Managing Disagreements In Ministry

Disagreements are inevitable in parish life. When ignored they can take many forms and eventually lead to conflict between individuals and within the many ministries of parish life. While conflict is traditionally seen as a negative, from a faith perspective it should be viewed as an opportunity to create a better and more effective ministry. This workshop will provide Saint Hubert parish ministry leaders ways to identify conflicts in their ministerial setting and provide strategies for responding with faith, hope, and love.

Our Presenter: Mike Dowling has been involved in church ministry for nearly forty years providing retreats, workshops, and staff consulting services. He is currently the director of the Regional Office of Religious Education in the Diocese of Rockford. He has a background in business management and marketing, completed a Master of Divinity degree and recently earned a Doctorate of Ministry degree. His professional church experience includes being a Teacher, Pastoral Associate, Consultant for Adult Education, and Assistant Director of an Archdiocesan Religious Education Office.

Thank you all for the amazing work and your continued dedication to our St. Hubert community.

The Greatest Is All of Us Working Together

In today's gospel, Jesus learns that the apostles had a "discussion" about who was the greatest apostle among them. The desire to compete is a very human need. But Jesus says if we're going to compete, compete together to help others. God doesn't have favorites; we all share in his life. So it's good to help one another reach our potential—to live with God as our center, which compels us to live well together and to want what's best for each of us and all of us. Here are a couple of different ways we're trying to do that as a community of faith:

Our 2020 Vision Includes Our Spiritual Well Being, Too

- Our 2020 Vision includes more than capital improvements to our campus. We're also looking at the spiritual and ministerial life of our community. One of the great blessings of the St. Hubert Community is our diversity of gifts and talents. We have a host of ministries that empower parishioners to do the work of the gospel in the way they feel God is calling them to serve.
- To ensure we're meeting the needs of the community as we go forward, we're working with our ministry leaders to see what they need, if anything, to help empower them to continue the good work they're doing. As St. Paul says, we're many parts but all one body. We want to do everything we can to allow the body to move and function well.
- Our annual Ministry Leaders Night—which is not just for ministry heads, but anyone involved in ministry—takes place on September 27 beginning at 6:30 PM in the lower level of the church. This year, we have a special guest speaker who will provide some meaningful insights on how to work through conflict, which as we know is a normal part of everyday life.
- Thank you to the hundreds of people who serve others day after day, week after week. You are the Body of Christ in our world helping us reach our potential.

The Seminarians Are Back!

- After a summer break, our seminarians—Deacon Tom Heathershaw, Ryan Brady and David Jameson—return to St. Hubert on the weekends to experience more of parish life and to bring their gifts and talents to their assigned ministries.
- Last May, Tom was ordained a Deacon for the Diocese of Dubuque, Iowa, and so you'll see him assisting at Masses and involved with service opportunities as he prepares for priesthood ordination.
- Ryan, who is studying for the Archdiocese of Chicago, will focus on youth ministry and will also be with us full-time from February-May for his pastoral internship. David, who is a seminarian for the Diocese of Grand Rapids, will be working on opportunities to do adult formation and catechesis.
- This weekend is Seminary Sunday here in the Archdiocese, so you'll have an opportunity to hear their vocation story and their desire to give their lives to service in the Church. They're not competing to be the greatest, but to be of service to all. In these difficult times, their vocation is a true witness of hope and faith that we need to see. We're blessed to have them here with us, and they tell me all the time how blessed they feel to be a part of our community. We need each other to affirm and strengthen our life in Christ.

May God bless you as we grow together as disciples of Jesus Christ, the one we follow.

--Fr. Mike

In this Sunday's readings, we face wickedness: jealousy destroying what's good, selfishness causing harm to others, and pride squashing those who get in the way.

The first scripture covers the evil doings of outsiders who oppressed the Israelite nation. In the Gospel reading, Jesus predicts the evil doings of spiritual outsiders who were fighting against his ministry. The letter of James addresses the worst wickedness of all: the battle within the Church – Christians against Christians.

