Dear parishioners, for those who need after-hours access to the church, we are upgrading to a new, keyless entry door lock system to replace the lock box on the east side of the church. Parishioners that need access after-hours must register with the office to receive their code.

The current lock box will stay in place until the new installation is complete. Afterwards, the only after-hours access will be through the east door by the kitchen using a code.

Please visit the office for more information.

Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

In spite of the frigid weather...

Winterfest was a success as the women of St Joe's parish enjoyed a fun and festive lunch, while making new friends and keeping the old. A craft, the lunch blessing sung by Amy Saari, Mimosa's, door prizes, and fellowship were enjoyed by all!

Photos from Winterfest!

Thank you for all your book donations! We have a goodly amount for the book sale January 27-28. Please hold on to the rest of your books until the spring sale!
