The Gospel, this weekend, takes me back to a retreat I had about 15 years ago. A bishop used this story of Jesus coming to the seashore and asking Peter to profess his love three times. Of course, we all can remember that Peter denied the Lord three times and now he professes his love three times. Love wins because it overcomes the sin of denying the Lord.

How many times do we fail to acknowledge the Lord in public settings when all are looking upon us? How many times do we fail to be associated with Jesus when it might "cost" us something? The bishop remembered this when he was by the sea of Galilee many years ago and he composed a prayer. I do not have his prayer, but I made his prayer my own based on this Gospel: "I love you! I love you!! I love you!!! I give my life to you. Not half heartedly, not begrudgingly, not partially but totally, completely and freely I give myself to you." I can almost hear Satan laughing at me or is it I, myself, sarcastically doubting this profession of love made so completely and forcefully. After all, I am so much aware of my sinfulness, failures and weaknesses, and is it not possible I am setting myself up for the bigger fall by making such a total commitment? Yes, but I know that I could never do this or walk this love without your help and you want this commitment even more than I do. I know, too, that your Spirit has not abandoned me. You that dwell in me is stronger than him that dwells in the world so I say it again, "I love you! I love you!! I love you!!! I give my total self to you. Take Lord. Receive all my liberty, my understanding, my entire will. Give only your love and your grace. That's enough for me. Your love and your grace are enough for me!"

*** Right to Life ***

“Even as our ability to manipulate biological life in the laboratory continues to grow, the principle of life itself remains elusive and beyond our grasp. Living beings, with all their structure and complexity, should never cease to impress us and inspire us with a certain awe, so that even in our bated eagerness to harness their powers, we might avoid reducing life itself to a mere commodity or raw material for our biotechnical prowess to conquer.” Father T Pacholczyk, Ph.D. of the National Bioethics Center in Philadelphia

Prayer – For those in leadership positions, that they may enact lawws to protect the handicapped, the terminally ill and the unborn.

Problem Pregnancy – Call 701-284-6601.
