Enhancing the liturgical tradition for generations.

When asked by a local priest to supply beeswax candles that wouldn't sag or melt in the summer heat of his sweltering church, A.I. Root's son, Huber, developed a superior beeswax candle using hand-rolled strips of beeswax from Root's own hives wrapped around a wick. These pure beeswax candles from Root stood up to the hottest summer days while burning cleaner and longer as they delivered the natural aroma of sweet honey. Root Candles has been a leading supplier of liturgical candles ever since.
