THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD
CHRISTMAS
December 25, 2016

Christ is born for us; let us rejoice in the day of our salvation!

Let us open our hearts to receive the grace of this day, which is Christ himself. Jesus is the radiant “day” which has dawned on the horizon of humanity.

A day of mercy in which God our Father has revealed his great tenderness to the entire world.

A day of light which dispels the darkness of fear and anxiety.

A day of peace which makes for encounter, dialogue and, above all, reconciliation.

A day of joy: a “great joy” for the poor, the lowly and for all the people.

On this day, Jesus, the Savior is born of the Virgin Mary. The Crib makes us see the “sign” which God has given us: “a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger” (Luke 2:12).

He alone, he alone can save us. Only God’s mercy can free humanity from the many forms of evil, at times monstrous evil, which selfishness spawns in our midst. The grace of God can convert hearts and offer mankind a way out of humanly insoluble situations. Where God is born, hope is born. He brings hope. Where God is born, peace is born. And where peace is born, there is no longer room for hatred and for war. Yet precisely where the incarnate Son of God came into the world, tensions and violence persist, and peace remains a gift to be implored and built. May Israelis and Palestinians resume direct dialogue and reach an agreement which will enable the two peoples to live together in harmony, ending a conflict which has long set them at odds, with grave repercussions for the entire region.

Where God is born, hope is born; and where hope is born, persons regain their dignity. Yet even today great numbers of men and woman are deprived of their human dignity and, like the child Jesus, suffer cold, poverty, and rejection. May our closeness today be felt by those who are most vulnerable, especially child soldiers, women who suffer violence, and the victims of human trafficking and the drug trade.

Today, then, let us together rejoice in the day of our salvation. As we contemplate the Crib, let us gaze on the open arms of Jesus, which show us the merciful embrace of God, as we hear the cries of the child who whispers to us: “for my brethren and companions’ sake, I will say; Peace be within you.”

It is Christmas, and so I pray that all can welcome into their lives the mercy of God which Jesus Christ has bestowed on us, so that we in turn can show mercy to our brothers and sisters. In this way, we will make peace grow!

Happy Christmas!

Greenfield 2016

Dear Christ Child Families,
We did it again! We brought joy to 58 families which included 93 parents and 156 children.

Thank you for your generosity during this wonderful season of giving.

God bless,
Karen & Pat

Special thanks go to the Greenfield team that plans and organizes for us, Fr. Eugenio for his leadership, Pat and Chuck McCrery for their moral support and shopping expertise, Caralie Olsen for organizing the food donations and baking hundreds of cookies, and Andrea and Joe Bruna for the collection and sorting of the donated items for the cost drive.