Jealousy and selfishness are usually the root beneath every scandal in the Church, every division on the parish staff, every discord among ministries, every disappointed volunteer who feels pushed out, every broken relationship in Christian families, and every attitude that chases weaker Catholics away from the faith – it's all wicked!

To get at the root of any divisive problem, look for self-centered ambition. Honestly and objectively identify even the most subtle forms of it so that you can also identify God's antidote. When you see divisiveness in others, do you feel sorrow for them? If not, why not? The answer to that usually lies in our own self-centered pride.

Jesus provided the cure for this: "If anyone wishes to be first" (motivated by selfish ambition) "you must become the servant of all."

Selfish ambition is sinful because it tries to grab success away from others. James pointed out that whatever we're ambitious for, if it's good, we can have it simply by asking God for it and working in collaboration with the Holy Spirit to achieve our goals – but not if we want it only to satisfy our personal, selfish passions.

When we desire something for the sake of how it will help others (rather than just for our own benefit), this desire is pure, peaceable, gentle, compliant, and full of mercy and will produce good fruits.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. When have you suffered from the jealousies and selfish ambitions of others in the Church?
2. How did this affect your faith?
3. Did it motivate you to avoid committing the same sin?
4. Identify how jealousy and selfish ambition have been the underlying cause behind one problem you've witnessed or experienced. What does your story teach about how to deal with such scandals with a pure heart, a peaceful response, gentleness, mercy, and good fruits that turn a tragedy into a triumph?

We live in a world of deep divisions. Everywhere we see polarization, people bitterly divided from each other by ideology, politics, economic theory, moral beliefs, and theology. We tend to use over-simplistic categories within which to understand these divisions: the left and the right opposing each other, liberals and conservatives at odds, pro-life vying with pro-choice.

Virtually every social and moral issue is a war-zone: the status of women, climate change, gender roles, sexuality, marriage and family as institutions, the role of government, how the LGBTQ community is to be understood, among other issues. And our churches aren't exempt; too often we cannot agree on anything. Civility has disappeared from public discourse even within our churches where there is now as much division and hostility within each denomination as there is between them. More and more, we cannot discuss openly any sensitive matter, even within our own families. Instead we discuss politics, religion, and values only within our own ideological circles; and there, rather than challenging each other, we mostly end up feeding each other in our biases and indignations thus becoming even more intolerant, bitter, and judgmental.

Scripture calls this enmity, hatred, and indeed that's its proper name. We are becoming hate-filled people who both fuel and justify our hatred on religious and moral grounds. We need only to watch the news on any night to see this. How's this to be overcome?

At the more macro level in politics and religion, it's hard to see how these bitter divides will ever be bridged, especially when so much of our public discourse is feeding and widening the division. What's needed is nothing short of religious conversion, a religious change of heart, and that's contingent on the individual. The collective heart will change only when individual hearts first do. We help save the sanity of the world by first safeguarding our own sanity, but that's no easy task.

It's not as simple as everyone simply agreeing to think nicer thoughts. Nor, it seems, will we find much common ground in our public dialogues. The dialogue that's needed isn't easily come by; certainly we haven't come by it yet. Many groups are trying for it, but without much success. Generally what happens is that the even most-well intended dialogue quickly degenerates into an attempt to by each side to score its own ideological points rather than in genuinely trying to understand each other. Where does that leave us?

The real answer, I believe, lies in an understanding of how the cross and death of Jesus brings about reconciliation. The author of the Letter to the Ephesians tells us that Jesus broke down the barrier of hostility that existed between communities by creating one person where formerly there had been two – and he did it this “by reconciling both [sides] in one body through his cross, which put that enmity to death.” (Ephesians 2, 16)

How does the cross of Christ put enmity to death? Not through some kind of magic. Jesus didn't break down the divisions between us by mystically paying off some debt for our sins through his suffering, as if God needed to be appeased by blood to forgive us and open the gates of heaven. That image is simply the metaphor behind our icons and language about being washed clean of sin and saved by the blood of Christ. What happened in the cross and death of Jesus is something that asks for our imitation not simply our admiration. What happened in the cross and death of Jesus is an example for us to imitate. What are we to imitate?

