Please note, there is no confession on 12/23/25.

As we enter the Third Sunday of Advent, also known as Gaudete Sunday, we are invited to rejoice! The rose-colored vestments worn by our priests today symbolize the light of joy breaking through the penitential purple of the season. This joy is not fleeting; it is the deep anticipation of Christ's coming, both in the manger at Bethlehem and in our hearts anew. But how do we cultivate this joy amid the busyness of the busy season? The answer lies in preparing our hearts through active participation in the life of our parish community and I am so glad to see many parishioners engaged in the life of the Parish. By engaging in our shared faith journey, we open ourselves to the transformative grace that makes Christmas truly worthy of celebration.

Advent is a time of spiritual renewal, and what better way to prepare than through the Sacrament of Reconciliation? We are blessed with opportunities to receive God's mercy this week. On Tuesday, December 16th, join us for Advent Reconciliation at St. Matthew Church, where priests will be available to guide you in this healing encounter. The following day, Wednesday, December 17th, the same grace awaits at St. Hubert Church. These evenings are more than just a checklist item; they are moments to unburden our souls, reconcile with God and one another, and step lighter into the Nativity. Whether it's been weeks or years since your last confession, come as you are—God's forgiveness is boundless, and our parish is here to support you.

Our community's generosity continues to shine brightly, embodying the spirit of giving that defines this season. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who purchased the Christmas tags to support the less fortunate in our area and your contributions toward our parish school. Your contributions have made a tangible difference, providing Catholic education, the essentials like warm clothing, meals, and gifts to families facing hardship. This act of charity reminds us of Christ's call to serve the least among us, as in Matthew 25:40: "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." Your kindness not only aids those in need but also enriches our parish's mission to be a beacon of hope.

Looking ahead, we have a lineup of joyful events designed to foster fellowship and deepen our faith. Mark your calendars for the "Cookies, Cocoa, and Christ" gathering on Saturday, December 20th. This family-friendly event in the Gym aims to bring the true message of Christmas—the birth of our Savior—to all ages through stories, songs, and sweet treats. It's a wonderful opportunity to invite friends, neighbors, and extended family who may not regularly attend church.. Let's make this a bridge to welcome others into our faith community, sharing the joy that only Christ can provide.

We welcome Fr. John Kartje, the Rector of Mundelein Seminary on Tuesday, December 16th, 6:30 p.m at the St. Matthew Ministry center on Schaumburg Road for a Theological Seminar. Please do not miss this opportunity to hear Fr. Kartje. Fr. Kartje is a well known speaker and we are glad he can join us.

We are grateful to the Northwest Chicago Orchestra for the special Christmas concert on Dec 16th at 7.30pm in the Gym. Their orchestral pieces will uplift your spirits and set a festive tone for the week. This is open to all, so bring a friend and let the melodies remind you of Christmas.

Then, on Sunday, December 21st, our very own Parish Choir will present their annual Christmas Concert. Their voices, honed through dedication and prayer, will fill the Church with harmonious praise. These musical events are not just performances; they are communal prayers, drawing us closer to the mystery of the Incarnation.

As we approach the pinnacle of the season, please take a moment to review our Christmas Mass schedule, available on the parish website and the bulletin. Whether you prefer the Vigil Mass on Christmas Eve, the midnight Mass or the joyful celebrations on Christmas Day, we encourage you to bring your family and friends. There's something profoundly moving about gathering as one body in Christ, especially during these sacred liturgies. For those traveling or with loved ones afar, consider extending an invitation—Christmas Masses are a perfect way to reconnect and rediscover the reason for the season.

Finally, on behalf of our parish staff and volunteers, I wish to extend our deepest gratitude to each of you for your unwavering generosity. Your time, talents, and treasures support not only our parish but also our school, ensuring that faith formation continues for generations. From tithing and volunteering to simple acts of kindness, your contributions make our Parish thrive. As St. Paul reminds us, "Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks" (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18). Let this be our motto as we journey toward Christmas. Let us prepare together, participate fully, and welcome Christ with open arms.

Father Tomy Abraham

“Among you I am a man of faith, with you I am a Christian and for you I am a priest.”

CRUCIFIX UPDATE

With grateful hearts for your patience, we share that installing the new crucifix at St. Hubert Church originally planned for the First Sunday of Advent, has been delayed a few weeks. Engineering requirements, safety protocols, and recent inclement weather have required extra time to ensure everything is done properly and securely.

We are hoping and working diligently to have the crucifix beautifully in place before Christmas. Thank you for your understanding as we prepare to welcome the Lord in this sacred season.

 All Powerful God,
 Watch over all our dear ones who serve this day in the military. Hold them safely in the palm of your hand.
 Walk with them in your strength.
 Bring them comfort and hope when they are weary.
 Remind them of our love.

Merciful Lord, Bring a lasting peace into our midst.
 Heal our hearts and help all nations find ways to live in harmony so that blood is shed no more.
 We ask this in the name of Christ Jesus, Prince of Peace.

Gospel Meditation
Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was 11, I was riding my bike on a Friday night in Scottsdale, Arizona. I saw giant spotlights swirling in the sky. Something amazing had to be happening. I pedaled after them with excitement. Sweaty and tired, I arrived, only to find a used car lot. Bright lights, flapping banners, inflatable balloon men swaying wildly in the wind. I stood there, heart sinking. All that spectacle, and all my effort ... for this?

As life proceeds, we learn what it is like to pursue promising but fruitless searches. This week we hear Jesus ask the crowds regarding John the Baptist: "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?" (Matthew 11:7). He's not just describing the crowd's mis-aimed pursuit. He's naming our tendency to chase after what's flashy but flimsy.

What are our swaying reeds? For me, it is endless video reels on my phone, worldly pleasures, entertainment in sports, and the good opinion of others. Inflated distractions that bend whichever way the wind blows. But they can't satisfy my soul. What are your flimsy reeds?

John the Baptist wasn't a swaying reed. He was rooted, grounded, unafraid to speak the solid truth. The people went to see him because, deep down, they were starving for something real.

This Advent, the Church asks us to reassess: What are we really looking for? Are we chasing the dazzling but hollow? Or are we seeking what is solid and lasting — that which points to Christ?

Helping Hands Ministry

We'd like to believe that when needing support, we all have a family member or friend close by to help out. Unfortunately, this is not always the case. Or perhaps a great deal of support is needed requiring more support than family members are able to provide. The Helping Hands Ministry was formed to assist members in our parish, free of charge, in various ways:

- Rides to appointments, grocery store, Mass
- Relieving a caregiver by sitting with homebound family member
- Handy work or yard work
- Housework/cleaning
- Meals for those recovering from illness
- Just ask!

To request assistance or to volunteer, please contact the parish front desk: 847-885-7700 ext. 102 and your request will be shared with the Helping Hands Coordinator.
