LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Titles and privileges, palaces and guards, banquets and benefits, servants and fine living, are all things earthly folks associate with kings and royalty. These have no place in Christ. To understand the kingdom of Christ and what it means to have Christ as our king, one must be willing and able to understand transformation, engagement and empowerment. To live in the kingship of Christ, we have to live deeply and contemplatively; allowing God to change not only how we act, but how we feel, think, and see. It is not an easy journey or one that is always welcomed. Sometimes, it is easier and safer to live as if Christ were our earthly king. It's a more black and white world. But the kingdom of Christ exists in a world of gray where the hungry, thirsty, those who are strangers, naked, ill, and imprisoned find a welcome home. It is a kingdom that doesn't always make sense, where the last are first and the weakest are most strong. World economics and secular philosophy doesn't like this kind of king. Maybe that is why they crucified him the first time and continue to. Whatever we do to the least of God's children, we do to God. Do you really want to inherit the kingdom?

CHRIST THE KING SUNDAY (Final Sunday of Ordinary Time – Sunday before Advent)

The Feast of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 to counter the increasing denial of Christ as king to the rise of secularism throughout much of Europe. Many Christians began to doubt Christ's authority and existence, as well as the Church's power to continue Christ's authority. Dictators often attempted to assert authority over the Church and respect for Christ and the Church was waning. This is still a clear and present danger even in America today. Pope Pius hoped the institution of the feast would have various effects including:

That nations would see that the Church has the right to freedom, and immunity from the state;

That leaders and nations would see that they are bound to give respect to Christ;

That the faithful would gain strength and courage from the celebration of the feast, as we are reminded that Christ must reign in our hearts, minds, wills, and bodies.

Today there is the same distrust of authority and the problem is growing worse. Individualism is being embraced to such an extreme that, for many, the only authority is the individual self. The idea of Christ as ruler is rejected in such a strongly individualistic system. Christ's kingship is one of humility and service. In our chaotic and unjust world that seems to scorn any kind of authority, let us celebrate Christ the King Sunday, where the loving and merciful and just King of the Universe is praised and glorified!

The Annual Advent Religious Articles Sale will be held in the narthex from November 23 - December 6th. Sales will be held at the 6p.m. mass on Monday and Wednesday and also at the 5p.m. mass on Saturday and the 8:30 a.m. and 11a.m. mass on Sunday. Checks should be made out to St. Mary's Ladies Guild. Call Pat Deffenbaugh @ 706-244-1316, if any questions. Thanks for your participation.

THE SHEPHERD KING

The job of shepherd and the job of king couldn't be more different from each other. Shepherds are on the lowest rung of society, kings are at the top. But God says, through the prophet Ezekiel, that the Messiah will lead in a way very different from earthly authorities who lord it over their people and cause harm with their poor leadership. Our King takes on the job himself. Christ, like a shepherd, will give rest, seek out the lost, bring back the strayed and scattered ones. He will heal the wounded and bind up the injured. He does not delegate, but will "shepherd them rightly." We have a king who cares for us and who is not afraid

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

As for you, my sheep, thus says the Lord God, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

PSALM:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

SECOND READING:

For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

The last enemy to be destroyed is death. (1 Cor 15:25-26)

GOSPEL:

"He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.

Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'" (Mt 25:33-34)

REFLECT

FIRST READING:

Ezekiel speaks of God as the "shepherd" who will tend to his flock with great care and discerning judgment. What is this teaching us about God's divine nature?

SECOND READING:

Paul reveals to the Corinthians the divine place of the resurrected Jesus Christ in God's final plans for salvation history. As Lord of all things, including death itself, Jesus will hand over everything to God at the end of time. Does this revelation bring you comfort or distress?

GOSPEL:

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the final judgment that will accompany his Second Coming and the end of time. Jesus describes the final judgment in the stark and contrasting terms of eternal life or eternal punishment. Why do you think so many people avoid thinking about Judgement Day?

FEAST OF SAINT CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA
November 25th

Catherine was a young noblewoman schooled in Alexandria in Egypt, one of the great centers of learning in the ancient world. She successfully argued the case for Christianity with pagan philosophers before Emperor Maxentius and was threatened with torture on a spiked wheel. The wheel miraculously exploded so the emperor Catherine beheaded. Before her death Catherine declared her intent to grant the requests of those who prayed to her. She is counted among the Fourteen Holy Helpers, the saints invoked in times of pestilence and plague by the faithful of medieval Germany.

START WITH GRATITUDE

Gratitude is the inward feeling of kindness received. Thankfulness is the natural impulse to express that feeling. Thanksgiving is the following of that impulse.

THANKSGIVING

One act of thanksgiving, when things go wrong with us, is worth a thousand thanks when things are agreeable to our inclinations.

Một lần nữa, con xin chân thành tri ân tất cả quý Ông Bà, Anh Chị Em và cháu đã hết lòng bằng cách này hay cách khác, động viên, kêu gọi mọi người ủng hộ, đóng góp cho việc BÁC ÁI. Con chắc chắn, Chúa sẽ chúc lành cho tất cả chúng ta theo lời Ngài đã hứa, với những nghĩa cử yêu thương, chia sẻ này. Thank you for your prayers and support to help the Vietnamese Victims of recent Typhoon 2020 in Central Vietnam

I am so thrilled by your spontaneous response to help, support, and prayer for our Vietnamese brothers and sisters who are victims of the recent Typhoon in Central Vietnam. Thank you for listening and sharing your compassion with our distance brothers and sisters after seeing the slideshow which I made, and from various media and international podcasts.

As Scriptures inspires us, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers (and sisters) of mine, you did for me." (Mt.25:31-46), I humbly express my deep gratitude and announce that we collected $3,523.00 (HARTWELL) and $4,343.00 (Toccoa). The total is 7,866.00 USD. However, Fr. Henry will match up to 8,000.00 USD.

The money was sent directly to the Dominican Religious Sisters of Diocese of Phu-Cuong. Accompanied by Bishop and clergy, the Religious Sisters are working directly with local communities on sites in order to assist the victims of Typhoon. May God bless you for your generosity.

Your servant in Christ,

Fr. "Henry" Thang M Pham
