PARISH NAMING OPPORTUNITY!

Dear Parishioners,

As promised, you're invited to be part of this exciting opportunity of naming the newly unified Parish. Please take some time to review the following information and to keep this process in your prayers.

Timetable and Naming Process:

- All parishioners are invited to submit names from 12/23/23 – 1/21/24.
- The Unification Committee will consolidate the input for Renew My Church leadership to screen on 1/24/24.
- Parish survey of 3 - 6 names that pass the initial review process will be presented to the parish for voting 02/03/24 – 02/12/24.
- Selected names will be presented to the Episcopal Council at the Archdiocese in late February.
- Episcopal Council submits names for consideration from the parish and the Cardinal selects a unified parish name on 03/05/24.

Guidelines:

- Mission Driven. Two church communities, each with a proud history, should be thoughtfully considered; along with how we will re-focus ourselves to the mission that Jesus entrusted to us in Schaumburg and Hoffman Estates.
- Unique Identity. Names are important and can define us uniquely. The name selected will reflect the identity of the newly unified community and our presence in the neighborhood. It symbolizes who we are and what we want to be as a faith community.
- Saints and Feast Days. The names need not necessarily be saint names; however, they should be associated with a feast day for the new Parish to celebrate. Internet links are offered for your assistance and consideration.
- Cardinal Cupich has specified that newly united parishes do not consider a name that is already in use as the name of a parish, school, mission, agency or shrine in the archdiocese. This means, for example, that St. Michael cannot be used as a prospective name, as it is already in use in the archdiocese. The name for the new parish should have a feast day for the new parish to celebrate. Because of the abundance of Marian names in use, no other names to honor the Blessed Mother will be considered.

 - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_saints_canonized_by_Pope_Benedict_XVI
 - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_saints_canonized_by_Pope_John_Paul_II

Let's show our enthusiasm by inspiring the Cardinal with our ideas as he discerns the future name of our unified Parish!

May God bless you all.

The Unification Committee Members; Bob Jachnicki, Chair, Bill Clark, Vanessa Colletti, Fr. Tim Fairman, Steve Govea, Fr. Matt Jamesson, Bill Kelley, Joanie Linnane, Roger Malinski, and Kent Perry.

To participate, submit a name using the form below, writing neatly. Place the completed form in the ballot box at each church or return the ballot to the Parish office. The deadline for submission is Midnight, January 21, 2024.

Fill A Bottle, Save A Life!

TLC Pregnancy Center / Life Choices in Schaumburg offers free services to many local women in unplanned pregnancy situations each month. Your donation will help provide services for moms and babies in need including pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, diapers, formula, food, and baby equipment. They offer women and families life giving options and abortion recovery programs. They provide support, hope and love. ❤️

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you after Mass on January 20th or 21st, fill it with a check, cash and/or spare change and return it to either St. Matthew or St. Hubert on February 3rd or 4th. *

This is a simple, but crucial fundraising effort. Thank you for helping respect life. Please remember to keep all respect-life activities in your prayers! For more information about TLC, visit their website at www.tlcpregnancyservices.com

* PLEASE RETURN FULL (or partly full!!) BOTTLES AT THE END OF THE PROJECT. TLC recycles the bottles and needs your diligence in this matter! THANK YOU! *

Lectors

Scouting News

We would like to thank the Scouts from Troop 399B and 399G for lighting the way by putting out the luminaries at both churches on Christmas Eve. It was such a beautiful sight!

Scouts from St. Hubert BSA Scout Troops 399B and 399G gave support to children, families and staff at GiGi's Playhouse in Hoffman Estates at their New Year's Eve party on January 29th. The scouts helped with crafts, led games, offered up outrageous balloon creations and provided other support at the year end event. The Troop has assisted GiGi's at this activity for more than ten years.

GiGi's Playhouse was created to change the way the world views a Down syndrome diagnosis and send a global message of acceptance for all. GiGi's Playhouse is a one-of-a-kind achievement center for individuals with Down syndrome, their families, and the community.

Thank You!

The St. Hubert Stocking Stuffer Ministry would like to express its sincere appreciation for the generosity of those who donated items to our Stocking Stuffer project in November. This year we filled 560 treat bags!

A very big THANK YOU also goes out to the 20+ volunteers who helped stuff the bags. We could not have done it without you! This year, we distributed the bags to St. Aloysius Parish, GiGi's Playhouse, TLC Pregnancy Center, Lazarus House, Schaumburg Child & Family Services, and the Children's Advocacy Center's Safe from the Start Program. Thank you for helping us put a smile on the children's faces this year!

God bless you all!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As a priest, I'm amazed how happily married couples remember the tiniest details of their earliest encounters. They effortlessly report things like: "he wore a blue shirt," "we ordered brussels sprouts," "her hair was up in a bun," and "he spilled shrimp cocktail sauce at my family's open front door when it was ten degrees below zero," (that one's courtesy of my mom). We delight in remembering and speaking of when our new life of love began. The little details are glorious reminders that it's all real.

