LORD,
I LOVE YOU.

- POPE EMERITUS BENEDICT XVI

LET US PRAY

O God, true shepherd of all the faithful, look with kindness on your servant Pope Benedict XVI, whom you set as head and shepherd of your Church.

We give you thanks for your grace at work in him as he has led us by word and example: in his teaching, in his prayer, and in his great love.

Grant him your strength in frailty, comfort in sorrow, and serenity amid the trials of this world; and guide your Church, built on the rock of Peter, with the power of your Spirit as we continue on the path that leads to you.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PASTOR COLUMN

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the beautiful "Epiphany of the Lord," as the Magi travel great distances to meet the infant Jesus and give Him praise! Let us pray with these words of Pope Saint Leo the Great about this great Feast:

The loving providence of God determined that in the last days he would aid the world, set on its course to destruction. He decreed that all nations should be saved in Christ....

Dear friends, now that we have received instruction in this revelation of God's grace, let us celebrate with spiritual joy the day of our first harvesting, of the first calling of the Gentiles. Let us give thanks to the merciful God, who has made us worthy, in the words of the Apostle, to share the position of the saints in light, who has rescued us from the power of darkness, and brought us into the kingdom of his beloved Son. As Isaiah prophesied: the people of the Gentiles, who sat in darkness, have seen a great light, and for those who dwelt in the region of the shadow of death a light has dawned. He spoke of them to the Lord: The Gentiles, who do not know you, will invoke you, and the peoples, who knew you not, will take refuge in you....

This is the day that David prophesied in the psalms, when he said: All the nations that you have brought into being will come and fall down in adoration in your presence, Lord, and glorify your name. Again, the Lord has made known his salvation; in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.

This came to be fulfilled, as we know, from the time when the star beckoned the three wise men out of their distant country and led them to recognize and adore the King of heaven and earth. The obedience of the star calls us to imitate its humble service: to be servants, as best we can, of the grace that invites all men to find Christ.

Dear friends, you must have the same zeal to be of help to one another; then, in the kingdom of God, to which faith and good works are the way, you will shine as children of the light: through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with God the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

In this New Year, may we always bow down in worship before Our Lord Jesus who has come to save us!

Over this past week, we have also celebrated the funeral of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. Among his many towering achievements was guiding the creation of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, published in 1995, after ten years of work! It is a marvel! I hope you own one; I hope you have read it! And especially, I invite and encourage you to join in the world's #1 podcast that just began on January 1: The "Catechism in a Year," led by Fr. Mike Schmitz – a fantastic way to deepen and grow in our adult faith!

Check it out on AscensionPress.com

God bless you all!
 Fr. Joe

All are Invited by Pope Francis to Experience
"The Letter" A Message for God's Creation

Multi-Purpose Room
Jan. 28 (English) at 3 PM | Jan. 29 (Espanol) at 3:30 P.M.

You are invited to view the documentary, "The Letter," the story about Pope Francis' call to us to care for all God's people and planet, our common home, which "...is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us." (St. Francis of Assisi)

Pope Francis' encyclical, "Laudato Si,'" begins "Praise be to you, my Lord" and speaks about the environmental crisis and its effect on the world's population. Unheard voices from the Poor (Senegal), Indigenous (Amazon), Youth (India), & Wildlife (Hawaii) were invited to engage in dialogue with the Pope to offer perspective & solutions. Each received an invitation to have an unprecedented conversation with Pope Francis personally in an open & intimate setting.

Follow these courageous protagonists' journey to Rome and their powerful experiences. Hear their moving personal stories as they share the current information about our planetary crisis' toll on all people and nature. Kindly R.S.V.P. your name and number attending to Sue at (201) 358-6932 by January 27. Thank You.