What Jesus did in his passion and death was to transform bitterness and division rather than to retransmit them and give them back in kind. In the love which he showed in his passion and death Jesus did this: He took in hatred, held it inside himself, transformed it, and gave back love. He took in bitterness, held it, transformed it, and gave back graciousness. He took in curses, held them, transformed them, and gave back blessing. He took in paranoia, held it, transformed it, and gave back big-heartedness. He took in murder, held it, transformed it, and gave back forgiveness. And he took in enmity, bitter division, held it, transformed it, and through that revealed to us the deep secret for forming community, namely, we need to take away the hatred that divides us by absorbing and holding it within ourselves and thereby transforming it. Like a water purifier which holds within itself the toxins and the poisons and gives back only pure water, we must hold within ourselves the toxins that poison community and give back only graciousness and openness to everyone. That's the only key to overcome division.

We live in bitterly divisive times, paralyzed in terms of meeting amicably on virtually every sensitive issue of politics, economics, morality, and religion. That stalemate will remain until one by one, we each transform rather than enflame and retransmit the hatred that divides us.

The Campaign for St. Hubert Parish

A Look at the Campaign Case Elements:

Each week we will feature one of the areas our campaign seeks to address. This week we look at the third of the five main areas of need.

Church Lower Level:

Install Sound System & Zone Lighting, Upgrade Kitchen Electric Panel
Cost: $20,000

St. Hubert hosts a variety of community outreach programs, parish life events, and ministries in the lower level of our church. Next to the Parish Ministry Center, it is the most used space on the campus. A new electrical panel is needed for the kitchen, which will help us when hosting families for lunch after funerals, and we would like explore adding zone lighting to better accommodate parish social events. Prior to this campaign, we did not have a sound system, which made it difficult to hear when large groups are gathered—especially families gathering to remember loved ones and share memories at our funeral luncheons. Since the campaign began, a parishioner in the sound business generously installed a new system for us, so we have already completed that part of the project and just used it for the first time for a large funeral luncheon. The family was grateful, as are all of us, for this generous in-kind gift.

Jim and Lisa Elder (long time members and Campaign Chairs) say:

"Saint Hubert is our spiritual home which means the lower level is our family gathering room. We use it to welcome new friends and continue enjoying it with our parish family. When we welcome new members every six weeks, we need to be aware of where we plug-in appliances. There are times when we go up for Mass and come back down and the coffee maker is not working, or the warming oven has been switched off because we have too many things plugged into one spot. There's nothing like having a party at your house and things aren't working. It is very embarrassing. When we do presentations you either have all the lights on or all the lights off. There is no dimming and no separate controls of lights in the lower level. The improvements will really help everyone out."

Have You Responded to Fr. Mike's Request Yet?

Fr. Mike and our Campaign Leadership Team invite you to consider making a pledge to the campaign. Please prayerfully consider it and make your pledge in the coming week. If you need information, or have not yet been contacted by a volunteer, please call the parish office at 847-885-7700.

NOVENA FOR THE HEALING OF OUR CHURCH

Pray this novena daily for nine days with an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be.

Loving God, turn your ear to the cries of your sons and daughters who seek healing for Your Church.

We are heartbroken. We are bruised. We are hurting.

In these days we again wrestle with understanding the heinous acts of abuse by those entrusted with shepherding Your flock.

Ease our troubled hearts. Mend our broken spirits.

Be "ever present in our distress."

Merciful Lord, send Your Healing Spirit to our brothers and sisters who have endured pain and abuse physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Comfort their weary spirits. Soothe their pain. Grant them justice. May our eyes be opened to see Your image in these wounded members of Your Church.

