Fr. Wojciech's Corner ...

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. Trinity is the perfect relationship. 3 persons and yet 1 God. May the Most Holy Trinity teach us how to relate to one another.

Next Sunday, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ known as Corpus Christi. After Saturday 5PM Mass, we will have our Corpus Christi Procession on the streets around the Church. I encourage ALL with their families to participate in such a great opportunity to manifest our faith in the Real Presence and our love for the Eucharistic Lord. I encourage and ask OLV parish groups to bring their banners. Attention First Holy Communicants, come and accompany the Eucharistic Jesus wearing your Holy Communion outfits, and Confirmation students please wear a red t-shirt. All Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Corpus Christi is your unique feast.

I encourage you to attend as we continue our catechesis/ talks in OLV Gym, Monday and Thursdays at 7:30PM.

TO ALL FATHERS...

I dedicate these words addressed to the foster father of Jesus (Joseph) handpicked by God to be the model for all fathers. Curiously, the Angel entrusts Joseph, not the biological mother of Jesus (Mary), to rise (same word used for resurrection egeirō), to take the child and his mother and protect the family from danger. May the OLV fathers be always RISEN and obedient to God the Father. May they be true sons before they are fathers. May they be good husbands before they are fathers. May the Our Father that we say in today's Mass remind us that fatherhood comes from the FATHER who art in heaven. Let us not forget today all who passed, may Jesus the Son be the key to open the many dwelling places of the Father for them. Happy Fathers Day! To all Fathers, sons and daughters I dedicate this simple story:

Did You Use All Your Strength?

I remember an old story about a little boy who was out helping his dad with the yard work. Dad asked him to pick up the rocks in a certain area of the yard. Dad looked over and saw him struggling to pull up a huge rock buried in the dirt. The little boy struggled and struggled while Dad watched. Finally, the boy gave up and said, "I can't do it." Dad asked, "Did you use all of your strength?" The little boy looked hurt and said, "Yes, sir. I used every ounce of strength I have." The father smiled and said, "No you didn't. You didn't ask me to help." The father walked over and then the two of them pulled that big rock out of the dirt. One of the great Biblical truths seems impossible. Liberty comes through being yoked with Christ.

EASTER DUTY

The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty), that is the obligation of receiving the Eucharist for Easter, extends to Sunday, Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, June 15. No one conscious of committing a serious or mortal sin should receive Holy Communion until they have first gone to the Sacrament of Reconciliation a.k.a. Confession.

SIGN OF GLORY

Catholics often make the Sign of the Cross casually, just as a nice gesture for beginning and ending their prayers. But, when we learn to take this act seriously, signing ourselves frequently with faith and reverence, remarkable results can take place. We find ourselves doing measurably better in our Christian life: Praying with more Passion, Resisting our bad inclinations more effectively, and Relating to others more kindly. The Sign of the Cross, after all, is not merely a pious gesture. It is a powerful prayer, a sacramental of the Church.

TO ALL OUR FATHERS HAPPY FATHERS DAY!

To Our Fathers Who Have Gone
Before Us
Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, Oh Lord!

DARING St. Catherine of Sienna with the TRINITY:

A story is reported by Catherine's spiritual director, Raymond of Capua. According to Raymond, Catherine would often recite the office while walking along a cloister in the company of Jesus, mystically visible to the saint. When she came to the conclusion of a psalm, she would, according to liturgical custom, speak the words of the Glory Be, but her version was as follows, "Glory be to the Father, and to Thee, and to the Holy Ghost!" For her, Christ was not a distant figure, and prayer was not an abstract exercise. Rather, the Lord was at her side, and prayer was conversation between friends.

IN the NAME (not names) of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: SIGN OF THE CROSS - The making of the sign of the cross, which professes faith both in the redemption of Christ and in the Trinity, was practiced from the earliest centuries. St. Augustine (431) mentioned and described it many times in his sermons and letters. In those days Christians made the sign of the cross (Redemption) with three fingers (Trinity) on their foreheads. The words ("In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost") were added later. Almost two hundred years before Augustine, in the third century, Tertullian had already reported this touching and beautiful early Christian practice: In all our undertakings — when we enter a place or leave it; before we dress; before we bathe; when we take our meals; when we light the lamps in the evening; before we retire at night; when we sit down to read; before each new task — we trace the sign of the cross on our foreheads.

"Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost"

DOXOLOGY — The ancient Christian doxology (prayer of praise) "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost" was used in the Oriental Church. The second part ("as it was in the beginning...") seems to have been added at the time of Emperor Constantine. During the fifth century this beautiful short prayer came into the Western Church and spread very quickly. Since then it has been in constant use in both liturgical and private devotions. Finally, the Council of Narbonne (589) prescribed that it should be added after every psalm and hymn in the Divine Office. It is an ancient tradition that in poetical hymns of the liturgy the Gloria Patri is rendered in a paraphrase (free version) within the last stanza.

