

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

I came into this world
for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind.

John 9:39

Weekly Prayer

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Matthew 5:6, NIV

Dear Father in heaven, may our hearts find words to praise you together, to ask you with one accord that we may be brought into community with you. We come to you with our whole selves, with all that we have experienced, with all that has been given to us through your leading. For to this day you have shown us the way, guiding us through right and wrong, through the perfect and the imperfect. You have led us all to know that we belong to you. We are yours. You are working in us to bring about what you have in mind for each one of us and for the many, many who hunger and thirst for justice and truth. Be with us through your Spirit. Touch us through the hand of Jesus Christ. He is our Savior, and we hold fast to him so that we can praise you in his name. Amen.

Easter Floral Memorials are now being accepted at the church office (you may also drop in the collection basket) until March 31st at Noon.
