REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

September 21, 2025—25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Luke 16:10-13

Before I was a priest, I was a lazy worker for a retail Apple store. Hearing a rumor that my boss was going to fire me, I secretly sold iPhones for half-price, gave away dozens of free iPads, and donated several brand-new laptops to managers in other stores in the mall. After a week, my boss called me into his office. He knew what I was up to. He said I had cost the store thousands of dollars. "Really great work, John," he said. "I am going to recommend you to be my assistant manager and double your pay." I was amazed.

And so are you. Which is understandable because it never happened. How could it? My tall tale is a retelling of Jesus' brow-furrowing parable we hear this week. A lazy, dishonest steward defrauds his boss and then the "master commended the dishonest servant for acting prudently" (Luke 16:8). What is the Lord saying to us?

Most of us treat our spiritual lives like a lazy teenager at an Apple store. We really don't care. We go through the motions. Then, if we are lucky, something happens that shakes us to spiritual action; to employ whatever time, money, and resources we have to build around us a strong network of love. Every saint did that. Our Lord is so good he wants us to use his stuff to forgive debts and to bless others. He wants us to ensure our future. So do it!

SHAKING
US TO SPIRITUAL ACTION

Church of the Wild

In Church of the Wild, author Victoria Looz invites us into a deep conversation about love, kinship with the Earth, and our inner connection to all living things. Inspired by the sacred in nature—like Jesus retreating to the mountains or St. Francis preaching to the birds—this book study offers a spiritual path to healing through connection.

Join us to explore the sacred in the soil, the sky, and the soul.
