Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection
April, 12, 2020

On Easter morning, John's Gospel tells us that Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early while it was still dark. Her Lord and Savior had just been crucified. It was still dark outside in the early morning hours when she visited the tomb. The darkness of the early morning hours was probably overshadowed by the spiritual darkness that consumed her that morning. Full of remorse, pain and frustration, Mary Magdalene believed that our Lord's body had been stolen from the tomb. He had been put to death in the most violent way possible, but now his body cannot even be anointed in the Jewish burial tradition. This is a first sign for Mary Magdalene, for Peter and the beloved disciple, of knowing that something very special and very unique was happening. But they still no idea what all of this was about, about the full implications that the resurrection would have on their lives and their faith.

In the coming weeks, in our daily readings during the Easter season masses, we will hear of how the disciples tried to make sense of what was going on, of this new reality in their lives of faith. They thought everything they believe in had come to an end with Christ's death. Now, the light of Christ's resurrection has changed everything again.

We are living in a very different reality, too, so hopefully Christ's resurrection will help us see things in a new light as well. We are probably feeling a whole range of feelings right now, with a lot of confusion and frustration amongst those feelings. And it has been so hard being away from our public masses and liturgies and from gathering as a faith community during most of Lent and all of Holy Week. We don't know when the stay-at-home order will be lifted, but the joy of the resurrection is with us! Christ is risen! We will continue to stream masses and liturgies on Facebook Live. We will continue to journey together as a faith community during these challenging times. Blessings to all of you this Easter season!

During to the Coronavirus COVID 19, the St. Jude Parish office is closed until further notice. And we will be working from home. To contact Fr. Lincoln or one of the Staff member call and leave a voice mail and we will receive an email and will be back to you. You can also email:

- Fr. Lincoln at Lincoln.dall@jacksondiocese.org;
- Kelly at kmcgregor @stjudepearl.org;
- Rhonda at rbowden @stjudepearl.org; or
- Stacy at ccd@stjudepearl.org.

You can also leave a message on facebook messenger. We will continue to send out messages via facebook, FlockNote; and our website will be updated with any new directives from Bishop Kopacz and the diocese. Stay safe and well and we will be through this time of crisis.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the family of St. Jude, Pearl, Mississippi are a vibrant, Eucharistic community with caring members that are empowered by baptism to serve God through the sacraments. We will proclaim the good news and provide spiritual and moral guidance to parishioners and the community by creating a holy and comforting place that encourages active participation, service to each other, and love.

Until further notice all activities of St. Jude Parish have been suspended.

Stewardship Thought

tithes and offerings

Very early in the morning after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body with precious oils. The reward of this good and conscientious steward was to be among the first to know that Jesus had been raised from the dead! Alleluia!

Tithing

During these times of uncertainty the mission of St. Jude must continue. You can mail in your weekly, bi-monthly, or monthly tithe to PO Box 5526, Pearl, MS 39288-5526; signup for online Giving <https://www.myowngiving.com/Default.aspx?cid=1649> or dropping your tithe office at the office using the Drop Box located near the door of the Office building. We ask your continued prayers as we adjust to this new hopefully temporary way of life.

Thank you to all who mailed, dropped by with their offering or signed up for online donations.

Keep in touch with us via email and text.

Flocknote

During these uncertain times, we are sending out the ever changing information from the diocese using Flocknote. If you have not been receiving or have opted out our Flocknote mailouts and would like to be added to the list, please contact the office by emailing Kelly at kmcgregor@stjudepearl.org. You can choose to receive these announcements by either text or email.

Although all public Masses have been suspended, Masses will be Live Streaming through Facebook live and on You Tube.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

Prayer for Vocations

God, the source of creation and love, You invite each of us to serve you through the life which is your gift.

May your grace encourage men and women to heights of holiness through service to the church as priests, deacons, sisters, brothers and lay ministers.

Make me an instrument to encourage others to give of themselves and challenge me to do the same.
Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.
