Dear Friends,

It is with a heavy heart that I share with you that Fr. Dan Smilanic, who is one of our visiting priests who has been so generous in celebrating Mass with us when needed, has passed away. While he has been dealing with several medical issues of late, as far as I know, his death was unexpected. He was 76 years old.

As of this writing on Tuesday, the Archdiocese doesn't have any of the particulars of his arrangements yet.

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God,
rest in peace.
Amen.*

Recently, you were invited to participate in the naming process for the new parish, currently named SS. Matthew and Hubert Parish. The process began with an invitation to suggest a name for the parish, which could include leaving it as is. After that took place, the Unification Committee was tasked with tallying up the many suggestions and narrowing the name choices down to five and offering another vote to all of you.

The top three names collecting the most votes were for SS. Matthew and Hubert, Holy Archangels, and St. Clare of Assisi. These names will next be presented to the Archdiocesan Presbyteral Council and Cardinal Cupich for consideration at their next meeting in early March. Please note that each church building will retain their current names and the school will continue as St Hubert School. We anticipate that the Cardinal will make a final decision on a new parish name shortly after the Presbyteral Council meeting in early March.

Please know the Cardinal will base his decision about a new parish name on what he feels is best for the parish and the Archdiocese. He is not bound to select the name with the most votes, though that is certainly one thing he will consider. My thought on all this is that whatever name is selected will be the work of the Holy Spirit.

A few have questioned why the name needs to change at all... it doesn't, and SS. Matthew and Hubert is one of the names the Cardinal will be discerning. But as it is a new parish, a formal process for naming the parish is required and the parish will be consecrated under that new (or current) name.

On Friday, March 15th, SS. Matthew and Hubert Parish is sponsoring a day trip to The Shrine of Christ's Passion in St. John, IN. The Shrine has a life-size Stations of the Cross along a half mile trail (then half mile back). We will walk and pray the stations and after that Fr. Matt will celebrate Mass at St John the Evangelist Church. After Mass lunch will be catered in the Summit Room. After lunch there will be time to shop at the two religious goods gift shops, before heading home. We will depart St. Matthew church by bus promptly at 8:00 am that morning and will return there around 4:00 pm.

Please see page 9 of the bulletin for more information and cost. Space is limited to 50 people.

May God bless you all.

THE ELECT RETURN TO OUR CARE and PRAYER

Do you know what it looks like to be an everyday disciple of Jesus?

On Sunday, February 18, the adults and children in the AMI and CMI process—our Catechumens and Candidates requested the parish's approval to receive the Easter sacraments. Their godparents, sponsors, and the OCIA team loudly affirmed their serious entry into the Catholic way of life and the evidence of conversion in their lives. Then, the Eucharistic assembly completed the discernment process by affirming the AMI and CMI members' readiness.

Celebrating the Rite of Election at Holy Name Cathedral, our OCIA journeyers were part of more than 550 peers from many parishes of the archdiocese, all of whom are entering the final period of preparation for initiation at the Easter Vigil. Their excitement is high. Their eagerness is a delight. They are God's gift to us as we are to them.

Please continue to pray for them all during this Lenten Season—"Period of Purification and Enlightenment."

Our Catechumens (to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) are now the "Elect".

Our Candidates to be received into full communion and our Catholic completing their sacraments of initiation (Confirmation and Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil.

On Sunday evening, the church conveyed to all of them the importance of being a disciple of Christ. The greatest calling a person can have is to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus Himself has called us to follow Him on this way that leads to more abundant life. When we follow Jesus, everything matters and everything counts—whether it's at your work, around your neighborhood, or in your home, true discipleship entails God's people living normal lives with gospel intentionality.

Is that not what Lent urges all of us to do? Let us pray for them - and for one another. We're all in this together and it is good for us to be here!

Please feel free to take a flyer of those in AMI and CMI from the OCIA kiosk in the narthex. If you wish, you may write them a note.

Adore and Worship Wednesday, February 28 7:00 PM St. Hubert Church Lenten Holy Hour with Inspirational Music of spending an hour in Eucharistic adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Spending time in the presence of the Lord helps develop our love for God, thus drawing us ever closer into his life. The purpose is to be in greater communion with God through prayer and dialog - because when we talk with God and take the time to listen, God will speak to us.

