The harvest
is abundant
but the laborers
are few;
so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for
the harvest.

SUNDAY CELEBRATIONS IN ABSENCE OF A PRIEST

A communion service led by a deacon is scheduled in place of Mass for the following times. It is encouraged that if possible you try to attend Mass at another time instead of the communion service, but for those who cannot do so without difficulty, participation in the communion service will fulfill the Sunday Mass obligation.

GOOD NEWS—Inspiration for daily life—July 3

"Almighty God, give me wisdom to perceive You, intelligence to understand You, diligence to seek You, patience to wait for You, eyes to behold You, a heart to meditate upon You and life to proclaim You, through the power of the Spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

Benedict of Nursia (480-547), Monk, Patron of Europe, Feast Day
July 11

Are you being called by the Lord of the harvest to proclaim His kingdom

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out
have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world,
fill your faithful with holy joy,
for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin
you bestow eternal gladness.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

Do those around me see in me the joy of someone who has been rescued from sin?

NOTE FROM PASTOR

Thank you for participating in the collection for Birthright of Beaumont. This is a way we can "serve those who face difficult pregnancies and surround them with love" as the Bishops call us to.

This from the Birthright website:

Birthright relies on the dedication, time and talents of volunteers. We welcome any and all individuals who share our philosophy and commitment to offer loving, confidential, nonjudgmental support to those who are pregnant or think they may be pregnant.

There are many ways to volunteer at Birthright and support the women and girls who rely on our services. We look forward to sharing more about our volunteer program, needs, and training.

Prayer for protection from a hurricane

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father.

Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us.—Amen.

REMINDERS

If you have moved or changed phone numbers (especially gone to cell number only) please call the parish office to update your information.
