REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

November 16, 2025—Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time—Luke 21:5-19

When I was a kid growing up in New England, I'd occasionally go on a whale watch. Once we went out with calm waters and clear skies. But on the way back in, the sea got rough. I was just a kid, and I remember thinking we should turn left or right toward the shoreline I could see. But the pilot of the boat kept going straight — right into the waves — focused on a small, discouragingly distant lighthouse. Even when it flickered in and out of sight, he stayed the course. He knew where he was going.

That image comes to mind when I hear Jesus' words in today's Gospel regarding false messiahs: "Do not follow them" (Luke 21:8). In times of chaos or uncertainty, there are always voices offering easier routes, promising false safety, claiming to speak for God. But Jesus isn't found in the loudest voice or the nearest shoreline. He is steady, like a lighthouse in the storm.

The tribulation of which Jesus speaks — it's real. It happened to the Temple, it happened to him, it happens in the Church, and it will come to each of us. But the command is not to panic. It's to endure. To keep steering toward him. Faith isn't about having all the answers or dodging every wave. It's about knowing where the lighthouse is — and trusting it enough to keep going, especially when false safety beckons us to stop.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

CHURCH ROOF FUNDRAISER

Help us restore the roof of our beloved church.

Our Church is in urgent need of roof replacement on both the upper and lower sections of the building. Over the years, we have done everything possible to extend the life of the existing roofing through maintenance and repairs, but it has now run its course. The upper roof has developed significant leaks and trapped moisture that make further repairs ineffective, and the lower roof has also reached its end. Replacing both roofs is essential to prevent further water damage and to preserve the beauty and integrity of our church, including its stained glass windows and historic wood structure. We hope to begin this project next summer, if we are able to raise the necessary funds.

Project cost is $160K

Your support will help protect this sacred space that shelters our parish community and ensure that it remains a place of worship and a beacon of peace. Donations may be made directly through the offertory collection at Mass or through our Parish Office. Please call 503-232-4305 for more information or Kristineg@allsaintsportland.com

Thank you for your support of All Saints Parish. Your gift makes this project possible.

TAX TIP FOR YEAR-END GIVING.

Dear Parishioners,

Did you know that taxpayers who are age 73 or older are required by the IRS to take Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from their IRA accounts each year?

There's a wonderful way to use this opportunity to make a difference. By contributing directly from your IRA to a qualified charity, such as All Saints, you can avoid paying federal and state income taxes on that distribution. This allows you to make a tax-free charitable gift from your IRA to support a cause close to your heart, perhaps All Saints Church and School!

Please note: to receive the tax benefits, the funds must be sent directly from your IRA administrator to the charity. Personal withdrawals followed by a check to the charity will not qualify. So make sure to contact your administrator.

"Please contact us if you wish to learn about the projects we are working on at the church."

She died on November 18, 1852, at the age of 83. On July 3, 1988, Pope John Paul II declared Rose-Philippine Duchesne to be a saint. Sister Rose-Philippine was known for her kindness, her compassion, and her unwavering faith. She inspired many others to follow in her footsteps, and her legacy lives on today in the work of the Society of the Sacred Heart and other religious orders that continue to serve others around the world.

Please note: "Philippine and the first RSCJ became dependent on the forced labor of enslaved persons during their initial years in North America. This practice was entrenched in the economy and civil society of Missouri and Louisiana and was supported by Catholic Church leaders. Today we know that complicity in the institution of enslavement denied the dignity of people of color and was sinful. The Society is working humbly to acknowledge our history with enslavement, to build relationships with the descendants of our enslaved persons, and to work with the descendants towards racial equity, and the end to systemic racism in our institutional structures." —Society of the Sacred Heart, <https://rscj.org/shrine/her-life>

Spiritual NEWS

St. Rose-Philippine Duchesne was born on August 29, 1769, in Grenoble, France, to a wealthy family that was deeply committed to their Catholic faith. From a young age, Rose-Philippine felt called to religious life and aspired to become a member of the Society of the Sacred Heart. However, her family was opposed to this decision, and it was not until she was 18 years old that she was able to join the order.

In order to escape her family's plans for her, she convinced an aunt to accompany her on a visit to the Visitation of Holy Mary religious order's monastery. Once there, she immediately requested admission and was accepted, leaving her aunt to return home without her and to break the news to her family. She made her final vows in 1789, just as the French Revolution was beginning to sweep the country.

During the revolution, many religious orders were disbanded, and religious persecution was rampant. However, Sister Rose-Philippine refused to abandon her faith or her calling to serve others. She continued to work in secret, often risking her life to provide aid and comfort to those in need. During the French Revolution's Reign of Terror, however, she was forced to move home. Determined to not be discouraged, she lived according to the Rule of her congregation and served her family, and those religious who had been imprisoned, to the best of her ability during that time.

Inspired by a missionary spirit Sister Rose-Philippine accepted an invitation to set up schools for Native American and French children in the diocese of Louisiana. In September of 1818 the first Sacred Heart school outside of Europe was opened in St. Charles, Missouri. The first novitiate would be opened the next year in Florissant, Missouri. Life on the frontier was fraught with hardship, from extreme cold to a shortage of resources, including food, shelter, and clothing. Despite these obstacles, Sister Rose-Philippine opened schools and orphanages, taught young girls how to read and write, and ministered to the sick and the poor. (continue pg. 6)

It was not until Rose-Philippine was 72 years old that her wish to serve the Native Americans was granted. The Jesuit head of a mission to open a school for the Potawatomi in Sugar Creek, Kansas insisted that she join. Though ill and frail she stayed with the Potawatomi for a year, spending long hours in contemplation which earned her the nickname, Quah-kah-kanum-ad. "Woman-Who-Prays-Always." (continue pg. 6)