Saint of the Trinity

Sister Elizabeth of the Trinity was a Carmelite nun, contemporary to Saint Therese of Lisieux. She was canonized in the year 2000. She fashioned all her life on the Trinity. Her act of oblation is sublime and real:

"O my God, Trinity whom I adore!
Help me to become utterly forgetful of self,
that I may bury myself in Thee,
as changeless and as calm
as though my soul were already in eternity...
O my Three, my All, my Beatitude, Infinite Solitude,
Immensity wherein I lose myself!
I yield myself to Thee as Thy prey.
Bury Thyself in me that I may be buried in Thee,
until I depart to contemplate in Thy light
the abyss of Thy greatness!"

She used to say: "I have found my heaven on earth, since heaven is God, and God is in my soul." What wisdom!

REQUIREMENTS FOR BAPTISM OR CONFIRMATION SPONSOR

Godparent/Sponsor must be at least 16 years old * Godparent/Sponsor must be in good standing with the Catholic Church. Must be a practicing Catholic (Attend Sunday Mass weekly). * Must have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation. If married, must be married in the Catholic Church. * If single, not living with significant other, nor married civilly only. * Godparent/Sponsor cannot be the candidate's parent. Each child only requires one Godparent. If you wish to have two Godparents, there must be one female and one male. (Canon Law 872-874)

Sacred Matrimony on Sacred ground

"ceremony" at the venue is not a valid Sacrament

For the Catholic Church the Sacrament of Matrimony is such a sacred matter that the Church requires for two Catholics to be married Sacramentally in the Catholic Church, not elsewhere. All the Sacraments except Confession are always celebrated in Church. Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation and the Sacred Orders (Priesthood is even celebrated at the Cathedral of a given Diocese). A Catholic priest can only officiate Sacrament of Matrimony of two Catholics on sacred grounds (Church). This wedding at the same time is a civil wedding. For more info contact Fr. Wojciech.

Intensity of God

It was Pope John XXII who in 1334 extended to the universal Church the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. A thousand years earlier the great Ecumenical Councils of Nicea (325) and Constantinople (381) had defined this essential truth of the faith, that in the one Divine Nature there are three Divine Persons.

Trinity Sunday is however not so much a celebration of a doctrine but of a Family. God is not a lonely being, aloof from everything for lack of equals, a solitary who creates a world to dispel idleness. He is a Trinity of persons. He is a communion.

A family so much in love that they overflow in us and for us. We become sons and daughters of the Father, brothers and sisters of the Son and temples of the Holy Spirit. All fellowships, be it marriage, family, civil society, can be patterned on this Eternal Communion. The vitality of this God puts everything in perspective.

St. Gregory Nazianzen, one of the earlier Fathers of the Church, explains how God prepared us for the revelation of this sublime truth by the progressive revelation He provided in Sacred Scripture.

"The Old Testament proclaimed the Father clearly, but the Son more obscurely. The New Testament revealed the Son and gave us a glimpse of the divinity of the Spirit. Now the Spirit dwells among us and grants us a clearer vision of himself."

Father's WAY...and...ways

There was a king whose only son was an angry, rebellious young man. Try as he might, the king could not find a way to his son's heart. And finally one day the boy gathered up his things and rode off into the sunset. The father tracked his journey across many lands, waiting patiently till his son would remember where his real home was. When the time seemed right, the father sent a message, "Come home, my son," he said. "I love you, and I want you at my side." The son replied with a sad heart, "Dear father, I can't come home. Too much has passed between us. The distance is too far." The father replied, "Return as far as you can, my son, and I will come to you the rest of the way."

Why do we call Priests "Father"?

Catholics are unique because our dads aren't the only men we call father. We also address each of our priests in the same way. The Church has used this title for clergy since its earliest days. In the beginning, the title "Father" was reserved for the pope, but it eventually widened in use until all bishops and priests were also addressed in the same way.

While our priests are not our biological fathers, they are our spiritual fathers. Just as a father leads his family and protects them from harm, so do our priests guide and defend us, the people God has entrusted to their care. They also provide us with the spiritual nourishment we need to grow in holiness and ultimately reach Heaven: in particular, the nourishment of the Eucharist and the healing power of Confession.

A virtuous father takes responsibility for himself, as well as for the welfare of his wife and children. Likewise, a good priest cares for his spiritual family and holds himself accountable for their spiritual well-being. While we see them most frequently saying Mass, they also hear confessions, provide spiritual direction, visit and anoint the sick, help couples prepare for marriage, baptize, and much more.

During their daily prayer and Liturgy of the Hours, they are praying and interceding for us and our intentions, placing our needs and petitions at the feet of the Father, God.

Priests are called to sacrifice so much in order to serve us. A man whom God calls to the Roman Catholic priesthood gives up having his own earthly marriage and physical family in order to be fully and wholehearted available to whomever God places on his path. Priests dedicate every day of their lives to serving their flocks sacramentally and practically, and sacrifice biological fatherhood in order to live out God's gift of spiritual fatherhood.

We call priests "father" because of their spiritual leadership in that great family which makes up the Body of Christ. Today, we certainly encourage you to honor your dad's love and sacrifice over the years—however, don't forget about your priest, who also gave his life to serve you and help lead your soul to heaven! -Catholiccompany/getfed
