WELCOME !!!

SISTER BARBARA ANN BROWNE

Sister Barbara Ann Browne, entered the IHM Congregation from St. Madeline Sophie Parish in Germantown. Sister is a faith-filled Sister, Servant of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Sister comes to us from St. Laurence Parish in Upper Darby, where she served for six years as Convent Local Superior and Administrative Assistant in the school.

Through the years she has served in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, as well as, in the Dioceses of Allentown, Camden, and Harrisburg.

Besides serving as a classroom teacher in the Catholic Schools, she has also served as: Principal and Local Superior at: St. Richard South Philadelphia, Annunciation Shenandoah, Our Lady of Fatima Bensalem, Principal: St. Margaret Mary School Essington.

Most important of all, Sister is grateful for her religious vocation, loves being part of a parish community, and is wholeheartedly dedicated to Catholic Education, as she shares her love of God with so many.

Searching For God

In our search for God, it is really the Lord who honors our effort and approaches us. What might we expect from our encounter? Commonly, our lives will be marked with meaning, resulting in genuine purpose.

We may well experience a desire to share the message and to our surprise giving God a deeper access to our soul. "We have opened the door." The message we share is God's word to us: gratitude, mercy and hope. The world prefers the word optimism, but it is really hope.

In our search, we will attract two kinds of people: those who share our kindred spirit and those who, let's say it nicely, have little time for God, gratitude, mercy or optimism.

Our major theme this weekend from the Prophet Jeremiah and Saint Luke has this mark: there is a negative fire that comes when we are surrounded by that second group of people and thank God, there is a positive and more illuminating fire of the Holy Spirit that will keep us from losing our minds and our sense of purpose. Friends, don't quit now!

May God be with you.
Father Mike Gerlach

Adult Faith Enrichment Opportunities

Would you or someone you know be interested in becoming Catholic? We will be hosting an evening of Inquiry on Tuesday evening, September 10th, at 7:00 pm, in the Meehan Center. There is no obligation, but it will be an opportunity to ask questions and to explore how God is working in your life. For further information you are welcome to contact Sr. Mary Beth through the parish office.

Bereavement: Our next Bereavement session will be September 25th.

Divorce Support: Remember you're not alone. There are many others living your lifestyle who understand and are there for you. We will be starting a Divorce Support Group on Wednesday, October 1st, at 7 pm, in the Meehan Center. Our meetings will be on the first and third Wednesdays of the month for six months. Come find: support, healing, and courage that comes from God's everlasting love for you.

Saint of the Week: Can you guess who the first saint who was born in the Western Hemisphere? She was born Isabel Flores de Oliva in 1586 in Lima, Peru. The family maid thought she was so beautiful she should be nicknamed Rose. From a very early age she was devoted to God. She also had a love for gardening and had a little hut in her parents' yard. As she grew older she yearned to give her life to God as a religious sister but her parents wanted her to marry. Her compromise was to become a Third-Order Dominican and live in the hut in her backyard. She also opened a clinic to treat the poor. St. Rose of Lima died in 1617 and was canonized in 1671. What do you think St. Rose would think about the way immigrants from South America are treated when they come seeking asylum in the United States?

Good Neighbor Day is coming in September. Everyday we need to be good neighbors but sometimes it helps to do something special especially for someone who lives alone. Lisa Barrickman has written a book: "40 Ways to Love and Inspire Others." She is also coming to our parish on September 28th, the actual Good Neighbor Day. Stay tuned for more details but do mark the date in your calendar.
