Today's Readings

Reading I: Jeremiah 20: 7-9

Feeling a touch of despair, the prophet accuses Yahweh of being a deceiver. He has faced derision and scorn doing his job, and wants to stop. Yet when he does, he faces "a fire burning within his heart" that compels him to resume his calling.

Reading II: Romans 12: 1-2

The offering to God that we must make of our lives will inevitably lead us to be "non conformers" to the prevailing culture.

The Gospel: Matthew 16: 21-27

Here we have the first of Jesus' predictions of His passion. We also have a key element involved in being His true disciple, to "deny oneself and take up his/her cross."

Our book of Mass Intentions for 2024 will open on October 6th. Please note the maximum number of announced Masses for each deceased is three per year.

There are still a few weeks open in 2023 for sanctuary candles, bread & wine offerings and flowers. The IONA Memorial fund is also an option for the deceased to be included in a Mass once a month perpetually (Those Enrolled in the IONA Memorial Fund).

Spiritual Adoption of the Unborn Child

September 3 - Week 32 - I can now move my head from side to side, but it is harder to move around in here since I am growing bigger every day! My mom is having trouble sleeping since she is very uncomfortable. Please continue to pray for both of us.

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph. I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL: Many thanks to those who have made a pledge to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Making a six-month pledge to the Appeal allows you to maximize the amount that you may give by making monthly payments. For example, a $120 gift to the Appeal may be set-up with six $20 installments. Remember, every gift counts, no matter how small. Your generosity funds the annual budget for 6 important Diocesan ministries in our area. You can make your gift online at Becauseweare-Catholic.org

Starting the week of November 11, 2023, we will have our semi-annual grave clean-off at Gethsemane and St. Mary's Cemeteries. If you have any items on gravesites you wish to keep, please visit the Cemetery to retrieve the items prior to the week of September 11th. Thank you.
