Fr. Wojciech's Corner

To all who participated in our Corpus Christi Procession, to all who prepared and worked behind the scenes - Thank you.

For those who did not hear yet, I was extended as pastor of OLV for one more year ending June 30, 2026.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of two great Apostles, Saints Peter and Paul. May their love for Christ inspire us as well to give our all for Him as they did. Maybe a very practical thing to do would be to remember in these summer months to be faithful to the Lord by attending Mass wherever we are. Let us not vacation from the Lord, but with the Lord.

As we celebrate, reflect and thank God for our freedom this Friday, let us not take freedom for granted. May the gift of freedom make us aware of the responsibility that comes with it... and let us remember that true independence is always in DEPENDENCE on God.

Happy 4th of July to ALL!

Let all America Bless God!

GOING ON VACATION

Visit www.masstimes.org for the locations of Catholic Churches and a Mass schedule, throughout the USA.

Pray for Vocations

"If there is no priest, then there is no Holy Mass; if there is no Holy Mass, then there is no consecration of the Sacred Host; if there is not consecration of the Sacred Host then there is no Holy Communion; then if there is no Holy Communion there is no Sacramental Presence of Jesus."

What if you are CALLED! ???

Call the Vocations office 973-497-4365 and ask for Fr. Gino, Director, who is always ready to listen - or call Fr. Wojciech at our parish 201-768-1706, ext. 11.

Holy Name

Are you looking for a community of men to share your faith with? The OLV Holy Name Society is a community of men of all ages who attend the 9:30am Mass on the second Sunday of the month, say the Divine Mercy Chaplet right after, then gather downstairs till 11:45am for friendship, reflection, and refreshment. Our next Mass / meeting is Sunday, July 13. If you need to attend a different Mass time, that's fine, just come for the Chaplet and meeting. Our reflection topic will be Cardinal Tobin's "We Are His Witnesses" program.

PLEASE NOTE !!!! - Summer Adoration Schedule

First Thursday, Friday & Saturday

There will be no First Thursday Holy Hour during July and August. First Friday - July 4th - adoration will be in the morning. There will be Mass at 8AM and 12Noon only. No 7PM Mass this Friday.

dress code REVERENT DRESS

It is the Supper of the Lord - formal dinner. Please keep it in mind, especially now in the summer months. Let us be an inspiration rather than a distraction.

One Nation Under God

DID YOU KNOW?

Independence Day commemorates the formal adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. However, it was not declared a legal holiday until 1941.

Fireworks were made in China as early as the 11th century. The Chinese used their pyrotechnic mixtures for war rockets and explosives.

Uncle Sam was first popularized during the War of 1812, when the term appeared on supply containers. Believe it or not, the U.S. Congress didn't adopt him as a national symbol until 1961.

There are many precise rules for taking care of the American flag. And speaking of flag traditions, we're sorry to report that contrary to legend, historical research has failed to confirm that Betsy Ross sewed the first flag.

Not all members of the Continental Congress supported a formal Declaration of Independence, but those who did were passionate about it. One representative rode 80 miles by horseback to reach Philadelphia and break a tie in support of independence.

The first two versions of the Liberty Bell were defective and had to be melted down and recast. The third version rang every Fourth of July from 1778 to 1835, when, according to tradition, it cracked as it was being tolled for the death of Chief Justice John Marshall.

The American national anthem, the "Star-Spangled Banner," is set to the tune of an English drinking song ("To Anacreon in Heaven").

The iron framework of the Statue of Liberty was devised by French engineer Alexandre-Gustave Eiffel, who also built the Eiffel Tower in Paris.

The patriotic poem "America the Beautiful" was published on July 4, 1895 by Wellesley College professor Katharine Lee Bates.

Father of the country and architect of independence George Washington held his first public office at the tender age of 17. He continued in public service until his death in 1799.

America is named after a Saint...indirectly

Amerigo Vespucci, the Italian cartographer who lent his name to the two continents of the New World, was himself a baptized Catholic. As is still the case, law of the Church was that a baby be given the name of a saint upon baptism. Little baby Amerigo was named after St. Emericus. There are at least two saints who bear the name Emericus. One was martyred during the persecution of Emperor Galerius; the other, St. Emeric of Hungary, was the son of St. Stephen of Hungary.

Solemnity Saints Peter and Paul - June 29

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, the principal pillars of the Church founded by Our Lord Jesus Christ. Peter was chosen by Our Lord as: the rock over whom He founded His Church, being His first Vicar (FIRST POPE) on earth and endowing him with the powers of the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven (cf. Mt 16:13-19); entrusting him the role of Shepherd to pasture and look over His flock (cf. Jn 21:15-17) making him, as well as his successors, the visible sign of unity and communion of His Church in faith and charity.

Paul, on the other hand, was chosen by Our Lord, to be the instrument to preach, bringing Christ's name to all peoples (Acts 9:15), -a task which was already given by Our Lord to the Apostles, prior His Ascension to heaven (cf. Mt 28:19), thereby intending the universality, i.e., catholic character of the Church-, but was carried out in an impressive way by the great apostolic zeal of St. Paul, considered as the greatest missionary of all times, the APOSTLE OF GENTILES.

What do St. Peter and St. Paul have in common? They are among the GREATEST SAINTS who were WEAK, COMMITTED SINS, EVEN GRAVE SINS AT THAT: Peter, denying Our Lord thrice...Paul, persecutor and assassin of the first Christians.