A Holy Hour is the Roman Catholic devotional tradition

Join us for this spirit-filled evening of prayer, song, and silence; to reflect upon our own Lenten calling for prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your personal relationship with the Lord. Individual confessions will also be available.

The Power of Water

For most of my life I haven't thought about my Baptism, even though it made me an official member of the Catholic Church.

Looking at it now, I realize it was the start of what unfolded over the years- church on Sunday, Religious Ed, how and why I pray and fast.

Baptism set the context in which I would learn about God, life and eternity. If asked who I am in terms of my faith I would say I'm Catholic. However, I identify with all people of good will because Baptism for me is a uniting with Jesus and his mission as unifier and healer.

For me, Baptism has been the quiet force, though rarely referred to, that has affected nearly everything I have done and will do.

Join us in changing someone's life!

Members lovingly donate their time and talents by creating handmade shawls for those in need of hope, healing, and celebrating joyous events to help spread the message of God's mercy, love, and compassion.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry brings together people who share a similar interest to share in fellowship and to use the talent of knitting and crocheting to create prayer shawls. Each shawl is prayed for throughout the process, along with a final prayer before going to the recipient.

Do you knit, crochet, or want to learn? Our members are willing to teach you, share ideas, patterns along with the ministry providing yarn for a shawl. Join us in making a difference in someone's life!

Second Week of Lent OVERCOMING HUNGER

In Akwangagwel, Uganda, the climate is very hot and dry. Farmers in this region depend heavily on the rainy season for a successful harvest. But lately—due to the changing climate—the rain has been coming later than it used to and is more inconsistent. Sometimes, when it does rain, it causes flooding and ruins the crops. Learn how Adolf and Florence have taken the matter into their own hands, implementing new farming techniques they learned from a Catholic Relief Services program to improve their farm and fight against hunger in their community.

MYTH VS. FACT #9

MYTH: Domestic violence is an anger control issue.

FACT: Domestic violence has nothing to do with anger. Anger is a tool abusers use to get what they want.

We know abusers are actually very much in control because they can stop when someone knocks on the door or the phone rings.

They often direct punches and kicks to parts of the body where the bruises are less likely to show.

And they are not abusing everyone who makes them “angry,” but waits until there are no witnesses and abuses the one they say they love.

Find professional assistance by calling the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800-799-7233. Chat with a NDVH service provider and find the domestic violence services nearest you. If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As a college student, my prized possession was an after-market car stereo. It was my pride and joy: glorious audio, eye-catching display screen, and multi-disc CD changer. It drained my hard-earned dollars, but it was totally worth it. It drenched me in music everywhere I drove. On Ash Wednesday of my senior year of college, Father Tom, the Jesuit priest at my university said, "Pray for God to tell you what he wants you to sacrifice for Lent." I did. In my heart, the answer came: "Give up listening to your car stereo for forty days." I winced. Not possible, I thought. Can't do it. I made other plans. The next morning, I was stunned to find that my car had been broken into, and my fancy stereo ripped out and stolen.

God's command to sacrifice what we love is no joke. This week in Genesis 22, God says: "Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied. Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, whom you love — Isaac — and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you." Believe me, I know. We like to be in control. It chafes us that God sets the terms of what we must sacrifice, and how. But this is no impersonal, tyrannical process. Remember that God uses their names, Abraham and Isaac. God knows each one of us and the precious gifts He commands us to offer. Finally, our sacrifices are for our own good. Do we trust this enough to do what Father Tom asked me to do?

Lenten challenge: This week, I dare you to ask God: "What do you want me to give up?" He may ask for that which you love most. It will be something precious to you: time, money, a relationship, a dream, an opportunity. What matters is we trust Him and act sacrificially in line with His command. Whatever we sacrifice will of course come back to us as surely as the Risen Jesus — but that doesn't make it easy.

— Father John Muir

at St. Matthew Church

We will host representatives of the Catholic Christian Community from Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the Holy Land who will be displaying handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles. Due to the political conflict and the reduction of tourism, the Catholic Community has come to depend more on the sale of these articles abroad to survive and to keep their faith and Christian presence in the holy land. The woodcarvings are beautiful and reflect faith and love for the Lord.

Please consider purchasing a gift that will be remembered and cherished for yourself or someone dear to you. The handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles will be available for purchase after all the weekend Masses.
