POWERFUL PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From The Pastor's Desk

Grace and peace to you. Today is Laetare Sunday, a word that means “rejoice”. It is one of two days during the liturgical year when the priest and deacon wear the color rose, a joyful color. We also decorate the altar with flowers. As the Scriptures say, “Today is holy to the Lord your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep; for today is holy to our Lord. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the Lord must be your strength!” (Neh. 8:9,10). And so, we have a little break from the penitential character of Lent (the bitter) as a reminder that while we weep in the valley of tears, we nevertheless rejoice for all that the Lord Jesus has accomplished through the Paschal Mystery (the sweet).

Speaking of the bitter-sweet, this weekend will be our Music Director, Greg Safko’s, last week. For many years, Greg has been a faithful and talented steward of our parish’s music program. I want to express how grateful we are for having had him share his gifts with the parish for so long—it is a rare treasure that someone offer the dedication and time that Greg has to St. Isaac’s. Now, he begins a new chapter in his musical career, focusing on other venues. We thank Greg for his contributions to the parish over the years and wish him the very best. I also invited him to provide a little farewell in his own words. Please see the bulletin for his letter.

What will happen with the music program at St. Isaac’s? While we are accepting resumes for a new music minister, we will have substitute organists to tie us over for the next couple months. And since our children’s choir is under the direction of Domenica Rosati, it will continue as usual. Please pray for the grace to help us navigate this transition.

Our Children’s Religious Formation program offered Soups & Stations last Friday (March 6) with a record turnout of students to greet people, serve food and tables. We are slowly growing this event. This year featured homemade soups, salads, and delicious homemade breads. Following dinner, many of the students participated in Stations of the Cross as readers. I want to thank David Barr, Anna Lorang, our catechists, and all the parents who helped make the event possible. Next year, everyone in the parish needs to attend. These children are the future of the church and the life of the parish. Any leftover food was donated to local families in need.

Next Thursday is the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To mark this special occasion, we will be blessing and distributing bread at the 8:30AM daily Mass. The blessing and distribution of bread is a Sicilian tradition that has spread to many countries. Special thanks to Anthony and Francesca Cusumano for donating the bread.

Lastly, next Friday will be the Knights of Columbus second Lenten Fish Bake. This is the last chance for tickets. Please see one of the Knights in the Gathering Space after Mass. Delicious fish, crab cakes, and mac ‘n cheese. What more could we ask for?

Our Elect will have their second scrutiny at the 11AM Mass on Sunday. The scrutinies are rites aimed at discerning suitability, purifying from evil influences, and preparing the elect for the sacraments. They originated as ancient liturgical practices involving exorcisms and inquiries into faith and morals. This week, the elect will receive a copy of the Lord’s Prayer, the perfect prayer of the Christian.

Our readings are chosen specifically for the scrutinies and focus us on faith. The prophet Samuel discerns which son of Jesse to anoint by listening to the voice of God in his heart: “Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart” (1 Sm. 16:7). St. Paul speaks of how those who do not know Christ are in darkness, but those who do are in the light. Themes of light and dark are found throughout the Scriptures. In the gospel, the blind man is completely in darkness, but when he encounters Jesus, he begins to see. Jesus says, “While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” Christ is our light. How is the light of Christ shining in us today?

*Pax,
Fr. Jim*

 Thank You & Farewell from Greg Safko

Dear Parishioners at the Church of St. Isaac Jogues,

It is with a mixture of gratitude and sadness that I announce my resignation as Music Director, effective this weekend.

Serving as your Music Director for the past 16 years has been a truly rewarding experience. I want to express my deepest thanks to the congregation for your warm support, and especially to the choir members who have put their hearts into our worship services every weekend.

Serving you has been a profound joy, and I will always cherish the memories of making music. All of this would not have been possible without the dedication of the choir, who made every Saturday and Sunday special.

My next chapter will include many musical and non-musical ventures which I am excited to pursue. I wish the church all the best in the future, and I will assist in any way I can as the church moves forward and transitions to a new Music Director.

Thank you for allowing me to share my musical gifts with you.

With gratitude,
Greg Safko
