WEDDINGS We need at least six months to assist engaged couples to prepare for marriage. Please call the rectory for an appointment with a priest.

AGED, SHUT-INS & HOSPITALIZED

Please notify the Rectory when a neighbor, friend or relative is homebound, sick or hospitalized. The sacraments of Penance, Eucharist or Anointing are our joy and privilege to administer.

Join us for daily devotions Monday thru Saturday: Rosary at 8:20 am, immediately followed by Divine Mercy Chaplet.

“But some seed fell on rich soil that produced fruit much fruit” Matthew 13:9How do we acquire this rich soil, how do we produce abundant (spiritual) fruit?*1st Acknowledge God as the creator, if you will the ‘prime mover’, the source of all reality.“I am the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end.” Revelation 1:8.2nd There is no changing God. God is love, eternal love: 1 John 4:8.

It is a piece of humble pie and it needs some getting used to, but, God is very patient, he has forever, but do we? He knows our tricks, our intelligence, our shooting angles and our figure eights.

There is a lesson to learn from Francis Thompson who wrote the famous poem, “The Hound of Heaven: he fled me down the nights and down the days...” it is his record of relentless love. Yes, God is the ultimate contender. We know in the very depths of our soul, God is calling, often he speaks in whispers, and occasionally he knocks us to the ground, Acts 26:14. In every breath we take... the Holy Spirit is present to 7 billion people and counting.

3rd After we gave God our best, self-centered shot, most of us are willing to surrender to holy love.

Is it time for you to get on board? Daily meditation will lead me to the four transcendent truths: ‘beauty, truth, goodness and unity.’ Consider the instruction from Saint Paul’s experience: I have come to count all as loss when compared with the love that has been revealed in Christ. Philippians 3:8.

4th The experience of God can be very overwhelming. So get ready.

The Psalmist records in Psalm 116 this question: “What return shall I make to the Lord for all that God has given me?” Remember Saint Augustine’s response to eternal love: “How lately have I loved you...I burn with desire for your peace” Confessions X, 27, 38). Remember Saint Peter’s response: he went out and wept bitterly, uncontrollably, Luke 22:62.

5th We begin the day with this invocation: “Let us settle ourselves in silence to bring peace to the rest of our day.” (Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary).

For two minutes, focus on Jesus in silence, image his holy face in your mind and his life will flow within you, i.e. Galatians 5: 22-25, the fruits of the Holy Spirit.

God bless you. Sincerely, Fr. Mike Gerlach.

If you have a family member in the military and would like us to pray for them, call the Parish Office to have their name added to the list of Military whom we pray for.

Please advise when a person is no longer deployed, so we can remove their name from our list. God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

Father McGivney To Be Beatified

Pope Francis approved the promulgation of a decree recognizing a miracle attributed to the intercession of the founder of the Knights of Columbus, Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney, a Connecticut priest who served his flock during the pandemic of 1890, before himself becoming ill and dying of pneumonia, with the underlying condition of tuberculosis.
