A Note From Our Pastor

V. Rev. Daniel Greenleaf

Dear Parishioners,

October is the month of the Rosary, and we would like to introduce it to families as a way to pray together. After certain weekend Masses for the month of October, we will invite all the children near the Blessed Mother statue for one decade of the Rosary for the family. Please consider joining us after Mass to pray in honor of the Blessed Mother. Our goal this month is to get rosaries into as many hands as possible and to reintroduce it as a standard part of the prayer life of Catholics. Also, if you are reading this before Saturday morning, please come and join us for the Rosary Rally as we walk downtown Lisbon Falls and pray the Rosary in public.

Speaking about prayer, I hope that you got a chance to visit our Adoration Chapel. It has been so heartwarming to see people entering the chapel all day long. This is a beautiful testimony to the faith in our parish. Please consider making a commitment to go on a regular basis to the chapel to pray. Years ago, the churches were open for a quick little visit, but now, times have changed, and it is impossible to keep things unattended. Now with the generosity of adorers, two people each hour have committed to remain with the Blessed Sacrament so that anyone can come in for a short prayer on the way to and from home, from work, during a lunch break, or in the evenings. It is truly a great gift the adorers are offering our parish. Please take advantage of it and think about committing to one hour a week yourself.

Finally, we pray for members of the Church in Michigan who have experienced the shooting and fire. Whenever I hear about these tragedies, it takes me back to our own experience here in Lewiston. Moreover, it seems that there is a rise in attacks on religious groups and religious ideas. It is very sad that we are at a point where we say, "another shooting." This is the direct result of no dialogue and fostering hate. This seems to be the norm in our polarized and extremist-driven society. Now, if you listen to the media and indulge in social media pushed by algorithms, you cannot help but take on what they push by using sensationalism for profit. I wish we had a release valve on this pressure cooker society we are fostering. It feels like sooner or later the top will be blown off. If you find yourself having out-of-control and persistent anger because of what the "left" or the "right" are saying and doing, please seek spiritual and emotional help. It cannot be good for the soul. Peace, Fr. Daniel

About Our Cover This Week:

Edge Middle School & Called High School Ministries Return This Weekend, Sunday, October 5th, at 6PM at Holy Family.

It's no secret: the world is loud. Teens are pulled in every direction – to be the best athlete, scholar, friend, and even child. Others feel discouraged, lost in the noise, and quietly resign themselves to feeling unworthy.

In a culture of busyness and distraction, Called & Edge create space to simply be. Here, teens can encounter their true worth, see the bigger picture, and discover in their neighbors not only humanity, but Jesus Himself.

Come step away from the noise. Come focus on community. Come equip your teen to stand in the world as a follower of Jesus.

Join us this Sunday, October 5th, at 6PM in Holy Family Hall. Full schedule and registration available at princeofpeace.me/eco.

The Office of Evangelization & Catechesis

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him, the greatest adventure; to find Him, the greatest human achievement." — St. Augustine

St. Joseph's SPRED Returns in October

SPRED is a faith-sharing program for children and young adults with cognitive and developmental disabilities. Sessions move at a gentle pace, using music, symbols, and simple activities to help participants experience God's presence and community. Through prayer, sharing, and friendship, everyone is encouraged to listen, reflect, and become a light for one another.

Our first meeting is October 8, at Sacred Heart Church Hall from 5:00-6:30 PM. We will continue meeting monthly on the second Wednesday through May. For more information, contact Deb.

Forming a Habit of Prayer

Praying the Rosary as a family won't always be neat and quiet — children fidget, thoughts wander, and five decades can feel long. But even in the mess, grace is flowing. What matters is that you begin, together, and let God's presence grow in your home through Mary and the life of Jesus.

