As the golden hues of autumn paint our world, the Catholic Church invites us once again to observe Respect Life Month in October. This sacred time calls us to reflect deeply on the inherent dignity of every human person, from the tiniest spark of life in the womb to the final breath drawn in the twilight of our days. In a world often fractured by division and despair, Respect Life Month reminds us that our faith is not a private affair but a vibrant call to action—a mandate to cherish, protect, and uplift all life as a reflection of God's boundless love.

At the heart of this observance lies the Church's unwavering teaching on the sanctity of life. From the moment of conception, every human being is a unique gift from God, endowed with an immortal soul and an inviolable dignity. The Catechism of the Catholic Church echoes this truth: "Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception" (CCC 2270). Abortion, in all its forms, stands in stark opposition to this divine order. It severs the thread of possibility, silencing the voice of the unborn before it can even cry out. As shepherds of the faith, our bishops and priests proclaim this not out of judgment, but out of profound reverence for the Creator who knits us together in our mothers' wombs (Psalm 139:13). Every life, from its first flutter of heartbeat to its natural conclusion, is valid, precious, and worthy of our fierce defense. In parishes across the nation this month, we gather in prayer vigils, educational forums, and acts of mercy to reaffirm this truth, supporting mothers in crisis with resources like pregnancy centers and adoption networks that honor both mother and child.

Yet, the shadows threatening life extend far beyond the womb. Today, we witness escalating efforts to legalize assisted suicide, a chilling proposition that masquerades as compassion but erodes the very foundation of our humanity. Proponents frame it as a "right to die," but the Church sees it for what it is: a denial of God's sovereignty over life and death. As Pope Francis has warned, such measures "disguise a false compassion" and open the door to a culture where the vulnerable—the elderly, the disabled, the chronically ill—are deemed expendable. In states like California and Oregon, where assisted dying laws have taken root, we see the slippery slope in action: initial safeguards erode, and the number of cases surges. Respect Life Month urges us to counter this tide with advocacy, lobbying our legislators and sharing stories of true accompaniment—hospice care that affirms dignity, pain management that restores hope, and communities that embrace the dying as vital members of the Body of Christ.

Nor can we ignore the relentless drumbeat of violence that echoes through our streets. In America, crime and violence claim lives daily, turning neighborhoods into battlegrounds and families into mourners. Every form of violence shatter our sense of security, while urban gunfights and domestic tragedies weave a tapestry of grief. As people of faith, we are compelled to act: supporting sensible safety measures rooted in the common good, funding mental health initiatives, and fostering dialogue that bridges the chasms of fear and misunderstanding. Our parishes can lead by hosting forums on non-violence, partnering with local law enforcement for community safety programs, and praying fervently for peace. In the face of such darkness, we echo the prophet Isaiah: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares" (Isaiah 2:4), envisioning a nation where life flourishes without the shadow of sudden death.

Amid these domestic wounds, our gaze turns outward to those who flee horrors we can scarcely imagine. Thousands—Christians persecuted in the Middle East and Africa, families ravaged by drug cartels in Central America, victims of gang violence and human trafficking—seek asylum on our shores. They arrive not as burdens, but as bearers of Christ's face, etched with the scars of suffering. The Gospel commands us: "I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matthew 25:35). These refugees are our brothers and sisters, deserving not suspicion, but sympathetic listening; not rejection, but our hands extended in aid. In refugee resettlement programs sponsored by Catholic Charities, we witness miracles of integration—children enrolling in schools, parents finding honest work, communities enriched by diverse voices. Yet, challenges persist. As a nation, America has long embodied the beacon of hope. We are a law-abiding people, honoring borders while upholding justice, and in October, we recommit to this legacy through advocacy for humane reform, volunteer service at shelters, and simple acts of hospitality that rebuild shattered lives.

What binds these threads—abortion's tragedy, assisted suicide's lure, violence's grip, the stranger's plea? The greatest law that Jesus came to teach us: the law of love. "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another" (John 13:34). This love is not selective, swayed by ideology or political winds. Our allegiance springs not from partisan platforms or fleeting ideologies, but from the Holy Gospel—the living Word that pulses with God's heart for the least among us. In a polarized age, where debates rage over rights and borders, we stand firm: our obligation to one another flows from Christ's cross, where He embraced the outcast, healed the broken, and died for all. Respect Life Month is our clarion call to embody this Gospel ethic, transcending divisions to build a civilization of love.

As we journey through October, let us pray, act, and listen with renewed fervor. Join a Respect Life committee at your parish, donate to life-affirming ministries, or simply sit with someone in pain, offering the gift of presence. In these small fidelities, we weave the kingdom of God on earth—a tapestry where every life, from womb to world, is revered. May the Holy Family intercede for us, that we might live as true disciples, loving boldly until life's final dawn. For in respecting life, we honor the Life-Giver Himself.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

“I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.”

