Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 1, 2019

The Gospel today talks about the virtue of humility, so I am going to share some of my favorite quotes on humility from some luminaries in our Catholic faith. Blessings to all you - have a blessed week. Father Lincoln.

"You must always humble yourself lovingly before God and before men, because God speaks only to those who are truly humble and He enriches them with His gifts." (St Padre Pio - 1887 - 1968)

To be taken with love for a soul, God does not look on its greatness, but the greatness of its humility. (St John of the Cross - 1542 - 1591)

"No one reaches the kingdom of Heaven except by humility". (St Augustine of Hippo - 354 - 430)

"Humility must always be doing its work in us like a bee making its honey in the hive: without humility, all will be lost." (St Teresa of Avila - 1515 - 1582)

"The most powerful weapon to conquer the devil is humility. For, as he does not know at all how to employ it, neither does he know how to defend himself from it." (St Vincent de Paul - 1581 - 1660)

"Humility is an attitude of honesty with God, oneself, and of all reality. It enables us to be at peace in the presence of our powerlessness and to rest in the forgetfulness of self." (Father Thomas Keating - 1923 - 2018)

"The truly humble reject all praise for themselves, and refer it all to God." (St. Alphonsus Liguori - 1696 - 1787)

Stewardship Thought

In the Gospel today, Jesus warns us not to give in to hopes of repayment, but to give openhandedly to the poor and needy. That sort of giving mirrors the bountiful giving of God, and Jesus assures us it is blessed indeed!

Monday, September 2nd is Labor Day. The St. Jude offices will be closed.

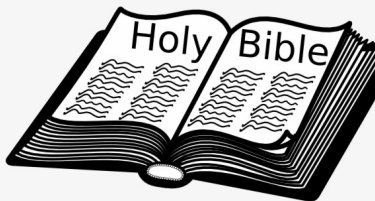

Join us on the First Fridays for 24 hours of Eucharistic Adoration in the Prayer Chapel. Adoration will begin at 5:00 am on Friday, September 6th and will continue until 5:00 am on Saturday ending with Rosary and Benediction. There is a sign-up notebook in the back of the Church. Please sign-up to spend an hour with the Lord in Adoration.

The Rite of Institution of Lectors is one of the ministries a Deacon must receive before ordination to the Diaconate. Those given the ministry of Lector are entrusted with reading the Sacred Scriptures during Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours. Each candidate receiving the ministry of Lector will be instructed by Bishop Kopacz, "Take this book of holy Scripture and be faithful in handing on the word of God, so that it may grow strong in the hearts of his people."

Lectio: Prayer

Session 1: Prayer

Prayer as a Conversation

Prayer is one of the most basic elements of a life of faith, but sometimes it feels like a one-way “conversation.” Dr. Gray shows how the solution to this problem can be found in the Scriptures.

Watch on formed.org

“Dr. Tim Gray explains the practice of Lectio in a way that makes you thirst for more!”

—Debbie S., Austin, TX

The Catholic Church has always demonstrated a concern for children. The Diocese of Jackson is committed to ensuring that children served by the church are not at risk of sexual abuse by the Church personnel.

Diocesan policies and procedures currently in place seek to protect, enhance and, in some cases, restore the trust that our faith calls for between agents of the Church and the children and adolescents entrusted to our care. In accordance with the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People passed by the U.S. bishops in Dallas, the Diocese of Jackson wishes to encourage any victim of sexual abuse by a member of the Catholic Clergy to come forward and begin the healing process. When an allegation is found to be credible, counseling will be offered, so that the healing process can begin in accord with our present diocesan policy. We encourage any victim to contact Ms. Valerie McClellan, Victims Assistance Coordinator at 601-326-3728.
