“O Lord, lover of souls, your imperishable spirit is in all things!”

Wisdom 11:26-12:1

Your imperishable spirit is within me.

Our first reading is a holy reminder of God’s instruction from the book of Genesis. “When God looked at everything he created, he found it very good, he was most pleased. And so it remains today. Creation is filled with the very substance of God: beauty, truth, goodness and unity. After the recording of Genesis, a hundred years before the birth of Christ the lesson is taught one more time by the Wisdom prophet: “O Lord, lover of souls, your imperishable spirit is in all things”.

This message brings hope to our lives. The Lord loves us and is continually calling and beseeching us to accept the grace that has been granted. This grace leads to a deep seated, unshakable faith. As seen so many times before, this grace is the divine indwelling of our Triune God. The New Testament image is from the book of Revelation 3:20, “Behold, I stand at the door and knock if anyone opens for me, I will enter and have supper with him and you with me.”

This image begs the question, why does God want to come to my house? I wonder, what does God want from me? God who is almighty is approaching, how shall I respond? The Lord reveals himself in the most sublime aspects of creation from a simple glass of clean water, to Niagara Falls. All reality has the indelible mark of the finger of God at its very core. God is good and all that God has created is good and no one can make it otherwise.

So that, just as the wisdom authors of old confessed their faith and as Zacchaeus confessed his faith, so we too confess our faith, realizing that God’s imperishable spirit is within us, prompting us to echo Saint Paul’s hymn: at the name of Jesus, every knee will bend and every tongue confess to the glory of God the Father, Jesus Christ is Lord!

God bless you,
Father Gerlach

The Thanksgiving Food Drive is Now Underway!

The recipients of our donations this year are: St. Rose of Lima Parish, St. Veronica Parish and St. Francis de Sales Parish Outreach program. There are a few needy families within our own parish boundaries as well. All donations will need to be in the Religious Education office no later than Friday, November 15. In the past years, we have taken frozen turkeys to distribute and will do so again BUT the preference is for gift cards (Giant Food Stores and Shoprite). Any monetary donations will be given directly to those who coordinate the parish programs to distribute as they see best. God bless your generous heart again!

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults): If anyone is considering becoming Catholic, please contact Sr. Mary Beth at the Rectory Office. We meet every Tuesday 7:00 pm, in the IHM room in the Meehan Center.

Divorce Support: Struggling with issues related to divorce like anger, betrayal, or forgiveness? You are welcome to join us for a Catholic Support Group on Wednesday evening, November 6th, at 7 pm in the Meehan Center.

Mass of Remembrance: Each year we remember our deceased parishioners at a special Mass of Remembrance. We do this at the 9:00 am Mass on the Saturday before Thanksgiving (11/23). Those who have lost loved ones this year are invited to bring a framed picture to place on the table in front of the altar. The names of the deceased will be read during the general intercessions. Family members are called to the baptismal font to receive a lit candle. When the person's name is called, the family member brings the candle forward and places it by the picture. We are all part of the Communion of Saints and we honor our deceased by giving thanks to God for the blessing our loved ones have been in our lives.

Saint of the Week – St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, November 8th

Elizabeth was born in France in 1880 to a military family. As a child she was a bit precocious and strong willed. From the time she received her First Communion she felt called to the Carmelite Order of religious women. She was also greatly influenced by the story of Therese of Lisieux, also a Carmelite. Her mother made her wait until she was 21, however. During her time of waiting she devoted herself to helping troubled youth. Unfortunately, shortly after entering the Carmelites in 1900, she developed Addison's disease. This affliction didn't stop her from spiritual writings. She suffered much and died in 1906. Elizabeth was canonized in 2006 by Pope Francis.

What the Church Teaches – and Why: Josef Zalot, Ph.D., who works at the National Catholic Bioethics Center and is one of parishioners will give a presentation on Monday, November 18th, at 7 pm in the Meehan Center. His topic will be: Advance Care Planning: Health Care Power of Attorney and Living Will. All are invited.

SSJ School News

The week began with two very special events. We celebrated the Feast Day of Saint Simon and Saint Jude with a surprise appearance by the saints during morning assembly, a classroom trivia contest, and a prayer service. Special thanks to our student council and 7th grade students for their part in these activities. On Monday, our 1st grade students entertained their parents, our PreK students, and 8th grade buddies with a play and song as they dressed as their Patron Saints. Following the presentation, our 8th graders surprised their buddies with homemade Patron Saint booklets.

On Wednesday, our preschool and kindergarten students paraded in their costumes during morning assembly. Parents, teachers, and all our students loved seeing SSJ's youngest all decked out and ready for the holiday. In the afternoon, our PreK to grade 4 students enjoyed Halloween parties. After all the excitement, students were off school for Halloween for parent-teacher conferences and the following day for All Saints Day.

On behalf of our students, faculty, and School Board, I extend another heartfelt thank you to everyone who supported Saints Simon and Jude School through our Lighting the Way Annual Fund and Night at the Races event. Since July 1, 2017, almost $270,000 has been donated to the school to enhance the quality of education at SSJ. Every dollar went into the budget to support classroom technology, student/faculty enrichment, fine arts programs, instructional materials, maintenance, security, and financial aid. Each year, 10% of funds raised are allocated to the endowment fund, ensuring a quality Catholic education for many years to come.

This weekend, I am so pleased to partner with our School Board to kick off our 3rd Annual Fund. Our goal for the 2019-2020 campaign is $150,000. Please take a moment to read the insert in this bulletin detailing the priorities of the campaign. We hope we can count on your support to reach our goal. We will personally contact you in the next couple of weeks to invite your personal gift to Saints Simon and Jude School. In the meantime, I ask that you pray and reflect; may the Lord let you see how much good you do for us.

Gratefully,
Sister Regina Elinich, IHM Principal

Come Tour SSJ's National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence!

Please fill out the online form to RSVP for your visit. Please remember that ALL families who have a need, receive financial aid. Giving your child the gift of a Catholic education can be VERY affordable. SSJ awarded over $170,000 in aid this school year thanks to the generosity of many companies and individuals.
