Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time September 10, 2017

Our readings today challenge us about sin, about how we are to help our brothers and sisters confront the sins they have in their lives, about how we are to help them through a process of reconciliation. In seminary, we were encouraged to help our brother seminarians deal with any problems or issues with which they were struggling. Well, I remember once when a fellow seminarian started skipping mass for no apparent reason; I spoke to him about this. Boy, did he get angry – really angry. He barked back at me: “How dare you talk to me that way. Who do you think you are? My guardian? My watchdog? Mind your own business.” I responded to him that as a brother seminarian, I felt that it was my duty and responsibility to point this out to him, to help him along his journey of faith in that way. I told him that I wasn’t doing this to be mean or judgmental; I was trying to help along on his journey in trying to discern his vocation to the priesthood. Obviously, he did not have the same perspective. It’s interesting that this seminarian asked me if I thought I was his watchdog, because in a way I was. We hear the Lord tells the prophet Ezekiel that he is a watchman, a lookout, and a sentinel, that he is to warn the people of the ways they’ve strayed, to call them out for their wickedness and to bring them back to the faith. The Lord tells Ezekiel that it is his responsibility to give them warning. And Ezekiel will be held responsible if he does not fulfill this role. Yet, we are not to be a watchman out of arrogance or self-righteousness. We do not do this out of a desire to make ourselves look good or to boost our own egos like the Pharisees did. We are to do so out of love and compassion. No doubt, this is a difficult task, a tough aspect of our journey of faith. Yet, if we truly proclaim God’s kingdom here on earth, this is what we’re called to do.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the family of St. Jude, Pearl, Mississippi are a vibrant, Eucharistic community with caring members that are empowered by baptism to serve God through the sacraments. We will proclaim the good news and provide spiritual and moral guidance to parishioners and the community by creating a holy and comforting place that encourages active participation, service to each other, and love.

Sunday School classes for ages 3 years (by Sept. 1) – 12th grade meet from 9:45 -10:45am.

Classes resume this Sunday!

If you have not registered your child for Sunday School please contact Stacy in the office, it is not too late. Come and join us!

THE JOURNEY . . . A WAY TO DEEPEN YOUR EXPERIENCE OF JESUS

SIGN UP THIS WEEKEND!

For several weeks our parish has been talking about getting ready for The Journey . . . a process to help everyone deepen his or her experience of Jesus Christ.

This weekend we have an opportunity to sign up and participate in a group that will be convenient for your schedule. The groups will meet for six weeks—starting the first week in October - for an hour and a half. Groups will be available at various days of the week, and at various times.

Don't be shy. Sign up for this special experience! A Sign-Up Table will be located outside the church following each Mass this weekend and next.

Everyone is talking about a personal experience of Jesus . . . especially Pope Francis! This is your chance to sign up!

Baptismal Prep – A Baptismal Prep class will be held on Wednesday, October 4th, at 6:30 pm in the Junior High Classroom. This class is designed for first-time new/expecting parents or parents who are Baptizing a child in the Catholic faith for the first time. Registration is required. Please contact Stacy in the office by Monday, October 2nd, if you wish to attend.

HATE NOT

Stewardship Thought

Am I my brother's keeper? All three readings today suggest that for the Christian steward the answer is "Yes!"

Watch Your Giving Grow as You Help St. Jude Parish Grow Our Ministry!

If you give through Online Giving - our secure giving program, accessible from the church website - you can watch your giving grow this season... and throughout the year! When you create a login, your gift and pledge history will be stored so that you can access it at anytime. This will allow you to accurately assess how much you're giving to what so that you can make informed decisions and plan your future gifts. It also helps us in the church office; there's much less processing for online gifts than for envelope gifts!

With joy, we announce the arrival of the Saltillo Mission book. The book chronicles the history of Saltillo Mission since its inception and the contains four chapters on the founder of Saltillo Mission, Fr. Patrick Quinn. This year marks the 20th anniversary of his death and two years from now we celebrate the golden jubilee of the mission. The book explains why Mississippi got involved in the mission, what Mississippians did for the mission and what the mission did for us. It has two chapters on the Saltillo Summer program where more than 20,000 of our youth visited the mission since its inception and it has many human-interest stories in it. The book sells for $15. Saltillo Mission is jointly sponsored by the Diocese of Biloxi and Jackson. Make checks payable to Tidewater Press. Books are available in the office.

