REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

JULY 9, 2017

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Is there anyone to whom this doesn't apply? Don't we all have to labor at something, whether it be work, school, relationships, household affairs, or personal, emotional, or mental battles? Aren't we all burdened in some way at some time?

Jesus offers us powerful words of consolation in today's Gospel. He promises us rest. He calls all of us to himself, along with the baggage and burdens that we carry, and assures us that we will find relief. Thank God! What a gift for our tired, weary souls.

The strange part about the passage, however, is when Jesus suggests that in order to find this wonderful rest, we have to take a "yoke" upon our shoulders. This of course is a reference to the animal harness of old that would join two oxen together to share the weight of the load they carried. He tells us, "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me... For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." Somehow, joining Jesus in his work is supposed to bring us rest! Contrary to the standard belief that not working is the source of relief, Jesus urges us to join him in his mission in order to find peace. But what is this mission? To be "meek and humble of heart." Jesus' work is to do whatever God the Father wants him to do. As he says elsewhere, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work" (Jn 4:34). So, it seems that if we also humbly submit to doing God's work-with Jesus right alongside us as our partner in the task-we will "find rest" for ourselves. So as we labor through the trials of the day, may we bear this in mind, and pray that we may handle them according to the will of God.

Prayer for the Centenary of All Saints

God our ever loving Father, we praise and bless you for gathering us here in this spiritual family. Thank you for nourishing our faith through our participation in the parish life of All Saints. We remember the souls of all the parishioners who have worshipped at this parish since its foundation in 1917.

As we prepare ourselves for the centenary of our parish, we join them and all the saints in heaven, in giving you thanks and praising you and one another for all your marvelous deeds. Instill in us a deep sense of generosity that we willingly share our gifts, our talents, our time, and our resources to make this parish that is so very dear to us a vibrant and life-sharing community.

We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon our parish to fill us with faith, hope and love. Make us instruments of your love and mercy to everyone. Help us to trust you each day. Protect and comfort us when we seek you, strengthen us when we are weak, and forgive us when we fail you.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

All Saints in the Forefront of Ecumenism

In April 1964, All Saints was the first Catholic parish in the Archdiocese to break down an ancient wall between Christian groups. Since the Protestant reformation centuries earlier, religious denominations did not mix to any degree. They preferred to worship in their own traditions with an imagined wall separating them. That changed dramatically at All Saints after Monsignor Tobin attended the opening session of the Second Vatican Council in Rome. He brought back a message of "ecumenism," the concept that treats the Christian Church as a whole that emphasizes what Christian believers share together. Father Tobin quickly instituted weekly meetings called "Dialogue for Unity" at All Saints, attended by 60-85 parishioners at most sessions. By the end of the second season, more than 50 clergymen and women had taken part. All Saints parishioners heard from Jewish rabbis, Mormon bishops, Christian Science practitioners, Adventist elders, a Baha'i representative, Methodists, Episcopalians and Presbyterians, Baptists, Lutherans, Jehovah Witnesses, United Church of Christ, Unity, Friends, Unitarians and Greek Orthodox. Another first for All Saints and a blessing for the Christian faithful in Portland.
