MISSION STATEMENT

Saint Bernard's is a Roman Catholic parish providing vital services to the diverse North End community of St. Paul. As we extend the hand of welcome to all, our mission is to learn, love, and live the challenging Word of Jesus Christ, offering parishioners and neighbors direction and support at every phase of their faith journey.

A WORD FROM FR. IVAN

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I will continue writing about the Second Ecumenical Vatican Council. Last week we spoke about the Constitution Dei Verbum, in the Word of God. This week I will give a brief introduction on the Constitution Sacrosanctum Concilium, on the Sacred Liturgy.

On the 4th of December 1963 Pope Paul VI promulgated the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy:

Sacrosanctum Concilium 1: This sacred Council has several aims in view: it desires to impart an ever increasing vigor to the Christian life of the faithful; to adapt more suitably to the needs of our own times those institutions which are subject to change; to foster whatever can promote union among all who believe in Christ; to strengthen whatever can help to call the whole of mankind into the household of the Church. The Council therefore sees particularly cogent reasons for undertaking the reform and promotion of the liturgy.

These are the most important points that Sacrosanctum Concilium states:

Meaning of the Liturgy: Every Liturgical celebration is action of Christ the priest and his body the Church that surpasses all others. The Eucharistic celebration is the summit of all sanctification of the faithful in Christ and the glorification of God.

Active Participation of the faithful in the Liturgy: The council desires that all faithful should be led to full conscious and active participation in the liturgy. A recommendation to pastors of souls follows so that they might strive to obtain such participation of the faithful “through an adequate formation” and until this is “penetrated ... by the spirit and strength of the liturgy and become masters” (SC 14).

Renewal of the Liturgical Text and Rites: Sacrosanctum Concilium 21: In this restoration, both texts and rites should be drawn up so that they express more clearly the holy things which signify; the Christian people, as far as possible, should be enabled to understand them with ease and to take part in them fully, actively, and as befits a community. Sacrosanctum Concilium 24 The texts of the Sacred Scriptures are the source from which “the lessons are read and explained in the homily, and psalms are sung; the prayers, collects, and liturgical songs are scriptural in their inspiration and their force, and it is from the scriptures that actions and signs derive their meaning”.

Communion on Both Species are granted: The address of the liturgical renewal given by the Council, an address that underlines the demands of a conscious and full participation on the part of the faithful, clearly places in the light that which the theology of the sacraments defines as opus operantis. The sacraments do not only ‘confer grace, but their very celebration disposes people very well to receive the fruit, to honor of God in a better way and to exercise charity” as we read in the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy.

Paschal Mystery fulfilled in Jesus Christ: Passover of Jesus Christ as the fulfillment of everything prefigured in the Jewish Passover, in which the bread does not represent anymore the freedom from the slavery of Egypt, but the freedom from the slavery of the devil, realized in the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord, and the cup of wine, sign of the new covenant in the blood of Jesus Christ, the entry into the promised land of the Kingdom of God.

The Catechumenate SC 64: The catechumenate for adults, comprising several distinct steps, is to be restored and to be taken into use at the discretion of the local ordinary. By this, means the time of the catechumenate, which is intended as a period of suitable instruction, may be sanctified by sacred rites to be celebrated at successive intervals of time. To be continued.

God bless! Wishing you a blessed Sunday.
