REFLECTIONS FOR EACH WEEK

During the middle of the summer, we will provide one or two short reflections related to Sunday liturgies and some feasts celebrated during the week. If you wish a more extensive reflection for each of the Sundays, we suggest you consider the reflections provided in the Living with Christ Sunday Missal. Some copies are still available for purchase at the parish office.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (JULY 13)

For the love of God

What would happen if you and a whole bunch of other people really took to heart these words of scripture: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself”? What, in other words, would be the result if you and I and lots of others put God first in our lives? There would be mutual respect between people. The love of God would be lived out. Violence would disappear. No one would lack what they need. It sounds too good to be true, but with God all things are possible. Do your part and give it your all.

Readings: Deuteronomy 30:10-14; Colossians 1:15-20; Luke 10:25-37
“Return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.”

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (JULY 20)

Sit for a spell

As essentially Christian and counter-intuitive as “love your enemies may be,” Jesus’ defending Mary’s “laziness” over her hard-working sister Martha seems even more outrageous and unfair! If Americans love and believe in anything, it is hard work. It’s what gives us identity. We define ourselves as a farmer, an attorney, a salesperson, and so on. So how can Jesus tell poor Martha, who could use a little help in the kitchen, that her sister has chosen the “better part”? Well, it’s a matter of priority. We can imagine Jesus saying, “Martha, I came to visit you, not your cuisine. I know you show love by your hard work, but you mean so much more to me than what you do. Come sit here with me.”

Readings: Genesis 18:1-10a; Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42
“Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing.”

FEAST OF SAINT MARY MAGDALENE (JULY 22)

Recommit to friendship

We seem to be coming closer to understanding Mary Magdalene as she was, not the reformed sinner (a role mistakenly ascribed to her first not in scripture but by Pope Gregory I in 591) but, as the Mass prayers and readings for her feast day remind us, the beloved friend of Jesus, the first witness of his Resurrection, and its first missionary. All the prayers in the Mass in her honor praise her memory as a close friend of Jesus, much like the Beloved Disciple in John’s gospel. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux says it is Magdalene’s “loving audacity that charms the Heart of Jesus.” We can celebrate Mary Magdalene by recommitting ourselves to our own audacious love for Jesus and our treasured friends.

Readings: Song of Songs 3:1-4a; John 20:1, 11-18
“Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, ‘I have seen the Lord.’”

FEAST OF SAINT ANNE and ST. JOACHIM, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary (JULY 26)

Pass it on

We know nothing for certain about the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, but it doesn’t matter. In the same way that we know God through his Son Jesus, we can know Anne and Joachim through their daughter Mary. It was through these two that Mary learned about prayer and work, family and community. It was Anne and Joachim who taught their daughter to love and trust God enough to say, “May it be done to me according to your word.” Faith, like the color of our eyes and hair, is passed down from generation to generation. Today may we remember that our words and actions will continue to reverberate for generations to come. Let us speak and act accordingly.

Readings: Sirach 44:1, 8, 10-15; Matthew 13:16-17

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (JULY 27)

Celebrate our perfect parent

In 1994 President Clinton [of the USA] signed a congressional resolution setting aside the fourth Sunday of July as Parents' Day for "recognizing, uplifting, and supporting the role of parents in the rearing of children." Embracing this day is easy for those of us who have or had loving parents, but for those of us who didn't experience great parenting, we may find it hard to feel uplifted. Surely, however, we can all celebrate the fact that we have a perfect divine parent who has loved us unconditionally and cared for us unceasingly since before we were born.

Readings: Genesis 18:20-32; Colossians 2:12-14; Luke 11:1-13

"If you ... know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (AUGUST 3)

The freedom to be good

What does it mean to be free? For some it's a matter of not being trapped in oppressive circumstances, like an unsatisfying job, a difficult relationship, or an illness. For others it's the ability to find ways to live creatively within those situations. Some say freedom is about having choices. And there are those who think it's simply being able to do whatever they want. Christians believe Christ has freed them to discern what is truly important: to be generous rather than selfish; kind instead of cruel; truthful rather than deceptive. Use your freedom to choose the ways of Christ.

Readings: Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23; Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11; Luke 12:13-21

"If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God."

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD (AUGUST 6)

Use your power for good

The two events we remember today offer a startling juxtaposition of images. First is the brilliant light radiating from Jesus as he is transformed on the mountaintop and the cloud from which is heard: "This is my beloved Son; listen to him." Next to that is Hiroshima, Japan on August 6, 1945: a blinding flash of light, a dense, dark, demonic mushroom cloud, and the greatest devastation humankind has ever seen. These images prompt us to consider the ways we use our knowledge and power, both individually and as a nation. Does our "light," like Jesus', provide illumination, or cause blindness? To realize what we've done after the fact is too late. As Albert Einstein himself reportedly lamented about the atomic bomb, "If only I had known, I would have become a locksmith."

Readings: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14; 2 Peter 1:16-19; Luke 9:28-36: "His clothing became dazzling white."

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (AUGUST 10)

A gift you can bank on

With so much emphasis on work and consumption in American culture, it is easy to fall into the trap of believing that "you are what you earn." This attitude creates a lot of anxiety, leaving us constantly worried about our financial worth and feeling devalued if our "earning power" drops or if we are not part of the wage economy. Jesus offers a different vision when he assures us that God is pleased to give us the Kingdom. There is nothing to earn here, nothing to be gained, nothing to be lost. Our self-worth is a freely given gift of our Creator. Bank on it!

Readings: Wisdom 18:6-9; Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19 or 11:1-2, 8-12; Luke 12:32-48 or 12:35-40

"Do not be afraid ... for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom."

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY (AUGUST 15)

What's so special about Mary?

The most important thing to remember about Mary is her discipleship. She is the first and most revered of Jesus' followers because of her embrace of the role she was asked to play in salvation history and her unflinching support of Christ's mission. What Mary endured, we can endure; what Mary achieved, we can achieve. She is the "guide, strength, and consolation of our mortal life," said Pope Pius XII in a prayer in honor of the Assumption.

Readings: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; 1 Corinthians 15:20-26; Luke 1:39-56

"So too in Christ shall all be brought to life."