Getting Started:

- Get the whole family on board — both spouses must commit, or the children will sense hesitation.
- Start with one decade — don't force all five at once.
- Give options for kids — after the first decade, they can play quietly, color holy images, or use Catholic toys. Parents should continue through.
- Pick a regular time — after dinner, before bed, or even in the car.
- Create a simple prayer space — a candle, crucifix, and a basket of rosaries.
- Relax — you don't make the grace happen; God does.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: SACRAMENT OF THE SICK AT CMMC

Central Maine Medical Center eliminated their Pastoral Care Office. All Catholics need to be aware that there is no longer a pastoral care office at Central Maine Medical Center. Fr. Gabriel, who is paid through the Catholic Appeal, will still do ministry at the hospital but no longer has a department and a team with him. Therefore, if you need a priest while at the hospital, please call the parish office at 777-1200, and we will contact Fr. Gabriel. After hours, the menu on the phone message will connect you with the priest on call.

Recent Funerals in Our Parish

SUNDAY OCTOBER 19

October is the Month of the Rosary

How the Blessed Mother always leads us to Jesus.

Prayer can feel intimidating. Starting out, or being asked to pray in public, is a little like asking a friend for help or finding the courage to invite someone to dance. It takes trust that the other will respond.

As we begin the Month of the Rosary, we start with Mary. The Our Father teaches us to ask God for what we need. The Hail Mary teaches us how to trust with hope. Mary said yes in humility, received God's grace, and loved her Son through joy and suffering. When we ask her to pray for us, we remember that death is only a veil, and heaven is our home.

Even the world senses this hope. In football, a "Hail Mary pass" is a last resort. For us, the Hail Mary is our first response — a prayer of hope that always leads us to Jesus.

Mary never stopped trusting Him. Each time we pray the Hail Mary, we share in that trust. In the weeks ahead, we'll look more closely at the words themselves and discover how they draw us deeper into Christ.

Hail Mary,
Full of Grace,
The Lord is with Thee.
Blessed art Thou Among Women,
And Blessed is the Fruit of Thy Womb,
Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
Pray for Us Sinners, Now,
And at the Hour of Our Death.

Pro - Life for October 5th

"We are called to be signs of hope to all people, especially those whose goodness, value, and dignity are undermined. As members of the Body of Christ, we carry this hope with us as we continue Jesus' mission on earth... We have been entrusted with a message of hope for the woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant or for the man diagnosed with a terminal illness. At these challenging moments, we must bring God's presence, witnessing to His love, and inspiring a renewal of hope in those whose hearts are burdened."

Thank you from St. Joseph's College

On behalf of the Saint Joseph's College of Maine family, we extend our thanks to Father Daniel Greenleaf and the community of the former Our Lady of the Rosary Church in Sabattus for their generous donation of the altar of sacrifice, altar of reservation (for the tabernacle), ambo, baptismal font, priest's chair, and holy water fonts to Maine's only Catholic college. We've already placed several of the items in our chapel, and they are wonderful additions. We are very grateful that these lovely sacred furnishings will continue to be used in the worship of God on our campus in Standish.

You are very welcome to join us for Mass in the Healy Chapel (Sunday, Monday, and Thursday at 8:00 PM, as well as Tuesday and Wednesday at 12:00 noon) or Eucharistic adoration (Thursday evenings at 7:00 PM) any time you come to our beautiful home on the shores of Sebago Lake. Visit dub.sh/sjcme online for directions.

Many thanks!

SECOND COLLECTION

October 19, 2025, Mission Sunday

You may have noticed that our offertory is currently below budget as we begin this new fiscal year. I kindly invite each of you to prayerfully review your finances and consider, if possible, adding a little more to your weekly giving. I know that times can be challenging, and every situation is different, but together we are called to care for our parish family and to ensure that our church continues to serve future generations.

This past week we had a water leak with the sprinkler system piping at Holy Trinity. We were lucky that the fire department responded quickly, and the broken pipe was easily found. The damage to the building is minimal and mostly in the hall entryway and a small area in the entrance of the office. The water and power were shut down for one day. We will be replacing the ceiling tiles and the piping soon.

As always if you have any questions and/or concerns please do not hesitate to give me a call at the office.
