POWERFUL PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Divine Power of God - cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits, who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of soul
Amen.

From The Pastor's Desk

Grace to you and peace. A big thank you is in order for all who contributed to our 250th Anniversary USA Flag Dedication. It was so nice to see all the flags blowing together in the wind as we celebrated a great milestone for our country. I suppose the next big one will be in another 25 years. Until then, let's continue to maintain the ideals laid out by our founding fathers, always mindful that we have been given certain unalienable rights by our Creator. That is to say, Rights are not manufactured, but endowed by God. Every one of us is born free, and like our first parents, Adam & Eve, we are met with an existential question: Will I serve God? Let not the rebellion of Satan and his minions, "non serviam" (I will not serve) rule our hearts. Instead, let us draw closer to God through His Son, the new Adam, who is the way, and the truth, and the life.

The notion of serving God is also found in our first reading from the prophet Isaiah, who informs us that just as the rains are sent to bring about growth from the earth, so too is the word of God sent to carry out the will of the Father. St. John connects the logos (Greek for "word") of God to Jesus Christ: "And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us..." (Jn. 1:14a). Jesus dwelt among us to fulfill the will of His heavenly Father, and to show us the way to the Father. As it says in Psalm 40: "Sacrifice and offering you do not want; I delight to do your will, my God; your law is in my inner being!"

In today's Gospel, we listen to Jesus, the Incarnate Word of God, giving us the Parable of the Sower. Jesus uses a familiar image of one who sows seed, like any farmer; however, this sower spreads seed in some very unlikely places. What kind of farmer scatters seed on the road or among thorns? Would not a prudent farmer prefer rather to sow on fertile ground? Yes, but if the seed is an analogy for the word of God, then perhaps there may be no other opportunities for the word to take root than on the road or among thorns. As St. Paul says, "Thus faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ" (Rm. 10:17), "But how can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach?" (Rm. 10:14). Therefore, "There is no speech, no words; their voice is not heard; [yet] a report goes forth through all the earth, their messages, to the ends of the world" (Ps. 19:4-5). That is to say, while we may not hear the actual voices of the apostles, we still have their message. This is the word of God handed on throughout the ages, thus fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah: "my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it." Thanks be to God we continue to receive this word. My prayer for each of us is that we remain rich soil so that this word may continue to grow and bear fruit a hundred, or sixty, or thirtyfold.

Speaking of the Word of God, this week we began our Come and See: Summer Scripture Study this past Tuesday. This study is geared towards students who have a desire to deepen their knowledge and understanding of Scripture and grow in their faith. The group will continue to meet on Tuesday evenings at 6pm in the Parish Center for the next four weeks. Please contact Mr. Barr at david.barr@cosij.org to enroll your child to join in this study.

This weekend we welcome the Dominican Sisters of Mary Immaculate Province, a congregation of Vietnamese consecrated women religious based in Houston, Texas, who trace their origins to the Dominican Sisters of St. Catherine of Siena in Vietnam. The sisters support the poor in Vietnam, serving those in need by providing education, housing, food, safe drinking water, care for orphans, and basic medical assistance for individuals affected by leprosy. They are visiting our parish as part of the Missionary Cooperative Plan of the Diocese of Trenton. We will hear from the sisters after all the Masses this weekend. A collection will be taken at the end of each Mass to support their mission. Thank you for your generosity.

Lastly, the Parish Council met with parishioners and vendors last Wednesday to discuss St. Isaac's 30th Anniversary Festival. The date is set for Saturday, October 17 between 10AM – 2PM. While this celebration marks an important milestone for our parish this year, the goal is to have St. Isaac's Fest every year as an opportunity to welcome the greater community to visit our parish and discover our love for God and neighbor. We plan to have bouncy castles and wagon rides for the children, food, games, music, crafts, and more. To that end, we need volunteers to help with these different areas. We are also looking for donations for raffle prizes. Please see the ad in the bulletin for more information. Thanks for all you do for our parish!

Pax,
Fr. Jim