BUT GOD CHOSE THEM TO BE HIS INSTRUMENTS, and THEY ALLOWED GOD TO WORK IN THEIR SOUL, in their life. THEY KNEW HOW TO BE HUMBLE; they changed their ways; HAVE FALLEN ONCE MORE; AND, UNTIRINGLY STOOD UP AND FULFILLED GOD'S WILL AND STRUGGLED TILL THE END FOR LOVE OF GOD... reaching their goal with God's grace and their loving correspondence, and thus becoming the principal pillars of the Roman Catholic Church.

Dear brethren: As we celebrate today's solemnity in thanksgiving to the Blessed Trinity for the generous and heroic self-giving of St. Peter and St. Paul, let us remind ourselves that, You and I...we too are sinners...are called by God to holiness and apostolate, IN SPITE OF OUR ERRORS, OUR PAST, RIGHT THERE WHERE GOD HAS PLACED US... So?

Let us move on then rejecting despair and discouragement, filling ourselves with hope in our daily journey towards holiness out of love for God, and entrusting ourselves to God's patience and mercy convinced that "Many great things depend — don't forget it — on whether you and I live our lives as God wants

(St. Josemaria, The Way, n. 255)."

Sacred Matrimony on Sacred ground

"ceremony" at the venue is not a valid Sacrament

For the Catholic Church the Sacrament of Matrimony is such a sacred matter that the Church requires for two Catholics to be married Sacramentally in the Catholic Church, not elsewhere. All the Sacraments except Confession are always celebrated in Church. Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation and the Sacred Orders (Priesthood is even celebrated at the Cathedral of a given Diocese). A Catholic priest can only officiate Sacrament of Matrimony of two Catholics on sacred grounds (Church). This wedding at the same time is a civil wedding. For more info contact Fr. Wojciech.

True Freedom - in being Forgiven

All peoples have been set free from the powers that held them captive by our Lord Jesus Christ. He it is – yes, He! – who has redeemed us. As the apostle Paul says: “Having forgiven all our transgressions, obliterating the bond against us, nailing it to the cross, He despoiled the principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, leading them away in triumph,” (Col 2,13-15). Yes, we have been released from our bonds, those of us who have been brought together at the Lord's call by the sacrament of baptism...; we have been set free by the blood of Christ and the invocation of His name... Bravely hold fast to what you have received; keep it to your own happiness; sin no more. From henceforth, keep yourselves pure and without fault for the day of the Lord.

St. Pacian of Barcelona

the Price They Paid

Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence? Five signers were captured by the British as traitors, and tortured before they died. Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned. Two lost their sons in the revolutionary army, another had two sons captured. Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the revolutionary war. They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they? Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists. Eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners, men of means, well educated. But they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing full well that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader, saw his ships swept from the seas by the British Navy. He sold his home and properties to pay his debts, and died in rags.

Thomas McKean was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family almost constantly. He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken from him, and poverty was his reward.

Vandals or soldiers or both, looted the properties of Ellery, Clymer, Hall, Walton, Gwinnett, Heyward, Rutledge, and Middleton.

At the battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson Jr. noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters. The owner quietly urged General George Washington to open fire. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt.

Francis Lewis had his home and properties destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died within a few months.

John Hart was driven from his wife's bedside as she was dying. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and his gristmill were laid to waste. For more than a year he lived in forests and caves, returning home to find his wife dead and his children vanished. A few weeks later he died from exhaustion and a broken heart. Norris and Livingston suffered similar fates.

Such were the stories and sacrifices of the American Revolution. These were not wild eyed, rabble-rousing ruffians. They were soft-spoken men of means and education. They had security, but they valued liberty more. Standing tall, straight, and unwavering, they pledged: “For the support of this declaration, with firm reliance on the protection of the divine providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.”

Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati - July 4

A phrase we often hear in connection with Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati is Verso l'alto - “towards the top,” or “towards the heights.” He wrote it on the back of a famous photo of him doing his favorite thing: mountain climbing. After his death, the phrase became a two-word summary of his brief yet unforgettable life.

Pier Giorgio was born at the beginning of the 20th century into a well-to-do family in Turin, Italy. He was a happy, fun-loving youth who loved to spend time with his friends, swim, hike, and climb among the celestial peaks of his homeland. He laughed a lot. He was joyful, ever-smiling, genuine. He glowed from the inside out. What was it that made this young man so happy? Pier Giorgio's vibrant faith was the interior furnace that fueled his ebullient joy. Even those of us who only see his trademark smile in photographs can tell that it was the genuine expression of a soul on fire for God.

He was devoted to Our Lady and to the Eucharist. He received permission to receive Holy Communion every day, which was rare back then. He practiced the corporal works of mercy to the highest degree, serving the poor with his own hands, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, helping the war-weary soldiers coming home from World War I.

He was also involved in various apostolates of the Church, joining the Third Order Dominicans in 1922. He didn't shy away from the political arena, either, pushing for the recognition of the true teachings of the Church in a world that was becoming enamored of communism and fascism.

In other words, he lived his faith to the fullest at every moment of his rather ordinary life. And wouldn't you know it? He became a saint.

Of course, Pier Giorgio's inability to give anything less than 100% got him in trouble, eventually. His close work with the sick was - the doctors thought - what probably caused him to contract polio. He died at the age of twenty-four after a six-day illness. After his death, the poor people that he loved so much flooded the streets for his funeral.

At his beatification in 1990, fellow-saint and fellow-mountaineer Pope John Paul II named Blessed Pier Giorgio “the man of the eight Beatitudes” for the way he whole-heartedly lived his faith.

Pope Leo announced Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati and Blessed Carlo Acutis will be canonized together on September 7, 2025.
