First Sunday of Lent
Marcg 10, 2019

Last Wednesday, we commenced the holy season of Lent. Even though Ash Wednesday is not a holy day of obligation, it is a day when Catholics want to come to Mass as we get that smudge of ash on our foreheads, a symbol of our desire to change, to repent, and to renew their lives. For us priests, it is one of the busiest days of the year, as I had six masses that day.

Our holy season of Lent in the Church calls us to three disciplines. The first is prayer. We are to look at our prayer life in a special way during Lent. One of my favorite Lenten prayers is the Stations of the Cross. I want to encourage all of you to pray the Stations of the Cross on Fridays during the Lenten season, marking the day of the week that Jesus died on the cross. We will pray the stations of the cross on Fridays at St Jude after the 10:00 am mass and at 6:00 pm. After the evening stations, we will have our world famous Knights of Columbus fish fry, one of the beloved traditions of our parish. By praying the Stations of the Cross, we reflect upon Jesus' passion and journey. We look at the ways Jesus is calling us to change and convert as we look into our own hearts. We are also called to make sacrifices and to give things up. Perhaps it is a special food, or Facebook, or playing video games, something you like doing that is definitely a sacrifice to give up. A third thing we can do is to reach out to others in a special way or to take on special works of charity. What you choose to do during Lent is up to you. The point is, to make this season a meaningful time in your life of faith, a time when you look at your life and enact ways to renew and transform. To make changes not that will take affect during these 40 days in preparation for the commemoration of Holy Week and Easter, but changes that will have long lasting affects on our journey of faith. My prayer for all of you during this Lenten season is that you truly feel yourself accompanying Jesus on his journey of his passion, the cross and the resurrection. Blessings to all of you on this first Sunday of the holy season of Lent .

Stewardship Thought

Today's first reading describes the offering of first fruits the people of Israel were to present to the Lord in thanksgiving for their deliverance from Egypt and the gift of the promised land. Is my offering at today's Mass an appropriate response to the many blessings the Lord has given me?

The Catholic Church has always demonstrated a concern for children. The Diocese of Jackson is committed to ensuring that children served by the church are not at risk of sexual abuse by the Church personnel.

Diocesan policies and procedures currently in place seek to protect, enhance and, in some cases, restore the trust that our faith calls for between agents of the Church and the children and adolescents entrusted to our care. In accordance with the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People passed by the U.S. bishops in Dallas, the Diocese of Jackson wishes to encourage any victim of sexual abuse by a member of the Catholic Clergy to come forward and begin the healing process. When an allegation is found to be credible, counseling will be offered, so that the healing process can begin in accord with our present diocesan policy. We encourage any victim to contact Ms. Valerie McClellan, Victims Assistance Coordinator at 601-326-3728.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, RCIA, will not meet on Tuesday, March 12th our next session will be Tuesday, March 19th . The topic will be "A Love That Last" Part 1.

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." 1 Peter 4:10
