Is Your Love Extravagant or Selective?

In the gospel reading we see a nameless sinful woman who dared to approach Jesus. She fell to Jesus's feet, washed his feet with her tears, dried his feet with her hair and then anointed them with an expensive oil (Luke 7: 36-50). Why? I would propose that this woman was motivated out of her love for Jesus and her gratitude for his forgiveness. Her love was not calculated or limited. Her love was lavish and extravagant. This is opposed to Simon, who simply saw a woman of ill repute and wanted to get rid of her. Simon, who regarded himself as an upright Pharisee, felt no need for love or mercy. His self-sufficiency kept him from acknowledging his need for God's grace. The sinful woman, however, exemplifies one who responds properly to Jesus, and whose actions mirror his own. I believe that we have to make sure that we don't fall into the bad habit of "self-sufficiency"; being so free and independent that we don't even see the importance of God at times. No the woman who washed Jesus feet was everything but "self-sufficient," she was both lavish and extravagant. We may not be called to wash others feet. But, we are called to work lavishly at being wise, encouraging, protecting and caring for teach other. I think that we all are called to do some self-reflection. We are called to look within ourselves and ask - are we extravagant with our love for one another or are we too self-sufficient and selective with how we love? For the fact is if you are lavish and extravagant in how you love that is the very love that will be returned to you.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the family of St. Jude, Pearl, Mississippi are a vibrant, Eucharistic community with caring members that are empowered by baptism to serve God through the sacraments. We will proclaim the good news and provide spiritual and moral guidance to parishioners and the community by creating a holy and comforting place that encourages active participation, service to each other, and love.

PRAY FOR OUR TROOPS

Remember in your prayers all those who serve our nation in the Armed Forces. We especially pray for: Christopher and Lamont Arnold, Meghan Bietzel, Jessup Boatner, Chip Boyce Voyed Couey, II, Chris Curry, Cory Messer, Richard Messer, Troy Resurreccion, Steven Renslow, Emma Reuter, Ryan Roy,

I am deeply moved by all of the kind encouragements and enthusiastic embraces I received over the past few days. Sharing this joy with my St. Jude family has made the joyous event of my ordination and my first Mass assisting as a deacon, even more joyous. I will never forget the love and support you have shown me, and I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers.

Stewardship Thought

Like Nathan in today's first reading, we sin when we begin to feel entitled and act as if what we have is ours by right, when we forget that everything we have is an unmerited gift from God. But God is gracious and forgiving — even when we use His gifts wrongly or squander them thoughtlessly — if, like Nathan, we confess our guilt and ask His pardon.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

June 12, 2016

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

On today's Jubilee for Those Sick and Suffering Disabilities, Jesus encounters a woman who is "spiritually ill." She is thus "disabled" from participating in Israel's worshiping community or polite society. Bathing Jesus' feet with tears, drying them with unveiled hair, anointing them (Luke 7:38) risk Jesus' becoming "unclean." Yet his mercy welcomes even such inappropriate behavior as her sincere manifestation of love: "Your sins are forgiven. Go in peace" (7:48, 50). Go not just in "peace," but in shalom, the all-enveloping, life-changing assurance of God's mercy. She is anonymous, "known in the city" only as "a sinful woman" (7:37). The character with name and religious title, "Simon the Pharisee" (7:36, 40), judges her harshly, but himself not at all, and thus forfeits God's mercy. This Jubilee Year of Mercy challenges us to self-examination. In which role do we most often cast ourselves, humble sinner or judgmental Pharisee? Jesus declares that only by an unfailing willingness to show mercy to fellow sinners can we hope to obtain mercy ourselves (see Misericordiae Vultus, 9).
