

In the Diocese of Davenport,

There are three successive paths to the diaconate: initial inquiry, aspirancy, and candidacy. Each path includes the four dimensions for a complete formation process: human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral. During formation, the aspirant and candidate have ample opportunities to participate in pastoral experience. A married man cannot be considered for the diaconate without the consent of his wife. Every effort is made to involve the wife of a married candidate in an appropriate level of participation in her husband's formation. The cultures and traditions of those in diaconal formation are respected and valued. Regular assessments are valuable occasions for the discernment, affirmation, and development of a participant's vocation. The National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States is the guiding document for our diocese's deacon formation program.

Following Formation, the Successful Candidate Demonstrates:

- † an increase in holiness of life;
- † the ability to clearly articulate the Catholic faith;
- † the capacity to apply church teaching and practice to concrete societal issues and pastoral concerns;
- † sensitivity to inculturate the Gospel within the communities in which he lives, works, and ministers;
- † an embrace of the universal nature of the Church and its missionary evangelical spirit;
- † a balanced capacity for and commitment to the ministries of word, liturgy, and charity, demonstrated in his words and deeds;
- † commitment to ongoing growth in the human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral dimensions of formation;
- † the capacity to foster the communion and mission of the lay faithful, in collaboration with the bishop and priests;
- † obedient and humble service to all in the name of the Church;
- † the ability to celebrate, in accordance with the Church's legislation and with due reverence and devotion, those liturgical and sacramental acts that the Church entrusts to the deacon.

For additional information about the diaconate program contact:

Deacon Frank Agnoli,
Director of Deacon Formation
563-888-4257
agnoli@davenportdiocese.org

Deacon Jeff Schuetzle
Director of the Diaconate
563-888-4256
schuetzle@davenportdiocese.org

ARE YOU BEING CALLED TO THE DIACONATE IN THE DIOCESE OF DAVENPORT?

"The Sacred Order of Deacons is to be a driving force for the Church's service or diakonia toward the local Christian communities, and as a sign or sacrament of the Lord Christ himself, who came not to be served but to serve."

Pope Paul VI,
Ad Pascendum, 1972

"Ordination confers an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It configures the deacon to Christ's consecration and mission. It constitutes the deacon as "a sacred minister and a member of the hierarchy," with a distinct identity and integrity in the Church that marks him as neither a lay person nor a priest; rather, the deacon is a cleric who is ordained to diakonia, namely, a service to God's People in communion with the bishop and his body of priests."

Congregation for the Clergy,
*Directory for the Ministry and
Life of Permanent Deacons*, 1998

“The deacon leads the community to reflect on its communion and mission in Jesus Christ, especially impelling the community of believers to live lives of service. Because the deacon sacramentalizes service, he should proclaim the Word in such a way that he first witnesses to its empowerment in his own life.”

-National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States of America, 2nd edition, 34

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

“In the deacon’s liturgical ministry, as in a mirror, the Church sees a reflection of her own diaconal character and is reminded of her mission to serve as Jesus did. Pope Francis said during the 2016 Jubilee of Deacons: ‘when you serve at the table of the Eucharist, there you will find the presence of Jesus, who gives himself to you so that you can give yourselves to others.’”

-National Directory, 35

MINISTRY OF LITURGY

“This is at the very heart of the diaconate to which you have been called: to be a servant of the mysteries of Christ and, at one and the same time, to be a servant of your brothers and sisters. That these two dimensions are inseparably joined together in one reality shows the important nature of the ministry which is yours by ordination.”

-Pope St. John Paul II (National

MINISTRY OF CHARITY

Qualifications for admission to aspirancy in the diaconate formation program

- † man of sound moral character in full communion with the Roman Catholic Church for not less than three years, and who is free of canonical impediments or irregularities;
- † deep spirituality and prayer life that reflects a sound, mature faith attuned to the needs and life of the Church in balance with personal and family needs;
- † frequent participant in the Church’s sacramental life and in adult faith enrichment opportunities, and who demonstrates leadership in the Church and community;
- † natural inclination of service to the Church community and to all in need with the ability to lead, facilitate, and animate others into service;
- † if married, a positive and stable marriage of at least five years and his wife consenting to admission to the program; if not married, a mature celibate state of life;
- † be a citizen of the United States or have permanent resident status; if not, to have the support of their home bishop;
- † be able to understand and speak English;
- † be willing to learn and grow in fluency in Spanish;
- † have completed high school or the equivalent (GED);
- † have access to and be able to use a computer with an internet connection;
- † sound physical and mental health;
- † at the time of ordination, at least 35 years old and not more than 65 years old;