Shepherd of Souls, make Your presence known to us that these wrongful acts will be addressed. Inspire our leaders of the Church to seek new and effective paths to keep safe the flock they shepherd.

Give us all courage to act and speak up on behalf of the most vulnerable. Rush the winds of the Spirit to scatter the darkness of sin. Pour forth Your healing Spirit to renew our trust and hope in You, who are our refuge and our strength.

We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY OF INITIATION (CMI)

Spiritually Longing For Something More in your Family?

Sometimes, as parents, we forget how important spiritual nourishment is for our children. With work and activities, we may even find it difficult to attend church. We may sense that we have been away too long and don't know what steps to take to return to the Catholic Faith.

If your children haven't received any religious education and consequently have missed receiving their sacraments, now is the time to call and start a journey back to the Church for yourself and your children.

Children's Ministry of Initiation will be starting new sessions in October. This would be a wonderful opportunity to come and find how you and your children, baptized and un-baptized, could experience a journey back to God and the Catholic faith. No matter how long you and your family have been away from the church, listen...is God calling you back to His Church?

If you are a concerned grandparent, aunt, uncle, friend, or neighbor, you too can help with this journey in a child's life. Pass this article on to those family members and friends described above! It is the greatest gift you will ever give to them.

For more information, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.
Classes begin October 14.

Religious Education Aides Needed!

The success of our Religious Education program is due to our dedicated, committed, volunteers, who faithfully come week after week to teach our children. We need more people to join them for the coming school year.

Saturdays 9:00—10:45 AM
Sundays 7:20—9:00 PM

Parish Pets' Blessing honors the Feast of St. Francis Thursday, October 4th

We often see an image of St. Francis of Assisi giving God glory as Creator by holding up a small creature or raising his arms in praise.

This blessing gives thanks for the companionship of our pets, asks God to keep them healthy, and that they be a source of pleasure for the Earth and our homes. Children and all households who care for God's creatures are invited to bring your pet for the traditional blessing of animals. This will take place about 4:00 PM in the parish lot near the School Lunch Room.

It is common to bring dogs and cats, but you can also bring your hamsters, birds, bunnies and the like. It is safer for your small pet, such as these, to be in their cage. Let all God's creation be kept from harm, abuse, or neglect as we celebrate the feast of St. Francis, who honored God with respect for all God has put on Earth.

IF YOU'RE WAITING
THIS IS IT.

RCIA—AN INVITATION TO COME AND SEE!

RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. It is an opportunity for those who have never been baptized, or baptized with little or no affiliation or religious training in the Catholic religion, to learn and ask questions about the Catholic faith. This includes those who may have been baptized Catholic, but have not yet received their First Communion or Confirmation.

Sometimes, after the information meetings, prayer, and reflection, participants choose to begin the process for becoming Catholic or coming into full Communion. It is important to note, however, that no commitment is expected of participants at this time.

Contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Please note, if you are an adult who is only in need of completing your initiation is through the Sacrament of Confirmation or if you are fully initiated but have been away from the Church and interested in returning, know that we have separate ministries to welcome you into or back to the fullness of our Church.

BAPTISMAL MINISTERS

The Baptism team needs help! We need extra hands to help with Sunday Baptisms. It will not take a lot of your time and I promise you will find it rewarding.

I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

Time/Talent Needs:

Baptismal Ministers provide a climate of hospitality for the parents of the babies coming for baptism, as well as their relatives and friends. These ministers also assist the priest or deacon as necessary.

Qualifications:

A sense of hospitality. An ability to make others feel comfortable and welcome. A love for children. Training will be provided on the baptismal ritual and theology. And the opportunity to observe a couple of Sunday afternoon baptisms.

Level of Commitment:

Baptismal Ministers are scheduled in teams of 2 based on their availability. Baptisms take place every other Sunday afternoon at 1:30 PM except during the Lenten season. This amounts to attending a baptism once every six weeks.

