EASTER SUNDAY

APRIL 21, 2019

The Good News of Easter “He Had to Rise from the Dead!”

John 20:9

It's time to sing Alleluia! Today is Easter Sunday, the day Christians all over the world celebrate Mary Magdalene's discovery: Jesus' tomb is empty.

The Sunday morning gospel is a mixture of confusion, fear, wonder and awe. Peter and John ran to the tomb to investigate and they found it just as Mary had said: empty but with the burial cloths still there. We'll hear that John saw and believed, but we'll also hear they still didn't understand the Scripture at that point, “that he had to rise from the dead” (John 20:9).

And that's a powerful reflection that moves our hearts and minds this Easter: He had to rise from the dead. In rising, he opened the gates of paradise so that our life with God would never have to end. He has given us the opportunity to live fully with God, now and always, the way God intended it to be from the beginning.

The saints and angels sing today. They experience the resurrection without ceasing. And we lift up our hearts to sing with them: Heaven and earth are filled with God's glory. Hosanna in the highest! The body of Christ has been lifted up so we can be lifted up with him.

Love conquers hate; life conquers death. And it leads us to sing Alleluia!

On behalf of all us dedicated to serving you here at St. Hubert, Happy Easter! It's good to be together—especially today!

—Fr. Mike

Please note that I will be on vacation from Monday, April 22 through Friday April 26.

In my absence, please contact Fr. Peter Fernandes, especially for the Anointing of the Sick. He can be reached at 847-885-7700, ext. 107. Or you can always contact Pat Aschom, our parish secretary, at ext. 104 and she will assist you.

I'll be back for First Communion on Saturday, April 27!

Thanks and Remembering

Today, at the close of the Triduum, we rejoice and receive the Risen Lord into our hearts. How moving and magnificent it was to celebrate Holy Week and these holiest of days, when we kneel and wash the feet of one another; when we adore the cross of suffering and death, awed by God's love for us; when we recall and rejoice together who we are as a baptized people.

More than 20 liturgies were celebrated from Passion/Palm Sunday through today on Easter Sunday. The volunteers you witnessed and those who spent hours behind the scenes in preparation are too many in number to mention by name. Whether you watered a plant, proclaimed a reading, prepared the environment, moved a piece of furniture, served the Eucharist, played an instrument, assisted our song with your voice, presided at liturgy, served at the altar or took care of our needs as ushers, thank you to everyone in every ministry who was gracious and attentive to the liturgy.

Alleluia! Celebrate the healing and increased faith that comes from growing closer to Jesus through the faith-building exercises of Lent and the solemn meditations of Holy Week!

The doorway into heaven is the cross. Experiencing the glory of the celebration of Easter -- deep within our hearts, within our needs, within our desires -- began with accepting our sorrows and sacrifices and sufferings are our own personal connections to Jesus. And now, Easter joy comes not only from accepting what Jesus did for you on the cross but also from continuing the journey, side by side, step by step with Jesus.

When we're sincere about following Christ, if we truly want to grow in faith, we do whatever he does, united to his ministry of helping others grow in their eternal relationship with God. In this, we face the cross again and again. There is no gain in salvation without the pain of sacrificial love.

The victorious alleluia of Easter is the triumph of the cross. It's the realization that life doesn't have to be free of troubles in order to be full of joy. It's the day-to-day living out of a faith that comes from trusting that God is carrying us through the trials and bringing good out of bad.

Our cross is a soft word that we speak when someone else is angry and we feel like shouting. Our cross is a hand outstretched to comfort the afflicted when it's inconvenient and we feel like withdrawing. Our cross is a good deed that we do to those who treat us unjustly and we feel like retaliating. And our resurrection is the joy that comes from knowing that we have made a difference in the lives of others for the sake of God's kingdom.

Love that's given when it's difficult is a suffering love, a passionate love, a salvific love, i.e., it benefits the eternal lives of others. Then, our sacrifices have a value of endless worth. This is so much better than a self-serving, easy life. It's eternally better! Easter Sunday Mass is the celebration of rising with Jesus into glorious victory over evil.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What sacrifices are you suffering from right now? This is your cross. God appreciates all you have done for his kingdom; knowing this is your resurrection!
2. Describe the time when a bad experience turned into something good. What did you learn from it about God or faith?
3. How do you know that you're an Easter Christian?

God never overpowers, never twists arms, never pushes your face into something so as to take away your freedom. God respects our freedom and is never a coercive force.

And nowhere is this more true than in what is revealed in the resurrection of Jesus. The Gospels assure us that, like his birth, the resurrection was physical, real, not just some alteration inside the consciousness of believers. After the resurrection, we are assured, Jesus' tomb was empty, people could touch him, he ate food with them, he was not a ghost.

But his rising from the dead was not a brute slap in the face to his critics, a non-negotiable fact that left sceptics with nothing to say. The resurrection didn't make a big splash. It was not some spectacular event that exploded into the world as the highlight on the evening news. It had the same dynamics as the incarnation itself: After he rose from the dead, Jesus was seen by some, but not by others; understood by some, but not by others. Some got his meaning and it changed their lives, others were indifferent to him, and still others understood what had happened, hardened their hearts against it, and tried to destroy its truth.

