REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

February 20, 2022—7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this.

Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips."

If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.

Jesus, Our Desert Guide

Jesus is a theological figure (Messiah, Son of God, Cosmic Christ, Second Person of the Trinity), an archetypal character (trickster, Wisdom teacher) and a personal friend, an intercessor, a healer, a listener. And Jesus is, as Hebrews says, "the pioneer of our faith:" someone who leads us into new places. As we prepare for Lent we see Jesus "led by the Spirit into the wilderness." What might it mean to go with him? In this retreat we'll explore ways not just to believe in Jesus, or even to follow him, but to interact with him, as one whose spirit works in harmony with ours, as a spiritual director who helps us "see more clearly, love more dearly, and follow more nearly."

SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

Over the next few months, Catholics from around the world will be participating in the Synod on Synodality, called for by Pope Francis. What is Synod and what is the Synodality? The Synod on Synodality is a two-year process of listening and dialogue that began with a solemn opening in Rome on October 9 and 10, 2021. The whole process consists of three phases: Diocesan Phase (discussions and discernment at the local level, in parishes and dioceses), Continental Phase (Discussions and discernment at the Regional conference of the Bishops) and Universal Phase (Discussions and discernment at the global level with Pope Francis in Rome). The synodal process will conclude in 2023.

Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: “It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium.” This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church’s “renewal” proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission.

What does that mean for us?

Here at All Saints, it means we all first pray together and invite the Holy Spirit to help us to listen deeply to one another, and we will talk together about how best to do that, at different levels.

Here is the timeline for the Archdiocese of Portland’s participation in the worldwide Synod. Below the timeline is an explanation of each phase.

Now until August 15, 2022 — Prayer Phase

January 20, 2022, 1:30–3:00 p.m. — Synod Virtual Orientation Workshop

February and March 2022 — Parish (and other groups) Participation Phase

April and May 2022 — Vicariate (Regional) Participation Phase

June 2022 — Archdiocesan Discernment Phase

July 2022 — Preparation of Report & Submission to U.S. Bishops

August 15, 2022 — Conclusion of Local Participation in the Synod

As a general guideline, it should be noted that this synod is about synodality itself. Its goal is not to discuss all of the issues in the Church, but rather to discuss how the Church listens to, and can listen better to, all her people and draws the voices of all into her prayer, her mission, and her decision-making process on every level.

St. Polycarp of Smyrna | February 23

As a disciple of St. John, the Evangelist, St. Polycarp was able to hear about Jesus' life, death, and resurrection directly from those who witnessed it. Because Polycarp was ordained as Bishop of Smyrna by St. John, he is one of three chief Apostolic Fathers, along with Clement of Rome and Ignatius of Antioch.

During his life Polycarp defended the Church against heresies. His important writing, the Letter to the Philippians, quoted the Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, stressing Paul's authority in the Church and setting out clear arguments against the gnostic heresy that denied Christ's divinity.

The early period of the Church was a dangerous time to be a Christian and like many, St. Polycarp was martyred. He was captured by Romans and sentenced to burn at the stake. However, the fire did not touch him, instead rising up like sails around him. Seeing that the flames would not injure Polycarp, the Romans stabbed him instead. The Martyrdom of Polycarp is perhaps the earliest fully preserved account of a Christian martyr.

Thanking God for Missing Spears

Imagine how Saul must have felt when he awoke from his sleep and saw his spear missing from its resting place. Now imagine how he felt when he realized that the person who had it was the same person seeking his life — and there he sat, safe and sound. Now there's a day you don't forget your morning prayers.

I think if we look, we can all find a "missing spear moment" in our lives, when it hits us right in the gut that God has kept us safe from an impending disaster. This can be physical disaster, sure — but more commonly, I think it is spiritual disaster. Often the salvation comes through the gift of a person, or people, through whom God reveals His mercy.

When I was in high school, I had a circle of friends who were really into their faith. We were all in youth ministry together, and the bond we shared taught me a lesson that changed me as a person: we become those with whom we associate. I can look back now, all these years later, and see that these people are evidence of God's hand in my life.

Take a look at your life. In whose love has God shown you comfort? By whose hand has God brought you closer to Him, or kept you away from harm? Through whose friendship has God shaped you into the person you are?

Let's strive to remember to thank God for these people — and to thank them, too.
