the landowner is not simply just, he is exceptionally just. He is radically just. He has given those who labored in the field for a full day their due pay. But he has also given a full-day's wage to those who worked only a single hour. No one is cheated, but a few receive abundantly from the landowner just as we receive from God more than what is merely justifiable or due. God, like the landowner, is radically just and abundantly generous. The workers who complain are made to look foolish as they lament the fact that landowner has made all workers equal. Indeed, what more could one ask for than to be treated as an equal at work or anywhere else?

The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, he offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to relate to God on our terms rather than to accept God's radically different ways.

K—5 Faith Formation Program

Written by the Sisters of Notre Dame, Christ Our Life provides a thorough presentation of our Catholic faith to elementary students. Children learn Gospel values, and how to become active disciples of Jesus Christ through Scripture and doctrine. Church teachings that can be found in all lessons. Engaging activities, music, and prayer show children how they can turn their learned faith into a strong faith.

Grades 6—8

A Parish Religious Education Program

Catholic Connections is a comprehensive parish religious education program for sixth, seventh, and eighth graders. It aims to help them strengthen their Catholic identity and make connections between faith and life.

The program includes a handbook written especially for young adolescents. THE CATHOLIC CONNECTIONS HANDBOOK for MIDDLE SCHOOLERS, a web site with additional resources to support teachers, and six teacher guides that use an active, hands on approach to religious education.

We will be using this program with our grade 6—8 students.

Your journey toward Confirmation is a powerful, life-changing experience for teens as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. This program will take your child on a journey through the entire Catholic Faith in all its richness and vitality. The goal is nothing sort of winning over the hearts of teens at a critical time in their lives and keeping them in the Church.

Prayer is:

Worshipping God giving Him His due as Creator. God created the entire world's beauty—from pretty sunsets to beautiful people. Whenever we see God's beauty or God in something, we should praise God and tell Him how great it is... and how great HE is.

We have started drawing tickets and the winners are listed below. You may still purchase tickets after that and they will go into the container. Just a reminder, that even if your name is drawn, your ticket goes back in to be possibly drawn again!! Good Luck everyone.

We want to assure you that we are still following all the Diocesan and State guidelines regarding COVID safety precautions. If you have concerns, please contact the office at 13-584-1326

A Special Appreciation
We would like to thank Lenny Danyliencko, Jim Smola, and Father Piotr for working on installing the new fence at the Holy Rosary Cemetery.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible
I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and our salvation he came down from Heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit, was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontias Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day, in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us: you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Please see the extra sheet on the table. It contains the readings, the responsorial psalm and the gospel.

The readings are starting to get more lengthy, therefore they will be printed out and placed on the table for the time being.
