REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

April 28, 2019 ~ 2nd Sunday of Easter

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today's Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." In resurrecting his body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains his wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. "Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name."

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God's voice speaking. We don't get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As he reminds the disciples, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET PRAYER

On September 13, 1935, St. Mary Faustina Kowalska wrote of a vision of Jesus in her diary. Faustina stated that Jesus asked her to pray the following chaplet with her Rosary beads and to instruct others to do so.

First say one	Then on the Our Father beads say the following:	On the Hail Mary beads say :	Three times recite these words:
Our Father, and Hail Mary and the I believe in God.	Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.	For the sake of His sorrowful Passion have mercy on us and on the whole world.	Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, Have mercy on us and on the whole world. Jesus, I trust in You.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
First Sunday of the Month
Noon-3.00 pm

Thanks to the generosity and volunteers from among All Saints parishioners and school community, the St Vincent de Paul Society collected over 100 pounds of food and household items in April. This provided food boxes to thirty-one families. Utility assistance in March for our neighbors amounted to $429. The St Vincent de Paul Team is looking for new volunteers to deliver food boxes one day a month for the next year. Please contact Megan Palinsky or Bill Leineweber."

MOVING? Let us know in the Parish Office

On Palm Sunday, April 21, the Elect, Kirk Baillie, Andrew Mace, Heidi Kincaid & Mark Milinski and their sponsors gathered for the RCIA retreat with Sister Mary Jo Chaves, OSF.

Sister Mary Jo guided the RCIA community in a special afternoon of reflection on each person's relationship with God, with themselves and with the All Saints Community blending in a unique theme: On Bread and You!

She actually made bread from start to finish "Our lives are without meaning until we're broken and shared. We're not meant to stay on the shelf but to be given away."

Please continue to pray for these men and women of faith.

NCC Workshop Offers Parental Support for Mentally Fragile Kids

Parents often struggle when dealing with a child suffering a mental health disorder. Coping with kids who display generalized anxiety, major depression, OCD, or ADD may result in considerable stress and frustration. Effectively supporting these children is frequently difficult.

This parental support workshop from child therapist Korina Jochim, LMFT, offers assistance and support. The Northwest Catholic Counseling Center invites you to attend the 2 hour event on Saturday, May 18, 2019. The workshop begins at 1 PM and concludes at 3 PM. The cost of the workshop is $30. Pre-registration is required. The fee must be paid at time of registration. Hardship scholarships are available. Please register at www.nwcounseling.org/services/workshops/ or call 503-253-0964.

The workshop will be held at the Northwest Catholic Counseling Center, 8383 NE Sandy Blvd., Suite 205, Portland, OR 97220.

HOPE AFTER ABORTION Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. God's greatest desire is to forgive us, pouring out His infinite mercy upon us so that we may be healed. Women and men alike who have been involved in an abortion may feel deep grief, guilt, anxiety, depression, anniversary reactions to the date of the abortion or what would have been the baby's due date, broken relationships and a sense of alienation from God and Church. If this is you, we want you to know that your Church cares. Seek the Lord's mercy and healing through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Consider confidential, compassionate help from Project Rachel, a confidential Catholic ministry offering hope and healing to women and men hurting from past abortions. Visit the "Find Help" map on HopeAfterAbortion.org to find the diocesan ministry near you. www.usccb.org

Your help is NEEDED! Chaplains provide quilts to patients at end-of-life. These quilts provide comfort for the patient, family and caregivers and are given to the family as a gift of love and remembrance. We offer a monthly workshop and are pleased to welcome new members. We are grateful for donations of fabric and/or cash. At this time we have a real need for volunteers to take material home to launder and iron, as well as make kits for others to sew. For more information Contact Patti Fetterman at 503-215-6890. Thank You!
