ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Every Wednesday, after the morning mass, we have an opportunity to participate in an Adoration. We are going to pray with the Morning Prayer, taken from the Liturgy of the Hours, and a special devotional prayer to Saint Jude.

All people are invited and welcome!

The church is open for visitors during office hours: Monday—Friday, 9AM-3PM.

FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, 'Take it, this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine, until the day I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'"

With these words Saint Mark concludes the last supper and they left for Gethsemane. At every mass, as the priest, in the person of Christ, takes, breaks, blesses and tells me that Christ becomes present in his hands and on the altar. What does this gesture and these words do to me?

I look upon the sacred species and cup of blessing, and acknowledge my belief that Jesus is now present in the sacrament of His Body and Blood. The succeeding prayers are leading me to the moment when I can eat and drink the gift of Holy Communion. A miracle has taken place. In my prayer I ask the Lord to help me not to take this special moment casually or routinely. The Lord wants to come to me. I need Him, and who am I that He should pick me out for this gift? I echo the question of Elizabeth 'How is it that He comes to me?' I am His beloved and He wants to be with me.

A BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

Moses explained to the people the commandments he had received from God. Upon hearing them, the entire community immediately agreed they would do as God had told them. Moses then sacrificed young bulls and sprinkled the people with their blood, calling it the blood of the covenant they had made.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Jesus did not offer God the blood of sacrifices, but instead he offered up his own blood to cleanse all people of the transgressions they had committed under the first covenant with God. Christ instead brought a new covenant, which, if kept, would lead to eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sent two of his disciples to prepare the Passover supper. During the meal he blessed bread and offered it to them saying, "This is my body." He then offered them wine and called it his blood, "the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many."

DIOCESE

PATERSON

(973) 777-8818

We invite Pastors, Priests, teachers, DREs/CREs, and catechists, to attend the Catechetical Convocation 2024: *Shaping the Future of Catechesis in Our Diocese, a presentation by Most Reverend Bishop Frank J. Caggiano, Chairman of the USCCB Subcommittee on the Catechism, on Wednesday, October 9, at St. Elizabeth University, Dolan Performance Hall. During this session, you will be able to discuss issues related to the state of catechesis, best practices, areas for growth, and the implementation of the Directory for Catechesis (2020) in parishes and schools. The goal of this year's convocation is to develop a clearer, common understanding of "evangelizing catechesis" and how to encourage it in your parishes. I hope to see you there! Bishop Caggiano's presentation will be offered at two times on October 9, at 1:30pm —3:30pm or 7pm—9pm. Each session will cover the same material, so choose the most convenient time for you to attend.

Come witness this gospel in action on Sunday, June 2nd, at Corpus Christi Roman Catholic Church in Chatham. Bishop Sweeney invites all first communicants and their families to join him to learn more about their faith. On this special day, our bishop, following apostolic tradition, will offer catechesis on the Eucharist. In addition, there will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a Procession, and Benediction.

Catechists and Parents:

Today more than ever, we need our children to experience how a bishop leads his flock. Bishop Kevin Sweeney is our spiritual father, our shepherd. When we celebrated Good Shepherd Sunday last week, the Gospel reading proclaimed: "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me" (Jn. 10, 27). Let's hear Jesus' words through our Bishop.

Do not miss this opportunity to meet our Bishop and experience what it means for our Catholic community to be led by a Shepherd. This is an unforgettable experience for our children. You can register by clicking on the following link:

<https://www.insidethewalls.org/first-communicants>

All first communicants and their family will have the opportunity to take a picture with the Bishop at the conclusion of the prayer service.

NFP 2.0

A FOUR-PART PODCAST

Did you hear wonderful things about Natural Family Planning before you were married? As you looked at beautiful images of happy couples in NFP materials, did you anticipate the wonders of being able to faithfully plan your family while also enriching your marriage? Has NFP met all those hopes?

If not, don't worry. "Natural Family Planning 2.0" addresses the common issues couples face when NFP meets the reality of living out the Sacrament of Marriage. Building on your deep love for one another and your experiences in marriage, this podcast offers an opportunity to solve some of the most common obstacles couples encounter while offering important insights.

Using NFP Effectively

Session One of NFP 2.0 offers specific ways a married couple can achieve high efficacy using Natural Family Planning. It includes a discussion about important technical considerations when using a method as well as how our marital partnership impacts efficacy.

01

NFP Doesn't Work For My Body

Session Two focuses on the hormonal imbalances charting with Natural Family Planning can reveal. A description of several types of imbalances are discussed along with possible lifestyle and medical options to help. The session wraps up by considering ways to approach challenges as a mutually supportive, loving partnership.

02

Managing Different Desires

Natural Family Planning intensifies the challenge of differing levels of desire between a husband and wife. The conversation in this session is wide-ranging and includes basic physiological differences between the spouses, medical obstacles, disillusionment about sexual ideals when love demands sacrifice, and suggestions to consider to create more unity and joy.

03

Unplanned Pregnancies + Growing Attachment

Session Four lays out suggested groundwork for couples who want to develop the strength to weather any challenge well, including an unplanned pregnancy. Expanding on the Marriage Castle analogy from Session Three, listeners can reflect on attachment, the marital friendship, and rightly ordered sexual union. The challenge of an unplanned pregnancy is discussed, including both best practices and things to avoid.

RETREAT CENTER

June 7th thru June 9th

The Retreat theme is Only Say the Word. When Jesus encounters the centurion in the Gospel of Matthew (8:5-13), he meets a person of deep faith and humility who knows that healing comes from God alone. The retreat starts with dinner on Friday night and ends with lunch after mass on Sunday. The retreat is held on the beautiful grounds of Holy Family Monastery. www.holyfamilyretreat.org

The first man and woman to sign up who never attended a retreat at Holy family will get to attend the retreat for FREE! For all others, the cost is $350 for the weekend. Please explore the Holy Family website at www.holyfamilyretreat.org/themed-retreats
