Dear Sister Anna and the St Mary Vietnamese Community Church Choir,

Stephanie and I have been attending the Sunday 11AM Mass as often as we can since its inception.

We want to thank you ALL for your commitment and labor that each of you and the Vietnamese community perform each week to be sure Mass occurs without mishaps.

The musicians, choir, ushers, readers, and altar servers all are in place and ready to start each week.

It is a joy and pleasure for Stephanie and me to experience a precious Holy hour with you as a church community.

I am writing you today because our attendance at last Sunday's Mass on July 4th has been the most rewarding experience of Mass attendance in MY LIFE.

When the choir sang the three choruses/verses of 'GOD BLESS AMERICA', (the first two in English and the last in Vietnamese), as the closing hymn, I literally developed a lump in my throat!... It was beautiful!

Thank you so much for being a part of our St Mary church community.

Gary Cortellino, fellow parishioner.