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A woman in my parish has an adult son who has rejected his faith. She prays for him every day. She lights candles, says rosaries, and asks God again and again to bring him back. But nothing changes. Is God listening? Is He delaying? She told me once that she feels like the widow in Jesus' strange parable — crying out for justice, but hearing only silence. And yet, she said, she is at peace. I asked why. She responded, "God is already answering. I just can't see it yet."

She embodies something of the mystery in Jesus' parable this week in Luke 18. A powerless widow demands justice from a corrupt judge. This isn't about wearing God down until He gives in. It's about faith in the justice that is already coming. The widow isn't just persistent; she believes that justice is inevitable. And when Jesus points to the judge's words — his fear of being "struck" — He hints at something deeper: God's justice does not creep in gradually. It strikes. It comes like lightning.

Blessed Mary is, of course, the ultimate widow demanding justice. At the foot of the cross she stands before what looks like the ultimate injustice — the brutal execution of her son. But she did not despair. She did not beg for a last-minute rescue. She knew that justice was not delayed. In fact, it was happening. The power of the cross was already unleashing justice upon the world — suddenly, decisively, like a blow that would topple every corrupt power, making even the most corrupt fear her strike.

This parable asks us: will the Son of Man find faith on earth? Or will we mistake God's silence for absence? The cross proves that justice is not slow. It is only hidden. The lightning has already struck. In the cross, justice is speedily being done.

PRAYER CORNER
Prayer of the Week

The Holy Rosary: The Basics

The Rosary isn't just a set of beads, it's a pathway to deeper reflection, peace, and connection with God. Each prayer leads us through key moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary, helping us grow in faith and understanding.

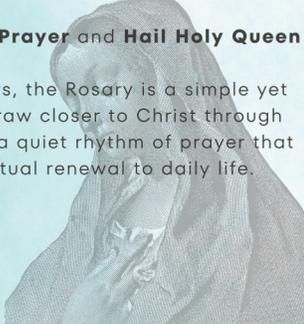

It is made up of a sequence of prayers organized into five sets of ten Hail Marys, called decades. Each decade is preceded by an Our Father and followed by a Glory Be. As we pray each decade, we reflect on one of the Mysteries of the Rosary, which are grouped into four categories—Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous—which guide our hearts through the story of salvation.

A complete Rosary includes:

- The Sign of the Cross and Apostles' Creed
- One Our Father, three Hail Marys, and one Glory Be
- Five Decades (each with an Our Father, ten Hail Marys, and a Glory Be)
- Optional prayers like the Fatima Prayer and Hail Holy Queen

Whether prayed alone or with others, the Rosary is a simple yet powerful scripture-based way to draw closer to Christ through Mary's loving intercession. It offers a quiet rhythm of prayer that brings comfort, clarity, and spiritual renewal to daily life.

Thanks To The Knights For Keeping Things Cool!

On behalf of the Parish and all of the ministries that use our facilities, we would like to once again thank the Knights of Columbus for their generosity. Not long ago, the ice maker in the Ministry Center developed problems and needed to be replaced. When the Knights heard about it, they researched options and developed a plan to replace the machine and to pick up the full cost. A new machine was installed recently and works wonderfully. We are grateful and blessed to have this wonderful group in our Parish family.

Blessing of the Pets - October 4 Recap

We had a fantastic turnout for the Blessing of the Pets! Deacon Steve barely had time to "paws" as he lovingly blessed every furry, feathered, and scaled friend that came by.

Thank you to all who joined us for this joyful celebration of our beloved companions!

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA

Knights of Columbus will be in the church narthex after all Masses Veterans Day weekend November 8th and 9th to collect donations for their volunteer work with Wreaths Across America.

Our church council has volunteered and participated in this event over the last nine years and is asking for parishioners to help. Wreaths Across America provides wreaths to deceased veterans at more than 3,400 cemeteries across the country each year in order to remember their service, honor their sacrifice and to teach all the value of freedom. Each wreath placed is a personal gift to an American Hero.

In addition to asking for donations, Knights of Columbus will be inviting all parishioners to participate with them on Wreaths Across America Day on Saturday 11 AM Dec 13, 2025 at Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery in Elwood, IL. The cemetery is the second largest in the nation and is the final resting place for 70,000 veterans and/or their spouses.

For more information on this cause or to purchase a wreath for a specific veteran please go to wreathscrossamerica.org. REMEMBER the fallen...HONOR those who serve...TEACH our children the value of freedom.
