Wedding at Cana
John 2:1-11
Second Sunday in Ordinary time

First Reading (Isaiah 62:1-5)

The Prophet Isaiah fills his passage with visions of a fabulous wedding feast: God the Bridegroom rejoices in his bride. God assures us that no matter what our sinful past deeds are; God is in charge, transforming us into his own beloved spouse. Jesus, in today’s Gospel also uses a wedding feast to help his disciples see God’s power at work in him.

Second Reading (1Corinthians 12:4-11)

For the next seven weeks, during these Sundays in Ordinary Time, the Church asks us to be attentive to the message of St. Paul in his First Letter to the Corinthians. He reminds that community (and us) that all the spiritual gifts we have are given to us by the same Spirit and so all the gifts are equally valuable, and each Christian has something to offer for the benefit of the whole local community.

All the Days of My Life

Those who celebrate the sacrament of (Marriage) say, I promise to be true to you, in joy and in sadness, in sickness and in health; I will love you and honor you all the days of my life... (They say this because) they need Jesus’ help to walk beside one another in trust, to accept one another each day, and daily to forgive one another. And this is important! To know how to forgive one another in families because we all make mistakes, all of us!

Reflection: Are you still holding on to a mistake of a loved one? Maybe they intentionally hurt you. Maybe they made a poor decision that disappointed you. The spiritual works of mercy invite us to forgive all injuries. Call on Jesus for help.