Notice how this parallels, almost perfectly, what happened at the birth of Jesus: The baby was real, not a ghost, but he was seen by some, but not by others and the event was understood by some but not by others. Some got its meaning and it changed their lives, others were indifferent and their lives went on as before, while still others (like Herod) sensed its meaning but hardened their hearts against it and tried to destroy the child.

Why the difference? What makes some see the resurrection while others do not? What lets some understand the mystery and embrace it, while others are left in indifference or hatred?

Hugo of St. Victor used to say: Love is the eye! When we look at anything through the eyes of love, we see correctly, understand, and properly appropriate its mystery. The reverse is also true. When we look at anything through eyes that are jaded, cynical, jealous, or bitter, we will not see correctly, will not understand, and will not properly appropriate its mystery.

We see this in how the Gospel of John describes the events of Easter Sunday. Jesus has risen, but, first of all, only the person who is driven by love, Mary Magdala, goes out in search of him. The others remain as they are, locked inside their own worlds. But love seeks out its beloved and Mary Magdala goes out, spices in hand, wanting at least to embalm his dead body. She finds his grave empty and runs back to Peter and the beloved disciple and tells them the tomb is empty. The two race off together, towards the tomb, but the disciple whom Jesus loved out-runs Peter and gets to the tomb first, but he doesn't enter, he waits for Peter (authority) to go in first.

Peter enters the empty tomb, sees the linens that had covered the body of Jesus, but does not understand. Then the beloved disciple, love, enters. He sees and he does understand. Love grasps the mystery. Love is the eye. It is what lets us see and understand the resurrection.

That is why, after the resurrection, some saw Jesus but others did not. Some understood the resurrection while others did not. Those with the eyes of love saw and understood. Those without the eyes of love either didn't see anything or were perplexed or upset by what they did see.

There are lots of ways to be blind. I remember an Easter Sunday some years ago when I was a young graduate student in San Francisco. Easter Sunday was late that year and it was a spectacularly beautiful spring day. But on that particular day I was mostly blind to what was around me. I was young, homesick, alone on Easter Sunday, and nursing a huge heartache. That colored everything I was seeing and feeling. It was Easter Sunday, in spring, in high sunshine, but, for what I was seeing, it might as well have been midnight, on Good Friday, in the dead of winter.

Lonely and nursing a heartache, I took a walk to calm my restlessness. At the entrance of a park, I saw a blind beggar holding a sign that read: It's spring and I'm blind! The irony wasn't lost on me. I was blind that day, more blind than that beggar, seeing neither spring nor the resurrection. What I was seeing were only those things that reflected what was going on inside my own heart.

Christ is risen, though we might not see him! We don't always notice spring. The miraculous doesn't force itself on us. It's there, there to be seen, but whether we see or not, and what precisely we do see, depends mainly upon what's going on inside our own hearts.

Easter 2019

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we walk on our life journeys in this world, we may often feel overwhelmed. Struggle and suffering can mark our lives because of health issues, job insecurity, family concerns, or the painful loss of a loved one. The world itself, in Saint Paul's words, "has been groaning" (Roman 8:22), as it struggles with wars, violence, ecological degradation, economic injustice, and natural disasters. And as we are keenly aware this past year, the Church herself has struggled mightily with the shameful legacy of abuse and its mismanagement.

It seems that the landscape of our lives is entirely shaped by struggle and suffering. And that might seem to be the sum and substance of it all, but, in faith, we know that it is not. Our celebration of the Lord's Resurrection in this Easter season opens our eyes beyond this desperate landscape to a new and hope-filled horizon. There is more to the story than our struggle and suffering. In the Resurrection of Jesus, we can begin to see a new life ahead of us that God offers to us.

As we go forth in this Easter season, I am reminded of the great Psalm 118 that the Church so often prays:

*I was thrust down, thrust down and falling,
but the Lord was my helper.
The Lord is my strength and my song;
and has been my savior.
There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just. (vv. 13-15)*

May this Easter season renew within you and your loved ones the conviction that God is your helper and an abiding awareness of your victory in the Risen Lord Jesus.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

20+20 Vision

PREPARING FOR THE 2020s

As we look forward to the 2020s, we launched our 2020 Vision Capital Campaign this past summer to tackle some needed projects.

MAIN GOALS

We are raising funds over five years through a pledging process. We are working to complete four main projects:

1. Install a fire prevention sprinkling system in the school building.
2. Build a 1:1 School Technology Program.
3. Support the Archdiocese of Chicago's campaign to support Catholic education, called "To Teach Who Christ Is," and
4. Improve the functionality of our most well-used campus spaces.

WE'RE ALMOST THERE!

Our goal for the projects is $2.4 million. We've received 672 pledges or gifts and are within 98% of our goal! If you haven't made a pledge yet, and are in a position to do so, we pray that you will consider helping us meet our goal. Pledge cards and information are located in the narthex. You can also donate electronically through Give Central at GiveCentral.org.

Sarah was a young woman with two children when she entered the Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments program. She had been in foster care most of her life, and needed to learn basic skills to be a good parent and successful adult. Catholic Charities worked with her to break the cycle of poverty and helped her learn budgeting and parenting skills. She blossomed before her case manager's eyes and went on to have a successful career, marry and has a great family thanks to the compassion and hope she received at Catholic Charities which serves the poor of Cook and Lake County.

Please give to Catholic Charities on Mother's Day to help families from our community overcome enormous obstacles. Learn more at www.catholiccharities.net.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
