I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.

— 2 Corinthians 12:9

The Sound of Silence

I'll never forget the silence of Sept. 11, 2001.

We need to find God, and he cannot be found in noise and restlessness.

God is the friend of silence. See how nature - trees, flowers, grass - grows in silence; see the stars, the moon and the sun, how they move in silence. We need silence to be able to touch souls

We all remember the chaos of that day—the sirens, the alarms, the confusion and pandemonium. The senses were assaulted—especially for those who were physically present in New York, Washington, D.C., or Pennsylvania. I watched the Twin Towers begin to collapse on a television set, what amazed me was that the television commentators also sat in silence. For long periods of time, the television displayed terrible images, with almost no sound, commentary or interruption. Everyone seemed to know that words were nearly useless in the face of something so unthinkable.

Silence amplified the magnitude of what we were watching. I think I remember that silence so vividly because silence, especially on television, is a rare thing in contemporary culture. Rarely in the world do we encounter a silent moment. Media blares and, more than that, we are a people who talk a lot. In some ways, our culture seems uncomfortable with silence.

But I learned, on Sept. 11, 2001, the power of silence. A silent moment, in a loud, chaotic, confusing world, amplifies reality. In silence, without distraction, we see what is real—what is truly before us. We are given the time to better comprehend the true meaning of things. This is the reason the Church calls for silence, and a great deal of silence, during the liturgy of the Mass. Silence amplifies the reality of what we experience. Silence is a proper response to a reality which words cannot express—in the case of the Mass, to the reality of God's presence.

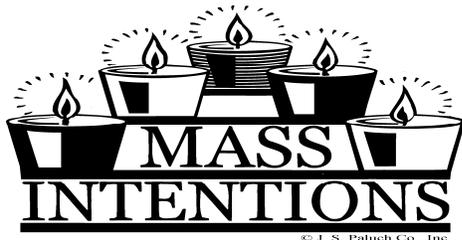

We are invited to silence several times during the Mass. We are first of all called to be silent before Mass begins. We need that space of time to recollect ourselves in order to enter into prayer. This is why there should be no video presentations or even choir rehearsal during those five or 10 minutes before Mass begins.

We are then called to silence as we recall and repent of our sins. We are called to silent reflection after each Scriptural reading, and after the homily. We are all called to silence after we have received holy Communion.

These periods of silence are intended to bring reality into focus. At Mass we express to God our contrition, we hear his word, and we receive his physical presence sacramentally. These realities go beyond our comprehension. To hear and understand the Word of God is an expression of his great love for us. To receive the body of Christ is the deepest kind of communion with God.

Please be respectful to those around you in church who are praying

OBSTACLES

The prophet Ezekiel, Saint Paul, and the Lord Jesus share something in common in today's scripture readings. They all experience obstacles to their ministry. Ezekiel is summoned to prophesy to the Israelites, who are "[h]ard of face and obstinate of heart" (Ezekiel 2:4). Saint Paul recounts how he has been given a "thorn in the flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7). The Lord Jesus is unable to perform many signs in his native place. The Gospel tells us that "[he] was amazed at their lack of faith" (Mark 6:6). We too sometimes encounter obstacles as we travel along the journey of faith. So often we experience weakness on this journey. Let the words of the Lord to Saint Paul encourage us today: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9). Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Social Justice

When I give them food, they call me a saint.
When I ask why the poor have no food, they call me a communist.

Dom Helder Camara, former Archbishop of Olinda and Recife, Brazil

Our nation is enriched and our tradition of plurality is enhanced, not threatened, when religious groups contribute their values to public debates. The Catholic community enters public life not to impose sectarian doctrine but to act on our moral convictions, to share our experience in serving the poor and vulnerable,
and to participate in the dialogue over the nation's future.

