“Joined to the incarnate Son, present in the Eucharist, the whole cosmos gives thanks to God. Indeed the Eucharist is itself an act of cosmic love: ‘Yes, cosmic! Because even when it is celebrated on the humble altar of a country church, the Eucharist is always in some way celebrated on the altar of the world.’” – Pope Francis (Laudato Si, 236)

The Dicastery for Promotion of Integral Human Development is launching a new program and a public commitment for various institutions to begin a 7-year journey to total sustainability in the spirit of Laudato Si'. LITURGY NEWS

USCCB MEETING (REPORT FROM THE FDLIC AND USCCB’S BCDW)

On Thursday, June 17 the full Conference of Bishops passed three action items proposed by the BCDW.

The ICEL Grey Book translation of orations for Mary, Mother of the Church (Roman Missal) Proper texts for the recently instituted Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church were approved by a vote of 188-2. Although this memorial’s Mass formulary is already found in the Roman Missal, the ICEL fascicle included translations of texts for the Liturgy of the Hours, as well as citations for the Lectionary for Mass and the Roman Martyrology.

The ICEL Grey Book translation of two more sections of the Liturgy of the Hours -- the additional Intercessions and the Psalter Concluding Prayers

Progress continues on the Liturgy of the Hours, Second Edition as a large volume of texts were approved by the bishops, 186-3 with one abstention. These are the intercessions for Morning and Evening Prayer in the Four-Week Psalter (volumes III and IV), Proper of Saints, Commons, and Office for the Dead. Concluding prayers in the Psalter during Ordinary Time and the optional shorter form of Evening Prayer intercessions found in Appendix II of the breviary were also approved. It is hoped that final votes, including on U.S. proper texts and adaptations, longer and shorter Scripture readings, and rubrics and errata, will be completed by 2023.

The ICEL Grey Book translation of the Order of Penance

The Order of Penance, approved by a vote of 182-6 with two abstentions, contains no changes to the ritual of the Sacrament of Penance since its post-Conciliar editio typica in 1973, but is simply a retranslation. Minor changes to the sacramental formula of absolution are included, subject to final approval by Pope Francis as part of the confirmation process. U.S. adaptations approved for the Order of Penance incorporate existing complementary norms regarding the confessional and general absolution. In addition, one older translation of the Act of Contrition has been added to the ritual edition as a new adaptation, as it is more familiar to many penitents in this country.

USCCB BCDW

At the June 15 meeting, members approved English and Spanish translations of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA), as rearranged from the editio typica to the format known in the United States since 1988. Also approved were the ICEL Gray Book translations of Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery Outside Mass. All three texts will be submitted to the USCCB Administrative Committee for inclusion on the November 2021 plenary meeting agenda. Joining the OCIA are expected to be English and Spanish texts of the revised National Statutes for the Catechumenate, proposed by the Committee on Canonical Affairs and Church Governance. The text has been significantly reduced in size and focuses on specific issues that would constitute particular law for this country.

LITURGY PREPARATION

FROM GIA MUSIC

In light of the recently-released report about the allegations of sexual assault by composer David Haas, as well as in light of new information that has just surfaced reporting alleged continued grooming behaviors by Mr. Haas towards a young woman, GIA has suspended their publishing and sponsorship relationship with him and have also removed his music, books, and recordings from their catalog and website.

Please recall that the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis has denied David Haas a letter of suitability (letter of good standing) after receiving reports that Mr. Haas “acted inappropriately” with adult women. Therefore, Mr. Haas cannot be invited to any event to perform or present in the Diocese of Davenport. In addition, effective 10/14/20, Bishop Zinkula suspended the use of David Haas' music at all diocesan events. Pastors, principals and leaders of other Catholic institutions should consider the sensitivities involved with using Haas’ music in liturgies or other parish or school events, and take appropriate steps to fully support those who have been harmed by sexual assault or abuse. These restrictions have also been applied by the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis where Mr. Haas resides.

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

Blessing Teachers and Students

With school starting, especially in the context of this ongoing pandemic, parishes and schools may want to consider using the Order for the Blessing of Students and Teachers. It is found in the Book of Blessings, nos. 522 and following.

August 6 & 9: 76 years since the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki

Last year, the USCCB Committee for International Peace and Justice (Chaired by Bishop David Malloy) announced a campaign to commemorate the 75th Anniversary of the Bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki on August 6 and 9, 1945. The resources created for that commemoration are still available at: <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/war-and-peace/nuclear-weapons/index.cfm>.

September & October Observations

Please see the Diocesan website (<https://www.davenportdiocese.org/liturgy-events>) for resources relevant to these special observations in September:

- Season of Creation (Sept 1 – Oct 4)
- Labor Day (Mon, Sept 6)
- St. Peter Claver (Wed, Sept 9)
- Saturday, September 11
- World Day of Migrants and Refugees (Sunday, Sept 26)
- Domestic Violence Awareness Month (October) – The isolation required during this pandemic has made domestic violence an even more pressing problem; please also see below for additional resources.

Priesthood Sunday: September 26, 2021

Priesthood Sunday, the last Sunday of September, is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. Resources are available at: <http://www.priestsunday.org/>, <https://serraus.org/priesthood-sunday/>, and <https://www.usccb.org/events/2021/priesthood-sunday>.

October: Domestic Violence Awareness Month

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. In 2002, the US Bishops released When I Call for Help: A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women. They began with an unequivocal condemnation of violence against women:

As pastors of the Catholic Church in the United States, we state as clearly and strongly as we can that violence against women, inside or outside the home, is never justified. Violence in any form—physical, sexual, psychological, or verbal—is sinful; often, it is a crime as well. We have called for a moral revolution to replace a culture of violence. We acknowledge that violence has many forms, many causes, and many victims—men as well as women.

In this document, they called upon the Church in the United States to reach out to both victims and perpetrators of domestic violence. Among the recommendations that they made is to use opportunities within the liturgy and in sacramental preparation programs to draw attention to violence and abuse. Their statement, and further resources and recommendations, may be found on the USCCB website: <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/domestic-violence/>. In addition, resources are available on our website: <http://www.davenportdiocese.org/deacon-formation-resources#DomesticViolence>.