The Catholic Church has always demonstrated a concern for children. The Diocese of Jackson is committed to ensuring that children served by the church are not at risk of sexual abuse by the Church personnel. Diocesan policies and procedures currently in place seek to protect, enhance and, in some cases, restore the trust that our faith calls for between agents of the Church and the children and adolescents entrusted to our care. In accordance with the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People passed by the U.S. bishops in Dallas, the Diocese of Jackson wishes to encourage any victim of sexual abuse by a member of the Catholic Clergy to come forward and begin the healing process. When an allegation is found to be credible, counseling will be offered, so that the healing process can begin in accord with our present diocesan policy. We encourage any victim to contact Ms. Valerie McClellan, Victims Assistance Coordinator at 601-326-3728.

Beginning on Monday, September 11, Pavecon, Ltd.

will begin work on the parking lot. For several years the parking lot has been in need of repairs. Fr. Jeffery along with Deacon John have been working on getting the right contractor of the job. Fr. Lincoln was aware of the condition of the parking lot before he became pastor here at St. Jude was will on board to get the job done. Weather permitting the job should take no more than 60 days to complete.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On Good Friday, at the heart of the Triduum, the commemoration of the Lord's Passion is colored by sobriety and decorum, but this Thursday the mystery comes in a luminous celebration of Christ's victory. In its deepest origins, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross is the feast of a dedication of a church, since in the year 335 the Church of the Holy Sepulchre was dedicated on September 13, and on the following day the "true cross" discovered by St. Helena was brought outside to the faithful for veneration. It is a great feast of the Eastern Church, which often marks it by having the whole assembly prostrate themselves on the floor honoring the life-giving cross.

At the core of the tradition is the quest of Helena, mother of the Emperor Constantine, to acquire the cross and the nails of the Crucifixion from the ruins of Jerusalem. When she was satisfied that she had found them, thanks to the healing of a sick man whose body was placed on the cross, she had her son fund the building of the great basilica. The history of the relic is complicated, especially because it was carried off by invading Persians in the year 614 and "went missing" for fifteen years. Thursday's feast does not celebrate the relic, but rather the life-giving cross from which salvation flows. It's a good day to look around your house or office: Don't those walls look bare without a cross? What better day to remedy that?

Looking for a book club?

Fr. Lincoln is interested in starting a Book Club. He already has two books available for anyone who would like to join a book club. He has Matthew Kelly's "Resisting Happiness" and Leo Maasburg's "Mother Teresa of Calcutta, A Personal Portrait." If you are interested in joining call Kelly in the office.

From early in the morning,
Until I go to sleep each day,
I know my grandparents love
me,

In a very special way.
Sometimes it's tea and crackers,
Sometimes a walk in the park,
Sometimes it's just a hug when I'm scared
and in the dark.

I love to hear their stories,
About the past and where they're from,
And I know their hearts are filled for me,
With never ending love.

Catechetical Sunday 2017

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 17. Those who the Community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry at the 11am Mass. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

What is Symbolon?

A Spiritual Journey

Symbolon is an Adult Faith Formation Program that offers the necessary components in accord with Church Teachings for RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). It is a journey of deeper conversion and relationship to God and His holy Bride, the Church.

RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized, or we baptized in another Christian tradition, become full member of the Catholic Church. Classes are open to everyone seeking spiritual growth and a deeper knowledge and understanding of our Catholic Faith and true Discipleship.

It's not too late to join us on the journey each Tuesday evening at 6:30 pm beginning with a light meal. Is there someone you should invite? Please feel free to bring a friend or family member.

For more information contact Deacon John McGregor at jmcgregor@stjudepearl.org.

When the spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

John 16:13

"I would like in particular to recall and recommend the ancient tradition of Lectio Divina: the diligent reading of Sacred Scripture accompanied by prayer brings about that intimate dialogue in which the person reading hears God who is speaking, and in praying, responds to him with trusting openness of heart."

-POPE BENEDICT XVI, SEPTEMBER 15, 2005

Adult Faith Formation

Join us beginning Sunday, September 10th from 9:45 —10:45am in the Parish Hall for Adult Faith Formation as we discover how to pray with Sacred Scripture.

Though prayer is one of the essentials of a thriving faith, we often feel as if we're talking to ourselves. Or, worse, we feel like we're talking to no one at all. How can something so vital to the faith be so elusive?

Now, the mystery of prayer is made clear through the engaging teaching and cinematic artistry of the Augustine Institute in Prayer: Finding Intimacy with God. In six sessions on three DVDs, renowned speaker Dr. Tim Gray masterfully uses the ancient Church's tradition of lectio divina to show you the simple steps for making prayer an effort of love and intimacy with God. Essential and accessible, this new Lectio series is ideal for personal faith formation and small group study.