U.S. Bishops, "A Call to Faithful Citizenship"

When people become self-centered and self-enclosed, their greed increases. The emptier a person's heart is, the more he or she needs things to buy, own and consume. It becomes almost impossible to accept the limits imposed by reality. In this horizon, a genuine sense of the common good also disappears.

Pope Francis, "Laudato Si {#204}

Not everyone experiences their dignity as a person of God. The wealth of the world is not distributed fairly. Some people get greedy.
Fighting and violence erupt. The poor continue to be left out. The environment of our planet continues to be abused.

The social teaching of the church invites us to continue to grow in an awareness of how the values of the world may not be the values of God. From this awareness we learn about ourselves and what we truly believe. We can then work to make certain that our values are not destroyed by the values of the culture.
We can promote those values that are really
life-giving for ourselves and the entire world.
We can then be moved into action for peace and justice. We can work for a positive transformation of our world in the liberating spirit of Jesus the Christ.

Ladies' Guild and Holy Name's

All women and men of the parish are welcome to join the St. Christopher Parish
Ladies' Guild and Holy Name Society.

The primary purpose of our organizations is to build and strengthen the St. Christopher community by hosting fundraisers and community events throughout the year. Our joint efforts fund St. Christopher's school sports programs, parish and school technology and building upgrades, tuition assistance and numerous other local charities. Events such as the St. Christopher Festival, Benefit Auction, Antique Show and Western Welcome provide many opportunities to get involved. For more information about Ladies' Guild, please visit www.stchrisladiesguild.org or email membership@stchrisladiesguild.org or call Kelly Miller at

"I have called You by Name, You are Mine" an invitation to join the journey. Interested in Becoming Catholic?

Have you ever asked yourself the following questions?

- ◆ How is the Catholic Christian faith different from other Christian religions?
- ◆ Will being a member of the Catholic Church make a difference in my life?
- ◆ Will being a Catholic help me develop and strengthen my relationship with God?

If you have asked yourself any of these questions, the RCIA process will help you answer them. Life is a journey on which a person is constantly learning, growing, and changing.
This process is a step in that journey and lays the groundwork, through information and experiences, in helping you decide if you want to be a member of the Catholic faith. The RCIA will provide you the opportunity to ask questions, pray, and experience what is meant by being a Catholic Christian and entering into a relationship with God and the Catholic community.

You may be wondering: Who can be part of the RCIA ?

- ◆ Someone who has never been baptized.
- ◆ Someone who has been baptized in another faith tradition, but who wishes to become Catholic.
- ◆ A person who has been baptized a Catholic, but not fully catechized, that is, not having received their first Holy Communion and/or the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Our tour concludes at Matthias Church, a gorgeous Romanesque style church for a visit of the Ecclesiastical Art museum that houses numerous sacred relics and medieval stone carvings, including replicas of the Hungarian royal crown and coronation jewels.

VIENNA

The capital and largest city of Austria. Apart from being regarded as the City of Music because of its musical legacy, Vienna is also said to be "The City of Dreams" because it was home to the world's first psycho-analyst Sigmund Freud.

SALZBURG

Salzburg came to be in the year 696 when the missionary St. Rupert arrived in the area and founded the Benedictine Monastery of St. Peters. Today Salzburg is a picturesque city with small alleyways, quaint colorful town houses, rich castles and palaces, with styled gardens.

OBERAMMERGAU

The story of Oberammergau is one of faith and began with a miracle. In the 1600s "The Black Plague" swept through Europe, striking down one in every three people and leaving in its wake misery, panic and death. The people of Oberammergau prayed to be spared, vowing they would present a play depicting the Life and Passion of Jesus Christ every 10 years. True to their word, the villagers presented their Passion Play in 1634 and have kept their pledge, the routine of plays only having been interrupted by the two World Wars.

Be a part of the once-a-decade Passion Play. As demand for tickets is high and space on tours will be limited, it important to book you place as soon as possible. To secure you ticket we ask that you make reservation with a deposit. For more information please contact. Fr. Chris Phone: 408-269-2226