Sexual Assault Awareness and Risk Reduction

Sexual assault is any type of sexual activity or contact that you do not consent to. Sexual assault can happen through physical force or threats of force or in cases when an attacker gives a victim drugs or alcohol as part of the assault. Sexual assault includes rape, groping, and sexual coercion.

In the United States, one in three women has experienced some type of sexual violence. Sexual assault is NEVER the victim's fault. Sexual assault is a violent attack on an individual, not a spontaneous crime of sexual passion. No one "asks" for or deserves this type of attack.

However, it's always a good practice to be alert and observant of your surroundings.

When in a social environment pay attention to behavior that doesn't seem right to you, such as:

- Someone getting too close to you who enjoys your discomfort
- Someone doing "power stares" or looking through you
- Someone who is blocking your way
- Someone talking intimately when you don't want them to

Be assertive by:

- Get angry if someone does something sexual that you don't want them to do.
- Act immediately with some kind of negative response when someone makes sexual advances that you do not want.
- Stand up for what you believe in. It's okay to be rude to someone who is sexually pressuring you to do something you don't want to do.

If you have been sexually assaulted, it is not your fault, regardless of the circumstances. Seek help by contacting:

Northwest Center Against Sexual Assault 24 Hour Hotline: 888-802-8890

The Community Crisis Center 24-Hour Crisis Hotline: 847-697-2380

10th ANNUAL LIFE CHAIN

on IRVING PARK ROAD

Join us on Sunday, October 7th from 2:30—4:00 PM

Annually, on the first Sunday in October, National Life Chain invites Christians in every city and town across our country to stand along a sidewalk on designated streets to pray for about one hour, while holding signs opposing abortion. All life, including new birth is precious and must be protected from conception until natural death.

Once again this year we plan to join with fellow Christians to form a Life Chain of people along the south side of Irving Park Road from Barrington Rd. to Bartlett Rd. We will select a sign similar to those shown in the photo above. Signs will be available from those present along the route. Family members, relatives, and those interested in eliminating abortion are welcome to join. Bring a lawn chair for your comfort.

Afterwards, once again, St. Ansgar at 2040 Laurel Ave in Hanover Park, IL is hosting a coffee and Danish. All are welcome to warm up and share their stories.

Helping Hands Ministry

The St. Hubert Helping Hands volunteers offer to give their time and talents to help people in need for free. Let us know if you need help.

Ways people have received help:

- A ride to church
- A ride to the store (food shopping, Christmas shopping)
- Snow removal
- Helped to find a bus to drive homeless people to church
- Advice (plumbing, painting, etc.)

'Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.'

—Galatians 6:2

'Don't forget to do good and to share with what you have with those in need, for such sacrifices are very pleasing to him.'

—Hebrews 13:16

Contact the parish front office at 847-885-7700 if you need help or if you would like to become a volunteer. God Bless!

Pilgrimage to Italy 2019

There will be a pilgrimage going to Italy next year, co-hosted by parish member Joseph Marco, Chaplain and Coordinator of Catholic Ministry at Northwest Community Hospital, and Fr. Allen Bratkowski, Pastor of St. Edward and St. Richard Parishes in Racine, WI. The dates are November 4 through November 14, 2019. We will spend three nights in Sorrento (Amalfi, Capri, Pompeii), three nights in Assisi (Basilica of St. Francis, wine tasting, olive oil mill), and three nights in Rome (Roman Forum, Sistine Chapel, St. Peter's Basilica, Papal audience). Brochures with the full itinerary are available in the Narthex by the bulletin board at the main entrance of the church. An Information Meeting will be held on Monday, October 15th at 6:00 PM in the Dorothy Day Room of the Parish Ministry Center. A representative from Trans World Travel will be there to discuss the trip and answer questions. You can also call Joseph Marco at 847-991-9050 for additional information. We hope you can consider joining us on this memorable tour.