It's similar for John the Apostle. He tells us of the two disciples who followed Jesus into his house, "...they stayed with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon." Why does that tiny detail matter? Because that's the time of day when they encountered the love of Jesus the Messiah in their lives. Our religion is not primarily about abstract truths about God, no matter how true or sublime. It is about God meeting and saving us in our human nature. It's about a human relationship.

What was the time of day when you first recall encountering Christ and his Church? Who was there? What did you feel? How did things look and smell? What happened? Take some time to recall it in detail. For me, it was inside an old, rickety church on a hillside in Jerome, Arizona. It was about 9 p. m. on a Saturday evening. I was with my friends Jenny, Brad, and Laura. We were praying, singing, and laughing. When was it for you? Remembering the details isn't empty nostalgia. It reminds us now that God's love for us in our humanity is real.

— Father John Muir

BEWARE YOUR INNER CIRCLES

No man is an island. John Donne wrote those words four centuries ago and they are as true now as they were then, except we don't believe them anymore.

Today more and more of us are beginning to define our nuclear families and our carefully chosen circle of friends precisely as a self-sufficient island and are becoming increasingly selective as to who is allowed on our island, into our circle of friends, and into the circle of those we deem worthy of respect. We define and protect our idiosyncratic islands by a particular ideology, view of politics, view of morality, view of gender, and view of religion. Anyone who doesn't share our view is unwelcome and not worthy of our time and respect.

Moreover, contemporary media plays into this. Beyond the hundreds of mainstream television channels we have to choose from, each with its own agenda, we have social media wherein each of us can find the exact ideology, politics, and moral and religious perspective that fosters, protects, and isolates our island and makes our little nuclear clique, one of self-sufficiency, exclusivity, and intolerance. Today we all have the tools to plumb the media until we find exactly the "truth" we like. We have come a long way from the old days of a Walter Cronkite delivering a truth we all could trust.

The effects of this are everywhere, not least in the increasingly bitter polarization we are experiencing vis-a-vis virtually every political, moral, economic, and religious issue in our world. We find ourselves today on separate islands, not open to listen, respect, or dialogue with anyone not of our own kind. Anyone who disagrees with me is not worthy of my time, my ear, and my respect; this seems to be the popular attitude today.

We see some of this in certain strident forms of Cancel Culture and we see much of it in the increasing hard, inward-turned face of nationalism in so many countries today. What's foreign is unwelcome, pure and simple. We will not deal with anything that challenges our ethos.

What's wrong with that? Almost everything. Irrespective of whether we are looking at this from a biblical and Christian perspective or whether we are looking at it from the point of view of human health and maturity, this is just wrong.

Biblically, it's clear. God breaks into our lives in important ways, mainly through "the stranger", through what's foreign, through what's other, and through what sabotages our thinking and blows apart our calculated expectations. Revelation normally comes to us in the surprise, namely, in a form that turns our thinking upside down. Take for example the incarnation itself. For centuries people looked forward to the coming of a messiah, a god in human flesh, who would overpower and humiliate all their enemies and offer them, those faithfully praying for this, honor and glory. They prayed for and anticipated a superman, and what did they get? A helpless baby lying in the straw. Revelation works like that. This is why St. Paul tells us to always welcome a stranger because it could in fact be an angel in disguise.

All of us, I am sure, at some point in our lives have personally had that experience of meeting an angel in disguise inside a stranger whom we perhaps welcomed only with some reluctance and fear. I know in my own life, there have been times when I didn't want to welcome a certain person or situation into my life. I live in a religious community where you do not get to choose who you will live with. You are assigned your "immediate family" and (but for a few exceptions when there is clinical dysfunction) like-mindedness is not a criterion as to who is assigned to live with each other in our religious houses. Not infrequently, I have had to live in community with someone who I would not, by choice, have taken for a friend, a colleague, a neighbor, or a member of my family. To my surprise, it has often been the person whom I would have least chosen to live with who has been a vehicle of grace and transformation in my life.

Moreover, this has been true for my life in general. I have often found myself graced by the most unlikely, unexpected, initially unwelcome sources. Admittedly, this has not always been without pain. What's foreign, what's other, can be upsetting and painful for a long time before grace and revelation are recognized, but it's what carries grace.

That is our challenge always, though particularly today when so many of us are retreating to our own islands, imagining this as maturity, and then rationalizing it by a false faith, a false nationalism, and a false idea of what constitutes maturity. This is both wrong and dangerous. Engaging with what is other enlarges us. God is in the stranger, and so we are cutting ourselves off from a major avenue of grace whenever we will not let the foreign into our lives.
