THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY, JANUARY 19
IN OBSERVANCE OF
MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY

Our hearts remain filled with gratitude for the beautiful celebrations of Christmas that brought our parish community together in such a profound way. The pews were filled to overflowing during all our Christmas Masses, from the joyful Vigil to the solemn Midnight Mass and the festive daytime liturgies. It was truly inspiring to see so many familiar faces alongside visitors, friends, and extended family members joining us. A total of four thousand four hundred and fifty people joined us for the Christmas Masses and were blessed by the new born King.

Your presence made these Masses a true celebration of Christ's birth and a powerful witness to the love that binds us as a parish family. Thank you for making the effort to be here and for inviting others to share in the mystery of the Incarnation. On behalf of Fr. Oswald, the parish staff and myself a special word of thanks goes out for the many thoughtful Christmas cards, homemade cookies, and delicious baked goods that brightened the rectory and parish offices. Above all, we are deeply grateful for your generous donations to the parish during this Christmas season. Your support helps sustain our ministries, maintain our beautiful churches, and reach out to those in need.

A New Year Brings Opportunities and Blessings

With the turn of the calendar, we embrace 2026 as a fresh chapter filled with promise. So far, we've been blessed with a remarkably mild winter, sparing us the usual harsh storms and allowing us to move about more freely. We continue to be thankful for our dedicated volunteers and staff who work tirelessly behind the scenes. From keeping the church sparkling clean to greeting newcomers, organizing events, and maintaining our facilities, your commitment creates a welcoming and sacred environment where everyone feels at home. Thank you for your selfless service — it is a true expression of Christian love.

Renewed Focus on Mission and Evangelization

As we reflect on the Sunday readings from this time of year, particularly the Gospel account of Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River, we see a pivotal moment: Christ steps forward from His hidden life in Nazareth to begin His public ministry. Baptized by John, He is anointed by the Holy Spirit and declared the beloved Son. This event marks the inauguration of His mission to proclaim the Kingdom of God.

For us as parishioners and parish leaders, this is a call to action. The time is here for a renewed focus on mission and evangelization. The Church is not meant to remain inward-looking; she is sent forth to grow, to invite, and to reach those who have drifted away from the sacraments and parish liturgies. Many in our families, neighborhoods, and communities long for the hope, forgiveness, and community that only Christ offers.

Let us pray for the courage to share our faith gently and authentically. Perhaps it begins with a simple invitation to Mass, a kind conversation, or reaching out to someone who hasn't been with us in a while. Together, guided by the same Spirit that descended upon Jesus, we can help our parish flourish and bring more souls closer to the Lord. May this new year be one of spiritual renewal, joyful outreach, and abundant blessings for all of us. Thank you again for being such a vibrant part of our parish family!

The Power of Prayer: A Call to Deepen Our Spiritual Life

As we approach the final six months of the second year of our five-year plan, with prayer as one of its central goals, now is the perfect time to renew our commitment to this essential practice. Prayer is the heartbeat of the Christian life, drawing us closer to God and transforming us into the holy men and women our world desperately needs today. A life truly dedicated to God, His Church, our country, and our families begins on our knees. In the quiet of prayer, we find strength, wisdom, and the grace to live with purpose and holiness.

Take advantage of the beautiful adoration times at St. Matthew's on Tuesdays and Wednesdays at St. Hubert. These moments before the Blessed Sacrament offer a sacred space to grow in intimacy with Christ. I am also excited to share that a few spiritual as well as service opportunities are planned for Lent. More details to follow. Let us imitate our Lord Himself, who often withdrew to lonely places to pray. May these remaining months inspire us to make prayer the foundation of our lives. In doing so, we become true witnesses of holiness in our time.

All Powerful God,
Watch over all our dear ones who serve this day in the military. Hold them safely in the palm of your hand.
Walk with them in your strength.
Bring them comfort and hope when they are weary.
Remind them of our love.

Merciful Lord, Bring a lasting peace into our midst.
Heal our hearts and help all nations find ways to live in harmony so that blood is shed no more.
We ask this in the name of Christ Jesus, Prince of Peace.

Amen

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It's common to hear belief in Jesus and the Church mocked as blind faith and credulity. But in reality, it is deeply human and rational. Think about it: we rely on the testimony of others constantly. I trust chemists who certify the safety of toothpaste and cleaning products. I trust engineers when I use a microwave or drive over a bridge. Why? Because they have studied and seen what I have not, and their testimony proves itself in daily life.
That kind of trust is not irrational; it is how human knowledge works.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist declares: "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God" (John 1:34).
That is the language of an eyewitness. It invites us into a very human act: trusting someone who has directly encountered something — or Someone — we have not yet fully seen ourselves.

The Church's faith is built on this kind of reliable sight-based testimony. The Apostles did not make abstract claims. They saw, followed, suffered for, and proclaimed Jesus Christ. Over centuries, their witness — carried in Scripture, in the lives of the saints, and in the sacramental life of the Church — has proven dependable. We come to know its truth by assenting to it, by living and studying it, praying with it, trusting it.

Faith in Christ is not a childish leap into the dark. It is a step into the light of testimony that proves itself over time.

It's not too early to think about Lent...
Take a deep dive into “The Last Supper” beginning this Wednesday!

Whether you've seen some of The Chosen episodes before, or this would be your first time, please come.

A new season of The Chosen is beginning this week. Everything in this season is leading up to The Last Supper. Very appropriately, the season will end near Holy Week.

Imagine, walking beside Jesus and his disciples through those days, perhaps experiencing it more personally than before.
