THE ENROLLED NAMES WILL BE
PRAYED FOR IN A SPECIAL WAY
AT MASS, ALL MONTH LONG.

All Soul's Day
Roman Catholic Church

A Note From Our Pastor V. Rev. Daniel Greenleaf

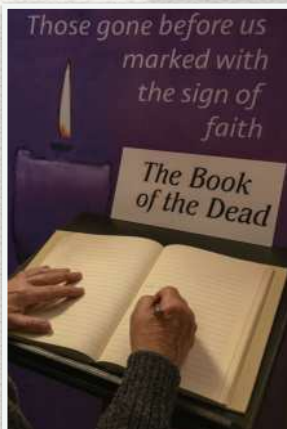

Dear Parishioners,

November has begun, and it is the month when Catholics remember those who have passed away. To remember the dead, to pray for them, and to ask for their intercession are activities that Catholics have done for centuries as spiritual works of mercy. We will have the annual book of the dead at each church for you to place the names of your loved ones. For each Mass for the month of November, we will have an intention for all the names listed in the book. Feel free to look for the purple banner with a binder and book. We have invited the families of those whose loved ones have celebrated funerals in our churches this past year to Masses on the weekend of November 16, and we will read their names and toll a bell in prayer for their souls. Along with these activities, we will remember Veterans, and various groups will host prayer services in honor of the deceased. It is what we do as Catholics for this month.

We are closing on the lease with Community Concepts, who plans on moving into the Holy Family School building. They plan on doing some updating to the building as part of their lease. The basement floor will be for the parish. We are planning on making the basement our parish evangelization center along with a small Catholic shop. Our evangelization center will be a place of education and faith sharing for groups, which will give us more spaces to meet in this very busy parish. As soon as it is ready, we will host an open house.

We are also closing on the sale of property the parish owns on Martin Drive in Lewiston. The city is interested in the property and plans on keeping it a park and little league field. This was our hope and the reason why we opted to turn to the city to purchase and care for the property. There are rumors and much confusion in the media and among interested parties, but not one of them has ever spoken to me to get information that is firsthand. I am hoping we can close on this property soon, and it can remain a place for families to gather and create memories.

About Our Cover This Week:

The Book of the Dead

On this day—and throughout the month of November—the Church prays for those who have gone before us, trusting in the mercy of God and the promise of the Resurrection.

The image on our cover features our Book of the Dead, found beside the purple banners in each of our three churches.

We invite you to enroll the names of your loved ones who have died. These names will be remembered and prayed for at Mass all month long.

As a family, take time to pray for the dead—visit cemeteries, offer a Rosary, or simply name them together in prayer at night. In doing so, we live out a spiritual work of mercy and proclaim our faith that life is changed, not ended.

Vocations: A Call to Consecrated Life

On November 23rd at 2:00PM, Young women (ages 13 and up) are invited to a special day at the Basilica with two of the Children of Mary Sisters visiting from their Motherhouse in Ohio. This gathering offers an opportunity to discover the beauty of a vocation to religious life and to encounter the joy of those who have given their lives entirely to Christ. The afternoon will include a talk on vocations, time for questions, prayer, and dinner with the Sisters.

RSVP is required for planning purposes—please contact Catherine Madore at cathymadore76@gmail.com.

Can you help us cover the Sisters travel costs?

The visit of the Children of Mary Sisters is both a gift and an inspiration for our parish community. To help cover travel and hospitality costs, we invite your prayerful and financial support. Every contribution helps make this encounter possible and strengthens our ongoing efforts to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life here in Maine.

To learn more or make a donation, visit princeofpeace.me/children-of-mary or scan the QR code in the bulletin. Please note "Children of Mary / Vocations Day" in the memo of any check donations made to Prince of Peace Parish.

Pro-Life News For November 2nd

"Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families. While palliative care cannot entirely eradicate suffering from people's lives, it provides an authentic expression of human and Christian care—allowing us to 'remain' at the side of a suffering person, as the Blessed Mother and the beloved disciple remained at the foot of the Cross...The path of accompaniment until the moment of death must remain open, with appropriate care for body and soul customized to the personal needs of the patient."
